Imperial Brazilian Mining Association.

BY the 41st article of the deed of settlement it appears, that ten Proprietors, holding not less than 200 shares in the Association, have the power to compel the Directors to call a general meeting; and whereas by the 25th article it appears, that the Directors have the power to declare those shares forfeited, on which payment is not made within twenty-one days after the call has become payable; and whereas there are about 400 shares on which the second call of £5 per share has neither been paid nor any security given for the payment of the same; we, the undersigned Proprietors, holding the necessary qualification, request that the Directors of the Imperial Brazilian Mining Association do either declare the above-mentioned shares forfeited, or do call a public meeting, in order to take the sense of the Proprietors generally as to the expediency of such proceeding.
