India-Board, June 12, 1826.

A DISPATCH, dated the 26th January 1826, has been received at the East India-House from the Government of Bengal, inclosing a copy of a dispatch from Commodore Sir James Brisbane, of that Government, of which the following is an extract:

Patanagoh, January 2, 1826.

I CANNOT deny myself the gratification of congratulating your Lordship in Council on the happy termination of the war in Ava, by a Treaty of Peace, the terms of which will, I hope, be found not less honourable than advantageous. Deeply penetrated with the distinguished attention which has been shewn me by the Commissioners, in inviting me to become a party in the late negotiations, it is no less flattering to my own feelings than creditable to the naval branch of the expedition, and well calculated to harmonize the two professions. My employment enables me to bring under the consideration of the Supreme Government, the conduct of the Officers and other individuals of the Honourable Company's Bombay marine, and of other establishments connected with the flotilla, as more particularly described in the inclosure. More promptitude, zeal, and gallantry could not have been displayed by the members of any service, than they have invariably exhibited throughout a long and arduous contest. In short, they vied with the navy in the performance of the most laborious duties. The native crews of the gun-boats have shewn the greatest cheerfulness under fatigue and privations, and a firmness under fire, at once highly creditable to themselves and to those through whose provision and regularity they have been brought into that efficient state.

Names of the Officers belonging to the Honourable Company's Service, &c. who were attached to the Flotilla on the Irrawaddy, under the Command of Commodore Sir James Brisbane, Bart. and C. B.
