

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Sunday May 21. to Thursday May 24 1683.

Vienna, May 16.

THe Imperial Court is now at Zakemburg, from whence it will return hither in eight or ten days, and remove to Prague or Lintz, the beginning of the next Month, it not being thought fit for the Empress to lye-in here in the present Conjunction of Affairs. The Imperial Army was Encamped on Friday last near Raab, and our Letters say they would Decamp again in a day or two, and march towards the Turkish Territories. Two days agoe passed by this place three great Boats with Soldiers for Hungary, who are to joyn the Army, whicher are likewise sent eight Half-Cannon, and four great Mortar-Pieces. The Emperor has ordered the 5000 Hungarians that were at the General Rendezvous, to march to the Ills of Schutz, and to remain there till farther Order. From Hungary we have advice, That the Turks are drawing together in the Neighbourhood of Offen, and that they have already 40000 Men there; That Count Tzekeley continues to besiege the Castle of Panowitz, notwithstanding the King of Poland had sent to let him know, That if he went on in that Siege, he would send a Body of Men to relieve the place. Count Maximilian of Szaremburg (who is at present Governor of Philipsburg) is appointed by the Emperor to have the chief command of the Imperial Troops that are in the Empire; and Count Leslie who is now there, is ordered to go for Hungary. We are told, That the Dukes of Luxemburg are to furnish a certain number of Men for the Emperor's Service, and that in consideration thereof his Imperial Majesty is to pay them a Sum of Money. The Emperor has resolved to send a solemn Embassy to the Czars of Moscovy, to invite them to enter into the Alliance now lately concluded between his Imperial Majesty and the King of Poland against the Turks.

Vienna, May 16. We have not as yet any certain advice, where the Grand Vizier is; there were Letters the last Week which gave an account of his arrival at Greicks-Weissenburg, and of his having appointed the general Rendezvous near Belgrade on the 24th of this Month, but the advices we have received from Hungary of a fresher Date do not make any mention thereof, but tell us, That there are 40000 Turks in the Neighbourhood of Offen, under the command of the Bassa of that place. The Imperial Army, according to our last advices, was Encamped near Raab; several Troops are still Marching to joyn it, and we are told, That it consists at present of 40000 Men, who are all very well Cloathed, and in good order.

Cologne, May 21. There are Letters from Liege which tell us, That the Magistrates and the Deputies of the 32 Trades or Companies have resolved to agree to the Tax of the 60th Penny, and that of four Sols upon every Tun of Beer, which (if the said Companies do approve of what their Deputies have done) will put an end to the differences that have so long depended between his Electoral Highness and that City, and been the occasion of so much disorder at Liege.

Antwerp, May 27. On Friday last the Prince of Orange arrived at Breda, from whence he parted again on Sunday Morning early: The same day the Marquis de Grana arrived here from Brussels; immediately after, he went, accompanied with a great many Persons of Quality, to meet his Highness: They came both hither about eight in the Evening. The next Morning they had a long Conference together, and this day his Highness returned for Holland, and his Excellency to Brussels. We are at present very quiet in these Parts, and hear not of the motion of any Troops near us.

Hague, May 28. The 26th Instant the Prince of Orange, who has been at Breda and Antwerp, (at which last place he had an Enterview with the Governor of the Spanish Netherlands) returned to Honfluedyke. The States of Holland are separated till the middle of June. Lieutenant Admiral Tromp, who is to command the Squadron of Ships which this State will have abroad this Summer, has frequent Conferences with the Deputies for Maritime Affairs, and those of the Admiralty; The States-General have sent Deputies to the States of Friesland and Groningen, to press them to send in their consents to this Equipage.

Paris, May 29. Their Most Christian Majesties, accompanied with the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, parted from Verailles the 26th Instant, and lay that Night at Corbeil, and the next day at Monsereau. The Dauphiness remains at Verailles, by reason of her being with Child, and the Dauphin will stay there till the fourth of the next Month, and will meet the King at Dijon. We do expect here in few days the Bishop of Fano, the Pope's Nuncio, who arrived the 25th Instant at Marseilles, in one of the Pope's Gallies, from Civita Vecchia. The Sieur de St. Romain is preparing for his Embassy to Portugal.

Plimouth, May 20. Yesterday in the Afternoon came into this Port His Majesties Ship the Dover, having about 40 Leagues to the Westward of the Islands, sprung her Main-Mast; she will in few days have set a new one, and proceed off her Voyage.

Oxford, May 22. On Friday about severa Clock in the Evening their Royal Highnesses and the Lady Ann, being conducted by a Troop of 200 Horse, of the principal Gentry of the County, led by the Right Honourable James Earl of Abington, came to this place, where they were received at the East Gate by the Mayor and Aldermen and Citizens, who made a Present of Gloves, according to the custom of this City. The Vice-Chancellor and Doctors, with the rest of the University, paid their Attendance at St. Maries, where the Orator Saluted his Royal Highness in a Latin Speech, and the Dutchess and the Lady Ann in English. From thence they passed through a Lang made them by Scholars, to their Lodgings at Christ Church; where they were received by the Lord Bishop of the Diocess the Dean, the Canons and Students attending, and at their Entrance into the Deanery were welcom'd by the Earl of Clancartie in a Gratulatory Poem. After his Royal Highness had rested a while the Gentlemen of the County were brought to him by the Earl of Abington, who kissed his Hand. On Saturday Morning the Vice-Chancellor and Doctors attended, to pay their Respects, and had the Honour of kissing their Royal Highnesses Hands. The rest of the Morning was spent in visiting the publick Buildings of Christ Church, and the adjoining Colleges of Corpus Christi, Merton, and Oriel, in all which places the Members of each Society shew'd their Respects in Gratulatory Orations and a full Attendance. In the Afternoon their Royal Highnesses were pleased to visit All Souls Colledge, University, the Physick Garden, Magdalens, Queens, New Colledge, Wadham, and St. Johns, and were every where received with solemn Gratulations, and such respectful Attendances as might testify the Welcome due to such Royal Guests. In the Evening they went to Chynbury, where they were splendidly entertained by the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, and returning on Monday about Noon, they were pleased, at four of the Clock, to visit the publick Buildings of the University, and at their Entrance into the Schools, were attended by the Vice-Chancellor, young Noble-men, and Doctors, into the Library, where having viewed that great Treasure of Books, they were in like manner conducted into the Theater, where the whole Body of the University waited to receive them. Their Royal Highnesses and the Lady Ann being Seated, the Vice-Chancellor in a short Compliment express'd the dutiful Respects of the University, and then gave command to the Orator in more solemn Words to perform that Office, which being done, first in a Latin, then in an English Oration, the Lord William Savile, Son to the Lord Privy-Seal, Bertie, Son to the Earl of Lindley, George Chalmondeley, Brother to the Lord Chandosley, and Sir Thomas Trolop Baronet, entertained them with English Poems, intermixt with Musick both Vocal and Instrumental; which being finish'd, their Royal Highnesses and the Lady Ann were pleased to visit the new Museum, where they were entertained with the sight of the Rarities lately given by Mr. Elias Ashmole, and with a Banquet. From thence they passed to the Chymical Laboratory, and were pleased to see several Experiments. After this they visited Exeter Colledge, Fesiva, Lincoln, and Brazen-Nose, and about eight of the Clock returned to their Lodgings. This Morning a Convocation was held, wherein several of the Nobility, and Persons of Honour, were admitted to Degrees: After which, the Vice-Chancellor, with the Doctors, attended their Royal Highnesses and the Lady Ann, to take their Leave, and made a Present of Books to them. They went hence about nine of the Clock in the Morning, being to Dine with the Earl of Abington at Risot, and intended to be at night at Windsor. Every part of the performance of the University was to the great Satisfaction of their Royal Highnesses and all that were present.

London, May 22. This day the Common-Council of this City met at the Guildhall, and resolved, That whereas Sir William Prichard Knight, Lord Mayor of this City, was in a rude manner lately Arrested in the Suit or in the Name of Mr. Papillon and Mr. Dubois, and whereas it hath been alledged by the said Mr. Papillon and Mr. Dubois, That the Action upon which the said Arrest was, was Prosecuted at the Instance of the Citizens of London. The Members of this Court, to deliver themselves and the said Citizens from this untrue Imputation, do declare, That they were not Præsumptuous or consenting to the said Action and Arrest, and do disown and disapprove the same.

The Officers of the Penny-Post, Established by Authority, do give Notice, That whereas the former Practice of keeping Holy-days at Whitson-tide, &c. has been found to be prejudicial to Correspondence, (for the advantage of the Publick) they are willing to give their Attendance on those days as at other times: But by reason many of the Letter-Recipients are Tradesmen, whose Shops are shut up, such Persons who write Letters (in the Holy-days) are desired to leave them (where Shops are not open) at such Coffee-Houses known to be appointed by the Office, that they may be Collected and delivered in due time.

Advertisements.

The worthy Communicant, or a Discourse of the Nature, Effects, and Blessings consequent to the Worthy Receiving of the Lords-Supper, and of all the Duties requizid in order to a worthy Preparation. Together with the Cases of Conscience occurring in the Duty of him that Ministers, and of him that Communicates, as also Devotions fitted to every part of the Ministration. To which is added a Sermon, never Printed with the Folio Volume of Sermons. By Jeremy Taylor, D. D. and late Lord Bishop of Down and Connor. Sold by Awnsham Churchill at the Black Swan in Ave-Mary Lane near Armin-Corner.

O Ne James Key, a very tall Man, about 73 years old, was sent from Worcester on the first of May instant towards Cheltenham in Derbyshire, upon a chestnut Nag, about 14 hands, five years old, hath all his paces, and goes a little lame on the far leg behind. Whoever gives notice of the said Man or Horse to Mr. Bridgewater in Wild-Street, London, or to Mr. Richard Hooker at his Coffee-house in the High-Street in Worcester, shall have three Guineas Reward.

S Tolen or Strayed out of the Grounds of Mr. Rob. Docksey, of Swellton near Ardburn, in the County of Derby on the 15th Instant, a grey Nag, with a Hawk Nose, 14 hands high, and about three Years old, as also a Deer-coloured dun Mare, a large Star in her Forehead, her hind Feet white as high as her Ferlocks, a wide Ear, a bob Tail, about 14 hands and a half high, and three years old. Whoever gives Notice of them to the said Mr. Docksey, or to Mr. John Coxon, Sugar-Baker in Diffaff-Lane, London, shall have five Pounds Reward, or 50 s. for each.

S Tolen or Strayed on Friday the 11th Instant, out of some Grounds near Coventry, a bright bay Nag, about 14 hands, having a Snip on his Nose, his off Foot behind being white, with a black Man, a bob Tail, and about four Years old. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. Nicholas Blithe, Chandler at Coventry, or to Mr. Eccleston, Bookseller at the Peacock in Little-Britain, shall have a very good Reward.

L Ost from Mrs. Pagetts, next door to the Kings-head in Great Russell-Street in Bloomsbury, on the 23 Instant, a little white Spaniel Bitch, with a liver-coloured Spot upon each eye, and the like upon each side of her Cheeks, a brown Spot upon her Back, another upon her right Buttock, and one upon her left side, a white telly and Feet, and a white Rash down her Face. Whoever gives Notice of her to Mrs. Pagett aforesaid, shall have a Guinea Reward.