ERRATA in the Gazette of 4th instant, page 1929, line 1, for 24th ultimo, read 24th instant; and line 34, after 729,820 francs rente, insert, of which 33,636 per centum, amounting to 94,000 francs rente, has been paid.

Whitehall, August 1, 1826.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about one o'clock in the morning of Sunday last the 30th of July, a body of smugglers feloniously assembled, armed with fire arms, on the beach near the bathing machines at Dover, for the purpose of running a cargo of uncustomed foreign spirits, and in the execution of their unlawful purpose being discovered by Richard Morgan, a first rate quartermaster of His Majesty's ship Ramillies, they feloniously discharged a volley of fire arms upon him, by which the said Richard Morgan was mortally wounded and died shortly afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better discovery of the perpetrators of this murder, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders so assembled (except the persons who actually discharged their fire arms at the said Richard Morgan), who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any persons (except as aforesaid) who shall make known the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted; which reward shall, on the conviction of the said offenders, be paid to and divided amongst the persons making such discovery by Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, of Spring-garden-terrace, London. J. W. Croker.

Whitehall, August 3, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in furtherance of the illegal combination which has for some time past existed in the River Tyne, some evil disposed person or persons did, early in the morning of the 13th day of July last, maliciously cut the cable of the ship Vestal, of North Shields, Taylor, Master, lying in the Pool there, and did also cut and damage several of the lanyards and running ropes of the same ship, for the purpose of preventing her from putting to sea;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the misdemeanour above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually cut the said cable and ropes), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Messrs. Cockerill and Tinley, Solicitors and Secretaries to the Ship Owners' Society, at North Shields; or Messrs. Robinson and Burrows, 23, Austin-friars, in the city of London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for raising money, by way of annuities or otherwise, for the repair and improvement of the church of the parish of Saint George, commonly called Saint George in the East.

Rd. Townson, Solicitor for the Bill.

Ratcliff-highway, 7th August 1826.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

BY virtue of the provisions of the Acts of Parliament, of the 51st Geo. III. and the 6th Geo. IV. relating to the Liverpool Docks, the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks do hereby give notice, that they intend to offer for sale, by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 11th day of August next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, assignments or mortgages of the rates and duties granted by the said Acts, to the amount of £50,000, one half of which assignments or mortgages will be payable by the said Trustees in ten years from the date thereof, and the other half in fourteen years from the same period. These assignments or mortgages will be offered in sums of £100 each, and will bear interest at 5 per cent. per annum, payable half yearly in London or Liverpool, as may be most agreeable to purchasers. Dated this 11th day of July 1826.

William Foster, Secretary

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN, WHALE, AND SEAL OIL.

Navy-Office, August 2, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 17th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with Train, Whale, and Seal Oil.

A distribution of the oil, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Most eligible Investment for Capital, White Lion Inn, Bath.

TO be resold by auction, before the Commissioners acting under a Commission of Bankrupt against William Dove, by Mr. Pritchard, on Wednesday the 23d day of August instant, at the White Lion Inn, Bath, at Twelve o'Clock, subject to such conditions as will be then produced (the purchaser having failed to complete his contract);

The Bankrupt's interest in all that capital commodious well-known and long established family hotel, posting house, and coach inn, called the White Lion Inn, situated in the most central and eligible part of the City of Bath, with the public house, called the White Lion Tap, thereto adjoining, and the court yard, stables, saddler's shop, buildings and premises belonging and contiguous thereto, being the whole of the premises comprised in a lease granted to the Bankrupt for twenty-one years, about twenty years of which are unexpired, subject to the rent and covenants in such lease mentioned. The horse-, harness, carriages, stock, household goods, furniture, plate, linen, wines and effects are to be taken by the purchaser of the inn at a valuation.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneer, or to Mr. Edward Smith, Solicitor to the Commission, Badud's Buildings, Bath.

DISTILLERY.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, on Friday, the 25th of August instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the George Inn, in Dale-street, Liverpool, before the major part of the Commissioners named in and acting under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Richard Blundell, late of Liverpool, Distiller, a Bankrupt, in pursuance of an Order of the Lord High Chancellor, made on the petition of the mortgagees, bearing date on or about the 9th day of August, 1825, subject to the conditions of sale to be then and there produced;

All that capital and well fitted up corn distillery, with the dwelling-house, warehouse, yards, and premises held therewith, the whole freehold of inheritance, situate in and about the centre of the Town of Liverpool, lately occupied by the said Richard Blundell, containing in front to Fleet-Street 135 feet 6 inches, to Seel-Street 120 feet, in depth on the South side 205 feet, and on the North side 213 feet 10 inches, be those several dimensions a little more or less.

The buildings consist of a substantial dwelling-house, warehouse, mash-house, three back houses, with spacious coolers, above, and extending beyond them, engine house, yards, coopers, and other offices. There are on the premises, with other usual and necessary implements, four brewing coppers, one wash still with large copper worm, one spirit still with copper worm, 19 fermenting backs, one lob tun and under-back, one mash-tun and underback, and one steam-engine, the whole estimated to be adequate to the production, when in full work, of from about 80 to 100 puncheons of spirit per week; and the premises are capable of considerable enlargement; the greater part of the utensils are in good condition, and there is seasoned timber on the premises intended for a new mash-tun, and the repairs that may be necessary to the coolers, which timber may be taken at a valuation; and it is supposed that the whole premises may be put into good working condition within a month.

There is an abundant supply of fine spring water on the premises. The purchaser will be required to take such of the fixtures and utensils as under the existing laws are now useful in the distillery business (to be determined by a competent person or persons to be named on the day of sale by the sellers and purchasers, or in default of their agreeing in the choice, by the said Commissioners,) at a valuation to be produced at the time of sale. An abstract of the title will be produced at the sale.

Further particulars may be had from Messrs. Radcliffe and Duncan, Exchange Street West, Liverpool, the Solicitors to the said Assignees; and the premises, fixtures, and utensils may be viewed at any time previous to the sale, on application to them.

TIPTON and WESTBROMWICH.

TO be sold by auction, by J. E. and C. Robins, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Charles Bache, of Westbromwich, in the County of Stafford, Iron Bedstead-maker, Dealer and Chapman, at the Stork Tavern, in the Square, in Birmingham, on Monday, the 14th of August instant, between the hours of Two and Four in the Afternoon, subject to conditions to be then produced;

Lot 1. The unexpired term in all that desirable forge, situated at Tipton, called the Old Mill Forge, with the water-wheels, machinery, and apparatus thereto belonging, held under a lease for 14 years from Lady-day, 1815, at a low rent, with all privileges of such lease at the expiration of the term.

Lot 2. All that freehold piece of land, containing about 1550 square yards, with spacious warehouse, shopping and other buildings erected on part, most advantageously situated on the Bank of the Birmingham Canal, adjacent to the turnpike road from Birmingham to Dudley, and very near to the Swan Inn at Westbromwich.

The situation of this lot for convenient water carriage, and its proximity to the collieries, renders it exceedingly desirable to many persons in trade, as the buildings may be easily converted into a small foundry, or other manufactory where space is required, or into a malthouse, and there is plenty of spare land for additional erections.

Lot 3. Two good freehold dwelling-houses, shops, out-buildings and gardens, lying between lot 2 and the turnpike road, now in the occupations of — Bates and — Anios.

For further particulars apply at the office of Mr. Mole, Solicitor, Moor-street, or to the Auctioneers, New-street, Birmingham.

DEVON.
