Vienna, May 16.

THe 14th Instant arrived here Count Palfi from Hungary, being sent by the Duke of Lorraine, as we are told, to inform the Emperor of the Condition his advices tell him the Enemy is in, and of the resolution he has taken to advance with the Imperial Army, and to attack some place before the Grand-Vizier comes into the Field; and Yesterday eight Pieces of Cannon, shooting 36 Pound Bullets, and four great Mortar Pieces, were drawn out of the Arsenal, and sent to the Army. The Palatine of Hungary is, according to the Emperor's Orders, Poited with the 5000 Hungarians, that were at the General Rendezvous near Presbourg, in the Island Scharz, for its security against the Incursions of the Garison of Newbeusel. The Emperor has resolved to Publish a general Pardon in Hungary, with promise of Restitution of Goods and Estate, to all such as do immediately return to their Obedience to his Imperial Majesty, and not only the Hungarians, but likewise the Germans that have deserted the Emperor's Service, and taken part with the Rebels, are by this renewed Offer of the Emperor's Grace and Pardon invited to return to their Duty. In the mean time we hear that Count Teckelej continues the Siege of the Castle of Donowitz and according to all probability he will make himself Master of it.

Vienna, May 20. The Imperial Army, who had made a Halt for some days near Raab, Decamp'd again the 15th Instant, and is Marched, as we are told, towards Gran, with a design to attack that place. Count Palfi is dispatched back to the Army, and this Morning parted from hence five great Boats Laden with Bombs, Grenadoes, Powder, &c. for the use of the Army. The Palatine of Hungary has Orders to March with the Hungarian Troops under his Command, in order to his joyning with those commanded by Major-General Schutz, and the 6000 Polish Horse, under the Command of the Chevalier de Lubomirski, at Trenchin on the Wag; These Troops are to act against Count Teckelej, who it's said is much concerned at the Alliance concluded between the Emperor and the Crown of Poland. The Elector of Bavaria, who is Treated at this Court with all the respect and kindness imaginable, intends to begin his Journey home in two or three days, and to take it by the way of Prague, having a desire to see that place; and with his Electoral Highness will go the Count de Kaunitz, as the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary. The 18th Instant Count Lossie arrived here from Germany, (having resigned the Command of the Imperial Troops now in the Empire to Count Maximilian de Staroberg, Governour of Philips- burg) and to morrow he parts hence for Hungary, the Emperor having given him one of the chief Commands in his Army. Count Lamberg, the Emperor's Envoy to the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburg, begun his Journey this Morning. The Emperor has named the Count de Tburn to be his Ambassador at the Court of Poland, from whence one is coming in the same quality hither. His Imperial Majesty has likewise resolved to send an Ambassador to the Czars of Moscovy. but the Person is not yet named.

Ratisbonne, May 24. The Electoral Colledge being much dissatisfied with the Paper we told you in one of our last the Imperial Commissioner had delivered to them in the name of the Colledge of Princes, concerning the difference now depending between the two Colledges, he has since withdrawn the same. According to our freshest advices from Hungary, the Imperial Army was Encamped near Raab, from whence the Duke of Lorraine intended to Decamp the 15th, and to enter upon some action, he having, as is said, received advice, That the Grand-Vizier will not yet in a Month or six Weeks be in the Field with the main Body of the Turkish Army. The News we had of the great Magazine at Zigetb being blown up, is confirmed.

Ratisbonne, May 27. Nothing has passed in the Dyet worth communicating since our last, the Deputies of the Electors expecting new Orders from their Masters before they enter upon any thing concerning the Treaty with France, or the point of the publick Security. From Vienna they write, That the Palatine of Hungary is ordered to pass the River Wag, and to joyn General Schutz and the Prince of Lubomirski, who is expected with 6000 Poles, near Trenchin, and that they are to act against the Hungarians, in case they do not accept of the Pardon which the Emperor has now again offered them. The Advices from Hungary say, That Count Teckelej has made himself Master of the Castle of Donowitz, after having besieged it five Weeks, and that the Baron Foannel is a Prisoner; and that Count Teckelej had received several Summons from the Balla of Offen, to take the Field, and to joyn the Turkish Troops under his Command, but that hitherto he had made several pretences to excuse it.

Cologne, May 28. Things continue here in great disorder, the Commonalty demanding the Execution of what they pretend the Magistrates lately promised them; and these, to preserve the Publick Peace, have appointed Guards in several places of the City. The Bishop of Strasbourg is gone for Alsace. It is reported here, That the Circle of Suabia is at last entered into the League which the Circles of Bavaria, Franconia, and the Upper Rhine, have lately made with the Emperor. The Chapter of Wirtzburg is to meet the 11th of the next Month, to choose a Bishop in the place of the Deceased.

Brussels,

Brussels, May 28. On Tuesday last the Marquis de Grana returned hither from Anwers, where he had had a Conference with the Prince of Oranges. The Duke of Clair is come back from Flanders, having performed his Commission, which was to appoint the new Magistrates in the several Towns of that Province, very much to his Excellency's satisfaction. The City of Anwers has not yet renewed the Impolls upon Wine and Beer; and without their concurrence, the other Towns can conclude nothing in that matter. The Letters from Madrid of the 13th Instant give us an account, That the King of Spain returned the seventh from Aranjuez, very much indisposed, That he had been let Blood, and that he was afterwards much better.

Brussels, June 1. On Sunday last w. s. kept the Burgheis Annual Feast; the Magistrates had prayed his Excellency to Honour it with his presence, and had designed a great Entertainment for him, but his Excellency would not let them be at that Charge, but did at his own Expence entertain that day the principal of the Nobility, and other Persons of Quality, together with the Magistrates, at Dinner. The same Evening arrived here his Excellency's Daughter, accompanied with the Countess of Salazar and Soye, from Spain. We have an account that the Marechal d'Humieres arrived at Lille on Saturday last; and Monsieur Colbert Mauvevier the same day at Tourday; and that the French intend to have three Camps this Summer, the first near Bouchain, the second near Binch, and the third near Condé; and upon these Advices the Marquis de Grana, as we are told, has commanded all Officers to repair immediately to their respective Garisons, and not to stir from thence without particular leave. We have Letters from Madrid, by the way of France, which tell us, That the King of Spain was recovered of his illness, and was very well again. From Vienna they write, That the Duke of Lorraine had resolved to attack Gran, or some other place, which he doubted not but to make himself Master of before the Turks would be in a posture to oppose him, and that for this purpose several great Cannon for Battery, and four great Mortar Pieces, had been sent from Vienna to the Army.

Hague, June 1. The Affair of Surinam is settled, and Monsieur Sommerdyk declared Governour of that Colony, without any dependance upon the Wey India Company; He will part very suddenly, and is to take with him 400 Soldiers. Here is arrived the Sieur Swanbielm, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sueden; from hence he is to go for England. The Sieur Vander Pecke, the Elector of Cologne's Resident, has presented a Memorial to the States-General, wherein he acquaints them with the League lately concluded at Sosst, between the King of Denmark, the Elector of Cologne, the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Bishop of Munster, for the defence and security of their respective Dominions; assures them of his Electoral Highness's Resolution to maintain the Friendship and good Correspondence established between him and this State, and desires them not to intermeddle in the Affairs of Liege, but to withdraw the Troops they have put into the Castle of Horne. We have advice, That the Count de Reye is arrived at Hamburg, in his way to Denmark.

Paris, June 2. Here have been several reports in Town this Week, concerning the King of Spain's illness; The account which the Letters from Madrid give thereof is, That that King had been ill for several days, and that his Distemper was turned to a Tertian Ague, which was not looked upon to have any danger in it. We are told, That before the Courts Departure from Verfailles a Courier was dispatched with Letters to the Bishop of Fano, the Pope's Nuncio, wherein he was desired to remain at Avignon till he should hear farther from his Most Christian Majesty, but having made no stay at Avignon, he did not meet the Courier till after his arrival at Lyon. Monsieur de St. Roman is preparing for his Embassy to Portugal.

Windfor, May 24. His Majesty was this day Graciously pleased (as a farther mark of His Pavour) to Confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Mr. Serjeant Hoboway, one of His Majesties Serjeants at Law.

W Hereas Publick Notice was given in April last, That His Majesty would Touch no more for the Evil till towards Michaelmas next, notwithstanding which, several have followed His Majesty, at this unseasonable time, to Windfor, for prevention whereof, all Ministers, Church-Wardens, and others concerned in granting Certificates to such as would be Touched, are required to forbear granting any such Certificates till towards Michaelmas next.
