FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1826.

Whitehall, August 1, 1826.

THE King has been pleased to grant to Sir Thomas Le Breton, Knt. the office of Bailiff of the island of Jersey, in the room of Lord Carteret, deceased.

Whitehall, August 1, 1826

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about one o'clock in the morning of Sunday last the 30th of July, a body of smugglers feloniously assembled, armed with fire arms, on the beach near the bathing machines at Dover, for the purpose of running a cargo of uncustomed foreign spirits, and in the execution of their unlawful purpose being discovered by Richard Morgan, a first rate quartermaster of His Majesty's ship Ramillies, they feloniously discharged a volley of fire arms upon him, by which the said Richard Morgan was mortally wounded and died shortly afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better discovery of the perpetrators of this murder, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders so assembled (except the persons who actually discharged their fire arms at the said Richard Morgan), who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any persons (except as aforesaid) who shall make known the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted, which reward shall, on the conviction of the said offenders, be paid to and divided amongst the persons making such discovery by Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, of Spring-garden-terrace, London.

J. W. Croker.

Whitehall, August 3, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in furtherance of the illegal combination which has for some time past existed in the River Tyne, some evil disposed person or persons did, early in the morning of the 13th day of July last, maliciously cut the cable of the ship Vestat, of North Shields, Taylor, Master, lying in the Pool there, and did also cut and damage several of the lanyards and running ropes of the same ship, for the purpose of preventing her from putting to sea;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the misdemeanour above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually cut the said cable and ropes), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Messrs. Cockerill and Tinley, Solicitors and Secretaries to the Ship Owners' Society, at North Shields; or Messrs. Robinson and Burrows, 23, Austin-friars, in the city of London.

On the 10th, 11th, 14th, 15th, and 16th of August, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th June last, will commence paying on the 7th of August next; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.
