A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Wednesday the fourteenth day of June instant: We do, for that end, publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Wednesday the fourteenth day of June instant. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving subjects Our royal will and pleasure to call a new Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the advice of Our Privy Council, We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, that they do respectively, upon notice hereof, forthwith issue out Writs in due form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of July next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this second day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of July next ensuing the date hereof: in order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the thirteenth day of July next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such Election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers: the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh; and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof, during the time of the said election; and to prevent all manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, this second day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign,

GOD save the KING.

Court of King's-Bench, June 5, 1826.

THE following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorized, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to Us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Trinity Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice and the other Judges of Our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Thursday the fifteenth day of this instant June, and from thence daily until and upon Saturday the twenty-fourth day of June instant, and also on Monday the thirtieth day of October next; and from thence daily to the end of the then current week, if the state of the business shall appear to you to make it requisite so to do, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of the present Trinity Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the second day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, in the seventh year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

ROBERT PEEL.

To the Lord Chief Justice and other the Judges of Our Court before Us.

TO ALIENS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, every Alien who shall, on the first day of July next, be in this realm, is required on the same day, or within fourteen days thereafter, to make a declaration in writing of his or her place of abode, names, rank, occupation, and description; (and if a domestic servant, then also the place of abode, names, rank, and description of his or her master or mistress,) and of the country and place from whence he or she came, or of which he or she is a native, and of the time when he or she last came from foreign parts into this realm; and to transmit such declaration by the post, if in Great Britain, to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department at the Alien-Office in Westminster, and if in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and such declaration must be signed by the party making it, if able to write, or otherwise be attested by a magistrate of the place, or by the officiating minister of the parish, or by one or more of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish or township where such Alien shall be: but one such declaration will be sufficient for a parent or parents and any number of children, if made by the father, or in case of his death or incapacity, by the mother.

And by the said Act it is further required, that every Alien in this realm, on the 1st day of January and on the 1st day of July in every year, shall, within one week after those respective days, make a declaration in writing of his or her place of residence, and therein state at what place he or she intends in future to reside, and shall within the same week transmit such declaration by the post, in the manner before prescribed; and power is given to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to require any Alien in Great Britain, and for the Chief Secretary for Ireland to require any Alien in Ireland to make a declaration of his or her actual place of residence, and of the place at which he or she intends to reside in future, at shorter intervals than six months.

And it is enacted, That if any Alien in any of the cases aforesaid shall neglect to make such declaration, or to transmit the same within the time limited, or shall wilfully make or transmit any false declaration, he or she shall, upon conviction thereof before two justices of the peace, for every such offence, either forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds, or be imprisoned for a time not exceeding six months, at the discretion of such justices.

Upon the receipt at this Office of a regular declaration in any of the cases aforesaid, a certificate, setting forth the names; rank, occupation, and description of the Alien, and his or her place of abode, will be immediately made out, and transmitted to him or her by post; and if any Alien shall, by his or her default, not be possessed of such certificate, or shall without any lawful excuse reside in any other place than that expressed in such certificate, every such Alien shall for every such offence forfeit twenty pounds; and if any Alien, being required by any justice of the peace to produce such certificate, shall refuse or neglect so to do, he or she shall be deemed not to be possessed of any certificate.

The Act further provides, That if any certificate issued to any Alien shall be lost, mislaid, or destroyed, and such Alien shall produce to one of His Majesty's justices of the peace proof thereof, and shall make it appear to the satisfaction of such justice that he or she hath duly conformed with the Act, such justice shall testify the same under his hand, and such Alien shall thereby be entitled to demand a fresh certificate.

Where any Alien, about to depart from this realm, shall be desirous of having possession of the passport delivered on his or her debarkation, and shall notify by letter to the Alien-Office in Westminster, or to the Chief Secretary's Office in Dublin, the port at which he or she intends to embark, such passport will be transmitted by the post to the Chief Officer of the Customs of the port so notified, to be delivered to such Alien, on his or her making a declaration in writing of his or her intention of departing, and delivering such declaration to the Chief Officer of the Customs at the port of departure: and a penalty of five pounds will be incurred by every Alien neglecting to make or deliver such declaration.

The only Aliens exempted from the provisions of this Act are the following, viz.: every foreign Ambassador or public Minister, and their domestic servants registered as such according to law, or being actually attendant upon them; every Alien who shall have been continually residing within this realm for seven years next before the passing of this Act, and obtained from the Alien-Office a certificate thereof, and every Alien under the age of fourteen years: and it is provided that if any question shall arise whether any person alleged to be an Alien, and to be subject to the provisions of the Act, is an Alien or not, or is or is not subject to those provisions, the proof shall lie on the Alien. And every certificate is to be issued without fee or reward.

Of all which provisions notice is hereby given to the end that no person may plead ignorance thereof.

Alien-Office, Westminster, June 5, 1826.

Admiralty-Office, June 3, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery; for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Saturday the 1st of July next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraigns of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-House, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

Christ's-Hospital, June 5, 1826.

WHEREAS John West, late of London, scrivener, and Frances his wife, both deceased, did, in their several lifetimes, settle on the Governors of the said Hospital, divers estates in and about the City of London and elsewhere; and the said Frances West did also by her will give a sum of money to the said Governors, to be laid out in the purchase of lands, &c.; the profits of the whole of the said estates to be applied to the payment of annuities or pensions of £5 each to poor men and poor women, of the age of fifty years and upwards, during their natural lives, and directed that their relations by consanguinity should have the preference; the said Governors do, therefore, hereby give notice, that if any person or persons, qualified as aforesaid, shall stand in need or require the benefit of the said Charity, such persons may, within forty days from the date hereof, apply to the said Governors at the Counting-House in the said Hospital, and make out their relationship to the donors, or either of them, otherwise they will be excluded the said Charity.

A Committee will sit in the Counting-House of the said Hospital, on Friday the 28th day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to elect pensioners in the room of such as are deceased.

Thomas Wilby, Clerk.

CONTRACT FOR STOURBRIDGE FIRE BRICKS AND CLAY.

Navy-Office, June 2, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 22d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with Stourbridge Fire Bricks and Stourbridge Clay.

Samples of the articles, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

WHEREAS the Reverend David Foulkes, formerly of Gweruynron, in the County of Flint, deceased, died on or about the 17th day of September 1789, seized of certain estates and premises in the Counties of Denbigh and Flint, which, upon his decease intestate, descended to his sisters and coheirresses at law; Anne, the wife of Bromfield Foulkes, also formerly of Gweruynron aforesaid, and Rachael Foulkes, of the same place, spinster, and which estates and premises were by the said Bromfield Foulkes and Anne his wife, and Rachael Foulkes, limited to the use of the said Bromfield Foulkes for life, and after his decease to the use of such person or persons as the said Anne Foulkes, his wife, should direct or appoint; and she by her will devised and appointed the same to her only son, Thomas Foulkes, for life, with remainder to all or any one or more of his child or children, to whom he should appoint the same; and the said Thomas Foulkes, by his will devised the same, in default of issue male, to his eldest daughter, Mary Ann Foulkes. And whereas, under and by virtue of certain orders of the High Court of Chancery, made in the causes of Owens and others v. Foulkes and others, and Owens v. Nicholls and others, the said estates and premises have been sold, and the purchase monies have been paid into the Bank of England in the name of the Accountant-General of the said Court of Chancery to the credit of the above-mentioned causes. And whereas, by an order made in the above-mentioned causes on the 10th day of November 1825, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether the said Mary Ann Foulkes, who is one of the defendants in the said cause of Owens against Nicholls and others, was entitled to the sum of £1527 5s. 6d. Bank three pounds per cent. annuities, and £217 16s. 2d. cash, standing in the name of the said Accountant-General, in trust in these causes, the account of the infant defendant, Elizabeth Foulkes, and the sum of £6666 13s. 4d. Bank three pounds per cent. annuities, and £200 cash, standing in the name of the said Accountant-General, in trust in these causes, Mary Foulkes, the annuity account, and the sum of £8795 3s. 11d. Bank three pounds per cent. annuities, and £385 2s. 11d. cash, standing in the name of the said Accountant-General, in trust in these causes, being the residue of the purchase monies of the said estates, and whether there were any and what charges or incumbrances affecting the same. Notice is therefore hereby given, that any person or persons having any claim, charge, or incumbrance, in respect of or affecting the said estates and premises, or the purchase monies arising therefrom are to come in before the said Master at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their claim, charge or incumbrance, or, in default thereof, he, she, or they, will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hitchcock v.
