India-Board, June 12, 1826.

A DISPATCH, dated the 26th January 1826, has been received at the East India-House from the Government of Bengal, inclosing a copy of a dispatch from Commodore Sir James Brisbane, of that Government, of which the following is an extract:

Patanagoh, January 2, 1826.

I CANNOT deny myself the gratification of congratulating your Lordship in Council on the happy termination of the war in Ava, by a Treaty of Peace, the terms of which will, I hope, be found not less honourable than advantageous. Deeply penetrated with the distinguished attention which has been shewn me by the Commissioners, in inviting me to become a party in the late negotiations, it is no less flattering to my own feelings than creditable to the naval branch of the expedition, and well calculated to harmonize the two professions. My employment enables me to bring under the consideration of the Supreme Government, the conduct of the Officers and other individuals of the Honourable Company's Bombay marine, and of other establishments connected with the flotilla, as more particularly described in the inclosure. More promptitude, zeal, and gallantry could not have been displayed by the members of any service, than they have invariably exhibited throughout a long and arduous contest. In short, they vied with the navy in the performance of the most laborious duties. The native crews of the gun-boats have shewn the greatest cheerfulness under fatigue and privations, and a firmness under fire, at once highly creditable to themselves and to those through whose provision and regularity they have been brought into that efficient state.

Names of the Officers belonging to the Honourable Company's Service, &c. who were attached to the Flotilla on the Irrawaddy, under the Command of Commodore Sir James Brisbane, Bart. and C. B.

Officers commanding Divisions of Gun-Boats.

Lieutenant Nagle, H. M. 47th Regiment.
Lieutenants Rowband and Laughton, Honourable Company's Bombay Marine.
Messrs. Lindquist, Huttin, Ravenscroft, and Crawford, Bengal Pilot Service.

Officers commanding Gun-Boats.

Messrs. Robson, Power, Leggatt, and Cooper, Bengal Pilot Service.

The Honourable Company's steam-vessel Diana, commanded by Mr. Geo. Winsor (Admiralty Mate of the Alligator), was of the most essential service.

In addition to the above force, thirteen men of war's boats, under the direction of Captain Chads, of the Royal Navy, composed the light division of the flotilla, which, with fifty-six gun-vessels and row-boats, were under the immediate controul of the Commodore.

JAS. BRISBANE, Commodore.

Foreign-Office, June 9, 1826.

The King has been pleased to approve of Mr. John William Gibsons, as Consul at Liverpool for His Majesty the King of Prussia.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Reverend Frederick-Henry Barnwell, of Mileham, in the county of Norfolk, and of Bury St. Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk, Clerk, Master of Arts, Fellow of the Royal Society and of the Society of Antiquaries of London, eldest son and heir of the late Reverend Frederick Barnwell, Clerk, Bachelor of Arts, successively Rector of Brockley, Lawshall, and Stanningfield, in the said county of Suffolk, deceased, and grandson of Charles Barnwell, of Mileham aforesaid, Esq. by Mary his wife, only surviving child of the Reverend John Novell, Clerk, Master of Arts, Rector of Hillington, in the said county of Norfolk, also deceased (which Mary Barnwell, formerly Mary Novell, was cousin german once removed and one of the next of kin of Isabella Turnor, of Bury St. Edmunds aforesaid, spinster, deceased, who was the only surviving sister and heir of Henry Turnor, of the same place, Esq.), His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he, the said Frederick-Henry Barnwell, may, from feelings of grateful respect towards the family of Turnor, and to manifest his affectionate regard for the memory of the said Isabella Turnor, take and use the surname of Turnor; in addition to and before that of Barnwell, and that he may bear the arms of Turnor, quarterly in the second quarter, with his own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 12, 1826.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Walter Lacon Atkinson, of Linley, in the county of Salop, Esq. His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in testimony of his grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of his maternal uncle, Thomas Lacon, late of Linley aforesaid, Esq. deceased, assume and take the surname of Lacon, instead of that of Atkinson. and also bear and use the armorial ensigns of Lacon, with due and proper differences, according to the laws of arms; and likewise to command, that such His Majesty's royal concession and declaration may be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

TO ALIENS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, every Alien who shall, on the first day of July next, be in this realm, is required on the same day, or within fourteen days thereafter, to make a declaration in writing of his or her place of abode, names, rank, occupation, and description; (and if a domestic servant, then also the place of abode, names, rank, and description of his or her master or mistress,) and of the country and place from whence he or she came, or of which he or she is a native, and of the time when he or she last came from foreign parts into this realm; and to transmit such declaration by the post, if in Great Britain, to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department at the Alien-Office in Westminster, and if in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and such declaration must be signed by the party making it, if able to write, or otherwise be attested by a magistrate of the place, or by the officiating minister of the parish, or by one or more of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish or township where such Alien shall be: but one such declaration will be sufficient for a parent or parents and any number of children, if made by the father, or in case of his death or incapacity, by the mother.

And by the said Act it is further required, that every Alien in this realm, on the 1st day of January and on the 1st day of July in every year, shall, within one week after those respective days, make a declaration in writing of his or her place of residence, and therein state at what place he or she intends in future to reside, and shall within the same week transmit such declaration by the post, in the manner before prescribed; and power is given to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to require any Alien in Great Britain, and for the Chief Secretary for Ireland to require any Alien in Ireland to make a declaration of his or her actual place of residence, and of the place at which he or she intends to reside in future, at shorter intervals than six months.

And it is enacted, That if any Alien in any of the cases aforesaid shall neglect to make such declaration, or to transmit the same within the time limited, or shall wilfully make or transmit any false declaration, he or she shall, upon conviction thereof before two justices of the peace, for every such offence, either forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds, or be imprisoned for a time not exceeding six months, at the discretion of such justices.

Upon the receipt at this Office of a regular declaration in any of the cases aforesaid, a certificate, setting forth the names, rank, occupation, and description of the Alien, and his or her place of abode, will be immediately made out, and transmitted to him or her by post; and if any Alien shall, by his or her default, not be possessed of such certificate, or shall without any lawful excuse reside in any other place than that expressed in such certificate, every such Alien shall for every such offence forfeit twenty pounds; and if any Alien, being required by any justice of the peace to produce such certificate, shall refuse or neglect so to do, he or she shall be deemed not to be possessed of any certificate.

The Act further provides, That if any certificate issued to any Alien shall be lost, mislaid, or destroyed, and such Alien shall produce to one of His Majesty's justices of the peace proof thereof, and shall make it appear to the satisfaction of such justice that he or she hath duly conformed with the Act, such justice shall testify the same under his hand, and such Alien shall thereby be entitled to demand a fresh certificate.

Where any Alien, about to depart from this realm, shall be desirous of having possession of the passport delivered on his or her debarkation, and shall notify by letter to the Alien-Office in Westminster, or to the Chief Secretary's Office in Dublin, the port at which he or she intends to embark, such passport will be transmitted by the post to the Chief Officer of the Customs of the port so notified, to be delivered to such Alien, on his or her making a declaration in writing of his or her intention of departing, and delivering such declaration to the Chief Officer of the Customs at the port of departure; and a penalty of five pounds will be incurred by every Alien neglecting to make or deliver such declaration.

The only Aliens exempted from the provisions of this Act are the following, viz.: every foreign Ambassador or public Minister, and their domestic servants registered as such according to law, or being actually attendant upon them; every Alien who shall have been continually residing within this realm for seven years next before the passing of this Act, and obtained from the Alien-Office a certificate thereof, and every Alien under the age of fourteen years: and it is provided that if any question shall arise whether any person alleged to be an Alien, and to be subject to the provisions of the Act, is an Alien or not, or is or is not subject to those provisions, the proof shall lie on the Alien. And every certificate is to be issued without fee or reward.

Of all which provisions notice is hereby given to the end that no person may plead ignorance thereof.

VALUABLE ESTATES, COLLIERIES, AND MINES.

By Order of the Assignees of the estate of Mr. Thomas Claughton, a Bankrupt, and in consequence of the decision of the Lord Chancellor in the matter of this Bankruptcy upon certain proceedings, which delayed the former intended sale of the same property.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. T. E. Turner, at the House of Mr. John Holland, the Red Lion Inn, in Warrington, in the County of Lancaster, on Monday the 10th and Tuesday the 11th days of July 1826, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced, and in such lots as will be specified in the printed particulars, or as shall be agreed upon at the time of sale, the following very desirable estates, collieries, and mines:

LANCASHIRE.

In Parr.

One undivided third part of the Ashton's-Green Colliery and Estate, lately occupied and worked by Messieurs Blackburne, Claughton, and Leigh.

The estate consists of a farm-house and extensive outbuildings, 15 cottages, and about 150 acres of land, statute measure, under a great part of which there is coal of superior quality. The mines already opened, and which are drained by the present works, will last for a great number of years. The colliery has an excellent connexion, is in full work, and being one of the first on the line of the canal nearest to the market, commands an immediate and rapid sale. A new winning and lifting engine has lately been erected at a great expence; besides which, there are three winding engines, four whimsies, and the necessary underground works, an additional lifting engine, and a rail-road to the canal.

The entirety of an estate, called the Broad-Oak Estate, comprizing a farm-house and outbuildings, 5 cottages, and about 60 acres of land, late in the possession of James Bate, deceased, and now of Henry Dixon, together with a chief rent of £3 9s. 9½d., payable by the proprietors of the Sankey Canal.

The mines under this estate have been proved, and are found to be of superior quality, and they are for the most part laid dry. The estate is contiguous to the Sankey Canal, and the coal would possess the same advantage, in point of precedence for sale, as at the Ashton-Green Colliery.

An estate, called Jenkinson's, comprizing a farm-house and nearly 14 acres of land, late in the possession of George Dickinson, and now of his executors.

In Golborne.

An estate and colliery, called Edge Green Estate, comprizing a farm house and outbuildings, several cottages, and about 50-acres of land, in the occupation of Thomas Wright and others.

Together with the leasehold interest in mines under the adjoining lands, of considerable extent and great value.

There are valuable mines of coal under the above estate. The colliery is in full-work, and has an excellent land sale, the coals being highly esteemed; all the requisite engines and machinery are in good repair.

In Bolton.

One-sixth of the manor of Great Bolton, and of the manorial rights appertaining thereto.

In Sutton.

A croft, in the occupation of John Seddon.

In Warrington.

Three Fields, in Battersby-Lane, containing above 5 acres of land, customary measure, in the occupation of Widow Mather.

Also a field, in the occupation of Thomas Wright.

In Poulton with Fearnhead.

The leasehold interest in a messuage, farm, and lands, containing 37 acres, statute measure, or thereabouts, in the occupation of James Darbishire.

CHESHIRE.

In Latchford.

This land is well situated for building upon, being on the banks of the river Mersey, and adjoining the London-Road.

In Runcorn.

A messuage or dwelling-house nearly opposite to the White Hart Inn, in the occupation of Mr. Case.

The respective tenants will shew the property. Printed particulars may be had, gratis, after the 17th day of June instant, at the principal Inns in Liverpool, Warrington, Manchester, and Wigan; and at the Offices of Messrs.
