East India-House, July 19, 1826.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 26th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of nine Proprietors, agreeably to the following letter, received on the 10th instant, viz.

"To Joseph Dart, Esq. Secretary to the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

"SIR,

"We, the undersigned Proprietors of India Stock, request that you will lay before the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company, this requisition to call a general meeting of the Honourable the Court of Proprietors, that the following motions may be submitted to their immediate consideration:

"1st. That adverting to the Act of Parliament recently passed, which contains the following clauses, 'That at any time within three years from the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Directors of the said United Company to nominate and appoint, and to send to the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort St. George, or Bombay, in the capacity of a Writer, any person who shall produce such testimonials of his character and conduct, and pass such an examination as by rules and regulations to be framed and established shall be required; that the said Court of Directors shall, and they are hereby required, with all convenient speed, to frame and establish proper rules and regulations respecting the due and necessary qualifications of Writers; and that it shall and may be lawful to alter and vary such rules and regulations from time to time as circumstances may appear to require;' this Court, therefore, requests the Court of Directors now to submit their intended rules and regulations, that the same may be deliberately discussed by the General Court of Proprietors, also in order to obviate every attempt to establish any unfair monopoly in Oriental education while the College suspension Act is in force, like the one lately made by a regulation of the Court of Directors, which, though published in their Court Calendar or Red Book, has since, on mature reflection, been rescinded.

"2d. That considering the manifold advantages of reconciling the feelings and interests of the various public departments and official communities at the different Presidencies in British India with each other, in every branch of the service, this Court recommends, that the Executive Governments there be instructed to abolish immediately the odious practice of paying the civil servants in sicca rupees, and the army in a less valuable currency, called sonat rupees, to prevent all discontent from the continuance of this unreasonable distinction among the King's or Company's civil, military, and naval functionaries in future, by the whole receiving their respective allowances in the same species or equitable rates of the local coins where such payments are made."

"We have the honour to be, Sir,

your most obedient servants,

W. Mason. John Borthwick Gilchrist.

Wm. Thornton. James Mouat.

R. Slade. Leicester Stanhope.

John Wilks. J. Addinell.

James Paterson.

London, June 30, 1826."

Joseph Dart, Secretary.
