By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of November next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said second day of November next, to Tuesday the fourteenth day of November next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourteenth day of November next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourteenth day of November next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 1st of September 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the laws now in force for regulating the importation of corn,—oats, and oatmeal may be imported into the United Kingdom, and into the Isle of Man, for home consumption, under and subject to the regulations of the several statutes in that case made and provided, whenever the average price of oats (to be ascertained in the manner therein prescribed) shall be at or above the price of twenty-seven shillings per quarter, and pease may in like manner be imported, whenever the price shall be at or above fifty-three shillings per quarter: and whereas by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Importation of Corn," it is enacted, that whenever foreign corn, meal, or flour, shall be admissible under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend the Law now in force for regulating the Importation of Corn," or under the provisions of the said Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, there shall be levied and paid certain duties therein specified upon all such foreign corn, meal, or flour, when admitted for home consumption: and whereas by the weekly returns of purchases and sales of corn, made by the several Inspectors of Corn Returns in the cities and towns of England and Wales, to the Receiver of Corn Returns, it appears that the average price of oats, and also the average price of pease at the present time exceed the before mentioned prices of twenty-seven shillings and fifty-three shillings per quarter: and whereas, from information which hath this day been laid before His Majesty, it appears that the price of oats, as well as that of pease, is still rising, and that the crop of oats, and also the crops of pease and beans, of the present year have failed to a considerable extent, and that a deficiency in the crop of potatoes is also apprehended in some parts of the United Kingdom: and whereas, if the importation, for home consumption, of oats and oatmeal, and of
