

said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Austin against Hill, the Creditors of John Davies, late of Winchmore-Hill, in the County of Middlesex, deceased (who died on or about the 12th day of November 1810), are, on or before the 1st day of September 1826, to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Edward Tomson, a lunatic, the Creditors of the said Edward Tomson, of the Town of Cambridge, Stone-Mason, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Russell against Swaine, the Creditors of Timothy Wood, late of Saville-Row, Walworth, Surrey, Gent. but formerly of the High-Street, Southwark, Hop-Factor (who died in or about the month of January 1823), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Lockwood against Lockwood, the Creditors of Robert Sterry Lockwood, late of Lowestoft, in the County of Suffolk, Attorney at Law, deceased (who died on or about the 5th day of January 1821), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hockley against Bantock, the Creditors of Hugh Bantock, late of Stratford, in the Parish of West Ham, in the County of Essex, Carpenter, deceased (who died in or about the month of October 1812), are, on or before the 1st day of November 1826, to come in and prove their debts before the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The Regent Livery Stables, Jermyn-Street, St. James's.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Robins, on the premises, on Thursday the 24th of August, at Twelve o'Clock precisely, under the Order of his Honour the Vice Chancellor, before the major part of the Commissioners named in a Bankruptcy against George Barnett;

Most capital and well arranged livery stables, erected within the last seven years at a very large expence, situate No. 119, South side of Jermyn-Street, St. James's. The premises have been substantially erected, and are advantageously planned, with 19 stalled stables, coach-houses, gallery, with sleeping and other rooms, covered ride, lofts, granary, &c. good dwelling-house and offices, and are well known as the Regent Livery Stables, lately in the occupation of the Bankrupt, and held for 29 years from 1820, at a reserved rent.

May be viewed and particulars had on the premises; also of Messrs. Fisher and Lake, Solicitors to the Assignees, Bury-Street, St. James's; of Messrs. Williams, Brooks, Powell, and Broderip, Lincoln's Inn; of Mr. Rice, Jermyn-Street; and of Messrs. Robins, Covent-Garden.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt against Thomas Jepson, of Heaton-

Norris, in the County of Lancaster, Common-Brewer, at the house of Mr. Richardson, the Red Lion Inn, in Heaton-Norris aforesaid, on Friday the 22d day of September next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, and in one or more lots, as may be agreed upon, and subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and their produced;

The fee-simple and inheritance of and in a messuage or dwelling-house, with the outbuildings and garden, and a newly erected building, used as a brewery, situate, lying, and being at Heaton-Norris aforesaid, and now or late in the occupation of the said Thomas Jepson.

And also of and in several closes, fields, pieces, or parcels of land, situate, lying, and being in Heaton-Norris aforesaid, commonly called or known by the several names of the House Meadow, the Barn Meadow, the Rough Field, the Ridings, the Long Field, the Marl Field, the Nearer Little Wood, the Turf-Field, and the Clover Field, and containing together, including the home scites, by admeasurement, 23A. 1R. 13P., statute measure, or thereabouts, be the same more or less.

The brewery is replete with utensils, which are to be taken by the purchaser, at a valuation.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Law and Coates, Manchester, Solicitors for the mortgagees; or Mr. John Hunt, of Stockport, Solicitor to the Commission; and for a view of the premises to Mr. Jepson, on the premises.

BOGNOR.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Prickett, at the Royal Hotel, Bognor, on Monday, August 28, at Two, in 27 lots, by the direction of the Assignee of Mr. George Isaac Call, a Bankrupt;

Several valuable freehold estates, most eligibly situate at that justly esteemed and highly respectable watering-place, Bognor, comprising numerous parcels of land, very desirable for building on, on parts of which have been erected capital handsome mansions, forming a part of the projected crescent, planned and constructed on a very superior and magnificent style of architecture, and built with the best materials; also three exceedingly well built dwelling-houses and appurtenances, opposite the New Inn; together with 22 plots of valuable freehold land.—This property is particularly worthy the attention of families of distinction, as well as of persons who may be desirous of converting the same into establishments of the first respectability; the probable lucrative advantages to be derived thereby is considerably enhanced by the request for residences, in consequence of several having been recently destroyed by fire.

May be viewed, and printed descriptive particulars, with engraved plans, may be had at the Royal Hotel, Bognor; and at the Libraries at Bognor, Worthing, Brighton, Eastbourne, and Hastings; at the Swan Inn, Chichester; the Star, Southampton; and at the principal Inns in the Towns and Districts in Sussex; likewise at Messrs. Dunn and Wordsworth's, Solicitors, Threeneedle-Street, London; of Mr. Gargave, Solicitor, Leicester-Place, Leicester-Fields; at the Auction-Mart; and of Mr. Prickett, Castle-Street, Holborn.

ROBERT STOCK'S ASSIGNMENT.

THIS is to give notice, that, by indenture, bearing date the 4th day of August 1826, Robert Stock, of Saint Helen's, in the County of Lancaster, Linen-Draper, hath conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever to Lee Watson, of the same place, Iron-Founder, and Richard Greenhalgh, of the same place, Liquor-Merchant, Trustees, upon trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Robert Stock; and that the said indenture was signed, sealed, and delivered by the said Robert Stock on the said 4th day of August, and by the said Lee Watson and Richard Greenhalgh on the 7th day of August aforesaid, and the due execution thereof by all the said parties is attested by John Barnes, of Saint Helen's aforesaid, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 16, sec. 4, by an indenture, bearing date the 31st day of July 1826, and made between Edwin Tipple, of Mitcham, in the County of Surrey, Surgeon and Apothecary, of the first part, William Hood Hemmans, of Mitcham aforesaid, Gentleman, and John Bowling, of Hammersmith, in the County of Middlesex, Surgeon and Apothecary, of the second part, and the several other persons, whose names and seals are thereunto respectively subscribed and