AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th of July 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever;" and that "it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions," it is enacted, "that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships; or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty by His Order in Council shall, in any case, deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country:" and whereas, the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament, have not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation to foreign ships, cannot lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: and whereas, His Majesty doth deem it expedient to grant to the ships of the said United States such of the said privileges as are hereinafter mentioned; His Majesty doth therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in him vested by the said Act of Parliament, declare and grant that it is and shall be lawful for the ships of the United States aforesaid to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the said United States, goods the produce of the United States aforesaid, and not enumerated in the table of prohibitions and restrictions in the said Act contained, and to export goods from such British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever, provided always, that such goods so imported shall be subject and liable to the payment of the duties imposed and made payable under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament; provided also, and His Majesty doth further, with the advice aforesaid, declare that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respects the British possessions in the West Indies, and on the Continent of South America, and so far as respects the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands, and so far as respects His Majesty's settlements in the island of Newfoundland, and the several islands belonging to and dependent on those settlements, shall absolutely cease and determine upon and from the first day of December, which will be in this present year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six;

provided also, and His Majesty doth further, with the advice aforesaid, declare, that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respects the British possessions on the Western Coast of Africa, shall absolutely cease and determine upon and from the said first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six : provided also, and His Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, doth further declare, that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respects the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and the islands, settlements, and territories belonging thereto, and dependent thereupon, and so far as respects the island of Mauritius, and the several islands and territories belonging thereto, or dependent thereupon, and so far as respects the island of Ceylon, and the several islands and territories belonging thereto, and dependent thereupon, shall absolutely cease and determine, upon and from the first day of March, which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven : provided also, and His Majesty doth further, with the advice aforesaid, declare that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respects His Majesty's settlements in the island of New Holland, and the several islands and territories belonging thereto, and dependent thereupon, and so far as respects the island of Van Diemens Land, and the several islands and territories belonging thereto, and dependent thereupon, shall absolutely cease and determine upon and from the first day of May, which will be in the said year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven : provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to infringe or interfere with the Convention of Commerce and Navigation, concluded between His late Majesty King George the Third and the United States of America, bearing date the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifteen ; or the further Convention of Commerce and Navigation, concluded between His said late Majesty and the United States of America, bearing date the twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighteen ; or to prevent ships of the said United States from importing into any of the British possessions in Europe, or from exporting from such British possessions in Europe, any goods which, under or by virtue of the said Conventions, or either of them, or of the several Acts of Parliament made for carrying such Conventions into effect, can or may be lawfully imported into or exported from such British possessions in Europe in the ships of the said United States. And whereas, by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act to authorise " His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to " regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods im- " ported or exported in foreign vessels, and to ex- " empt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," it is, among other things, enacted, " that it shall and " may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by and " with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His " Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, whenever " it shall be deemed expedient, to levy and charge " any additional duty or duties of Customs, or to " withhold the payment of any drawbacks, bounties, " or allowances upon any goods, wares, or mer- " chandise imported into or exported from the " United Kingdom, or imported into or exported " from any of His Majesty's dominions, in vessels " belonging to any foreign country in which higher " duties shall have been levied, or smaller draw- " backs, bounties, or allowances granted upon " goods, wares, or merchandise when imported " into or exported from such foreign country in " British vessels, than are levied or granted upon " similar goods, wares, and merchandise when im- " ported or exported in vessels of such country ;" and it is thereby provided, " that such additional " or countervailing duties so to be imposed, and " drawbacks, bounties, or allowances so to be " withheld as aforesaid, shall not be of greater " amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail " the difference of duty, drawback, bounty, or " allowance paid or granted on goods, wares, " or merchandise imported into or exported from " such foreign country in British vessels, more " or less than the duties, drawbacks, bounties, " or allowances there charged or granted upon " similar goods, wares, or merchandise imported " into or exported from such foreign country " in vessels of such country : " and whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in " advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order " in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on " certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act " of the last session of Parliament, for autho- " rising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, " to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods

“ imported or exported in any foreign vessels,” it is, among other things, enacted, “ that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient) to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been or shall be levied upon or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country: and it is thereby provided, that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country:” and whereas British vessels entering the ports of the United States aforesaid from the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America or the West Indies, with cargoes consisting of articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said possessions, are charged with a duty of one dollar per ton, for tonnage duties and light money, and a discriminating duty of ten per cent. is charged upon the cargoes of such vessels, to which vessels of the United States, and cargoes of the same description, entering the ports of the United States from the ports of His Majesty's said possessions, are not subject; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Acts of Parliament, passed in the fourth and fifth years of His Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that there shall be charged on all vessels of the United States, which shall enter any of the ports of His Majesty's possessions on the Continent of North America, with articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the said States, or which, until the said first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, shall enter with any such articles any of the ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or South America, or in the Bahama Islands, or in the Bermuda or Somer Islands, a duty of four shillings and three pence sterling for each and every ton burthen of such vessels, equal, as nearly as may be, to ninety-four cents of the money of the United States, and being the difference between the tonnage duty payable by vessels of the United States and British vessels entering any of the ports of the said United States, from any ports of His Majesty's dominions in America or the West Indies; and further, an addition of ten per cent. upon the duties set forth in the said Act of Parliament, passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, on any of the articles therein enumerated, which may be imported into His Majesty's said possessions on the Continent of North America, in any vessel of the said United States, or which, until the said first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, may be imported into His Majesty's said possessions in the West Indies or South America, or into the Bahama Islands, or into the Bermuda or Somer Islands, in any such vessel of the said States; such duties to be levied, collected, and applied in the same manner and to the same purposes as the duties levied under the authority of the said Act of the sixth year of His Majesty's reign:
