SURREY.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause White v. White, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the month of August next, in several lots;

A valuable estate, freehold, of the manor of Tangle, consisting of a messuage or dwelling house, garden-ground, and outbuildings, containing in the whole about two acres, situate in the Village of Bramley, in the County of Surrey, three miles from the Market Town of Guildford, and late in the tenure or occupation of Charles Carter, deceased or his undertenants.

Also a valuable estate, freehold, of the Manor of Poyle, consisting of a well built messuage or dwelling-house, partly unfinished, garden ground, coach-house, and other outbuildings, and a piece of ground adjoining, occupying a frontage of 211 feet, by a depth on the south side of 180, and 140 feet on the north, situate in the Parish of Stoke, near Guildford, in the County of Surrey, and late in the tenure or occupation of Charles Carter, deceased, or his undertenants.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London; of Mr. Porter, Solicitor, Guildford; of Messrs. Palmer, France, and Palmer, Solicitors, 24, Bedford-Row, London; and of Messrs. Denly and Morphet, Solicitors, Breame's-Buildings, Chancery-Lane.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Kirkland v. Reid, it was referred to the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, one of the Masters of the said Court, to consider how much money ought to be set apart to answer what remains due in respect of the two legacies of £500 and £500, given to Ann M'Iver, the daughter of Donald M'Iver, of North Carolina, and the testator's nephew Alexander M'Iver, son of his brother Alexander, in Georgia, and the interest thereof respectively; and it was ordered, that the said Master should cause an advertisement to be published in the London Gazette, and such other public papers in England, Scotland, and America as he should think fit, for the said Ann M'Iver and Alexander M'Iver, or in case of their deaths, for their legal personal representatives to come in before him, and make out their claims to the sums remaining due in respect of the said legacies.—The said Ann M'Iver and Alexander M'Iver, or, in case of their deaths, their legal personal representatives, are forthwith to come in and make out and prove their claims or representation before the said Master Eden, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

N. B.—The testator above mentioned was John M'Iver, formerly of Stornaway, in Scotland, who died at New York, in the United States of America, some time in the year 1820.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in a Cause wherein John Lambert is plaintiff, and John Spice Hulbert is defendant, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether Thomas Fraser, the son of Simon Fraser, the testator in the pleadings named, is living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he left any and what issue, and who now is or are the personal representative or representatives of the said Thomas Fraser.—The said Simon Fraser was formerly Store-keeper in the Island of Bermuda, and afterwards of No. 83, Norton-Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, in England, and who died at Edinburgh, in Scotland, some time in or about the year 1819.—The said Thomas Fraser is supposed to have married Mary Manuet, in the Parish of Saint John, at Hackney, in England aforesaid, on or about the 14th day of October 1805, and afterwards to have gone to sea on board a merchant ship, some time in the year 1808; the said Thomas Fraser, if living, is forthwith to come in before the said James William Farrer, Esq. at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in England, and claim the legacy bequeathed to him by the will of the said testator, his father; and if the said Thomas Fraser is dead, his issue (if any), or the personal representative or representatives of the said Thomas Fraser is or are forthwith to come in before the said Master, and prove their kindred and representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause intitled Partridge versus Flecknoe, the Creditors (if any) of John Partridge, late of Lob Farm, in the Parish of Haseley, in the County of Oxford, Farmer, deceased are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, Mitre-Court-Buildings, in the Inner Temple, London, or in default thereof the said Creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein John Lambert is plaintiff, and John Spice Hulbert is defendant, the Creditors of Simon Fraser (the testator in the pleadings named), formerly Store-keeper in the Island of Bermuda, afterwards of No. 83, Norton Street, in the Parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex (and who died at Edinburgh, in Scotland, some time in or about the year 1819), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Butler v. Busbuel, the Creditors of John Butler, formerly of Colthroughton, in the Parish of Thatcham, and late of Snelmore, in the Parish of Chieveley, in the County of Berks, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of August 1824), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Lancefield, of Littleborne, in the County of
