

rye, pease, and beans, be not immediately permitted, there is great cause to fear that much distress may insue to all classes of His Majesty's subjects :

And whereas, under the Acts aforesaid, no foreign grain of the above description, whatever may be the respective average prices of the same, can be admitted to entry, for home consumption, till after the fifteenth day of November in the present year, when the next quarterly average, by which the admission of such grain is regulated, will be made up, according to the provisions of the said Acts : His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that foreign oats and oatmeal, rye, pease, and beans, whether warehoused or otherwise, shall and may, from the date hereof, be permitted to be entered in the ports of the United Kingdom, and of the Isle of Man, for home consumption, provided the parties making entry of any such foreign oats, oatmeal, rye, pease, or beans, do give bond, with sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the payment of any duties, not exceeding in amount the duties hereinafter mentioned, in case Parliament shall authorise the levy and receipt thereof, that is to say :

Oats, per quarter, 2s.

Oatmeal, per boll, 2s. 2d.

Rye, pease, and beans, per quarter, 3s. 6d.

And His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth hereby further order, and it is accordingly ordered, that such permission to enter oats and oatmeal, rye, pease, and beans for home consumption, on the conditions aforesaid, shall continue in force from the date hereof, until the expiration of forty days, to be reckoned from the day of the next meeting of Parliament, unless the Parliament shall previously to the expiration of the said forty days make provision to the contrary :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, September 13, 1826.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, constituting and appointing Sir John Singleton Copley, Knight, Master or Keeper of the Rolls and Records of the Court of Chancery, in the room of the Right Honourable Robert Lord Gifford, deceased.

Whitehall, September 13, 1826

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that two wheat ricks and one barley rick, the property of Mr. John Brown Gough, of Molland, in the county of Devon, bailiff of Robert Throckmorton, Esq. were, in the night of Saturday the 26th, or early in the morning of Sunday the 27th of August last, maliciously set on fire and consumed ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Mr. W. Leigh, of Bardon, near Taunton, as steward of the said Robert Throckmorton.

Whitehall, September 13, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, in the night of Sunday the 27th of August last, maliciously set fire to a cottage, called "Hawthorn Cottage," in the parish of Milford, in the county of Southampton, the property of Mrs. Whitby, whereby the same was consumed ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said cottage), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Messrs. Rickman and Son, solicitors, at Lymington, in the said county.
