

rain being resolved to expect there the great Cannon and other necessaries for a Siege, which were lately sent from hence; He had given orders for the making a Bridge over the Danube between Comorra and Gran, and had sent out two Parties of Horse, consisting each in 4000 Men, to learn in what posture the Enemy is. There seems to be a Negotiation on foot for the accommodating matters with Count Teckley, which many persuade themselves will have the desired effect, though others are of opinion that Count Teckley's design is to gain time, that he may take his measures according to the success of things. The Expedition of Hungary having undertaken with the Troops under his Command, to defend the River Waag, and the Viteroy of Croatia to secure the Frontiers of that Country, the Emperor has resolved to draw out several Troops, that are now in Garisons on that side, to strengthen the Imperial Army. The Elector of Bavaria parted from Luxemburg on Thursday, the Emperor accompanying him several Miles on his way, under the pretence of going a hunting; his Electoral Highness dined that day with the Empreis Dowager at her House called le Favorite, and having taken his leave of her, went privately to the House of the Count de Kaunitz, where he intends to stay Incognito a day or two to see the Curiosities of this place, and then to return home by the way of Moravia and Bohemia. Count Lamberg has begun his Journey to Dresden and Berlin. Count Leslie parted on Monday last for Hungary, the Emperor having made him General of the Artillery.

Strasbourg, May 28. This day the Queens Regiment of Dragoons marched from hence to the Camp on the Saar, and to morrow and the day following the Battalions that are appointed to attend the Artillery, will likewise march. Great Endeavours are used to finish the new Fortifications that are making here before the end of June, by which time the most Christian King is expected here.

Berlin, May 16. A very fine Train of Artillery is preparing here, and its said his Electoral Highness will take the Field about the middle of the next Month. The Sieur Meinders whom our Elector lately sent to the Princes of Lunenburg, is expected back here in few days.

Brussels, June 4. The Marquess de Grana having lent the Count de Bergeycke and the Marquis des Motes to Antwerp to persuade those people to consent to the renewing the Imposts upon Wine and Beer for three Years, they are come back, without being able to bring that City to a compliance herein, they being unwilling to depart from their antient custom of granting the said Imposts from six Months to six Months. The Letters we receive from Hamburg and other places, do assure us, That the Elector of Brandenburg is entred into new Engagements with the Crown of France. We are very quiet in these parts, not hearing of the motion of any Troops near us. The Letters from Vienna tell us, That the Duke of Lorraine was advanced into the Enemies Country, and he had resolved to detache a body of men to burn the Bridge of Esbecke, by which the main Body of the Turks is to pass into Hungary.

Paris, June 5. Their most Christian Majesties accompanied with the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans arrived the 26 of the last month at Corbeil, the 27 at Montereau, the 28. at Sens. the 29. at Joigny, and the 30. at Auxerre, where they intended to stay the next day. The Dauphin parted from Versailles yesterday morning by break of day, and intended to be that night at Auxerre, and from thence to continue his journey this morning in order to his meeting the King at Dijon. From Provence we have advice that the French Fleet Commanded by Monsieur du Quesne, which had been forced back to Toulon by the bad Weather, sailed again the 18. past. The Letters from Madrid tell us, That the King of Spain had had several Fits of a Tertian Ague, that his Physicians had let him Blood once in the Neck and twice in the Foot, and that his indisposition was so much abated, that it was hoped a few days would restore him to his former health. At Cadix they work with gunns on the Fleet they are fitting out there, but it is said it will not be ready to sail till towards the end of this Month; It will consist of 20 Men of War, and three Fire-ships, besides the Gallies.

Windsor, May 30. The Count de Zinzendorf, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Saxony has had his Audiences of their Majesties and their Royal Highnesses, being conducted thereunto by Sir Charles Costerel Master of the Ceremonies, in the usual manner.

Advertisements.

These are to give Notice to all Gentlemen that have subscribed to the Proposals Published by Mr. Henry Purcell for the Printing his Sonnets of three Parts for two Violins and Bass to the Harpsicord or Organ, That the said Books are now compleatly finished, and shall be delivered to them upon the 1st of June next: And if any who have not yet subscribed, shall before that time subscribe, according to the said Proposals, (which is Ten Shillings the whole set) which are at Mr. William Hall's house in Norfolk-street, or at Mr. Playford's and Mr. Carr's Shops in the Temple; for the said Books will not after that time be sold under 15 s. the Set.

MR. John Staley Goldsmith, being lately dead, some of his Creditors desire that all his Creditors will meet at the Rose Tavern without Temple-Bar, on Wednesday the sixth of June next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to understand what Proceedings have been already had upon the Statute, and to advise what further Course to take for the Benefit of all his Creditors.

These are to give Notice, That the York-shire Annual Feast will be kept at Merchant-Taylors-Hall, on Thursday June 28th. 1683. and that all Gentlemen may be supplied with Tickets at Mr. Edward Goultons, Engraver, under the Piazza, on the South-side of the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at Mr. William Pettys at the Grey-Hound-Inn in Holbourn, and at Mr. William Petty's at the Three Angels and Crown Tavern in Cheap-side.

ON Friday the 25th of this instant May, one William Flint, who fled as a Porter near the Tun Tavern in St. Martins Lane, went away with Five pounds which he received for a Gentleman. He is a tall well set Man, of good complexion, but squints a little with one eye, brown short hair, and about 27 years old, he wore a grey Coat, a white Apron, ragged Breeches, and a black Hat. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Lemmon at the Golden Perriwig in the Strand, so as he may be apprehended, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Lost the last Week out of the Goswell Grounds at Windsor, a Sandy Grey Mare, four Years old, with a large White down her Forehead, her Tail lately Dock'd, but left with long Whisk Hair, and her Shoes taken off. Whoever gives notice of the said Mare to Sir Thomas Duppa Usher of the Black Rod at Windsor, shall be very well Rewarded.

Stolen or Strayed out of Mr. Whitmore's Grounds, at Hogston, in the County of Middlesex, a light Grey Cart Gelding, above 15 hands high, 8 years old, with a whisk Tail, and a Cross cut in the Hair under the Saddle-place. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. Whitmore aforesaid, or to Mr. Bowes, a Brewer at the King's-head in Chiswell-street, London, shall have 20 s. Reward.