NOTICE is hereby given, that from and after the 18th of October instant, a Floating Light will be exhibited during the winter months, or until the new Light-house shall be completed, on the east side of the Rock Perch, at the entrance of the River Mersey.

The following will be the bearings of this Light, by which a clear channel will be found on both sides of the vessel, viz.

The Upper Bootle Mark, its own breadth open to the southward of the Bridge; and Taylor's Mill, its own breadth open to the westward of St. Paul's Church.

By order of the Dock Committee,

William Foster, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, and the commons, wastes, and commonable lands and grounds, in the parish of Mitcham, in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 9th day of September 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing several Acts, made in the eighth, tenth, thirteenth, and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the nightly watch and beadies, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, made in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for watching, paving, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to build a new parish church and two or more chapels, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two several Acts, of the thirty-fifth and forty-sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving and improving the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to effectuate the building of four district churches in the said parish, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of three several Acts, made in the thirty-fifth, forty-sixth, and fifty-third years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the nightly watch and beadies, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making the four districts in the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, district rectories, for certain purposes," or for consolidating all or any or either of the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament; and that it is intended to take power by such Act or Acts, for the raising of money for the several purposes of such Act or Acts, by an increase or alteration of the existing rates or assessments, or by new and additional rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits hereinafore mentioned, or by both those means, or by some other means to be provided by such Act or Acts.

Greenwell and Lloyd, Solicitors for the Vestrymen of the said parish of St. Mary-le-bone.

THE Commissioners for paving, lighting, and watching that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James, hereby give notice, that they intend to apply to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to explain, alter, and amend two several Acts of Parliament, the first whereof was made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of

His late Majesty George the Third, and is intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets, and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" and the second of which said two several Acts of Parliament was made and passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, and is intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty (thereby meaning His said late Majesty George the Third, intituled 'An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets, and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish; for repairing the highways in the said parish, and cleansing the said part of the said parish; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman's-street, and from Rosoman's-street to St. John's-street; and for building a chapel in the said parish.'" And the said Commissioners also hereby give notice, that the object of their said intended application is to obtain permission to enlarge and add to the several clauses, powers, and provisions, or any of them, in the said two several Statutes, or either of them, contained; or to repeal, alter, or amend the said several powers and provisions, or any of them, or to substitute others in the place and stead thereof, in such manner as may be deemed necessary or expedient in the wisdom of Parliament.

Wm. Cook, Solicitor to the said Commissioners, Woodbridge-house, Clerkenwell.
September 28, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal the several Acts hereinafter mentioned (that is to say), an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, squares, lanes, and other passages within the parish of St. John, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called Saint James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" and an Act, passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called Saint James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish, for repairing the highways in the said parish, and cleansing the said part of the said parish, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman's-street, and from Rosoman's-street to Saint John-street, and for building a chapel in the said parish;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers and provisions for paving, widening, repairing, cleansing, lighting, watching, regulating, and otherwise improving the several streets, squares, lanes, highways, and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for the removal and prevention of nuisances, obstructions, and annoyances therein; in which bill provision is intended to be made to alter the present rates now collected within the said parish.—Dated this 3d day of October 1826.

Geo. Selby, Solicitor for the Bill.

If the Next of Kin of James Young, late Ensign of the East India Company's 20th Regiment of Native Infantry, at Palsete, in the East Indies, deceased, will apply to Mr. Brickwood, of No. 6, Dean's Court, Doctors'-Commons, they will hear of something to their advantage.

To be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Blew v. Winchester, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in six lots;

Several freehold and leasehold estates, situate in Villiers-Street, Strand; Martha-Buildings, Old Street; the Oval, Kennington; Devonshire-Place, Kennington-Lane; and James-Street, Lambeth; and also an annuity of £15 per annum, charged on premises in Stangate-Street, during the life of one Thomas Parker, aged 61 years.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Fynmore, Clarke, and Fynmore, Solicitors, Craven-Street, Strand; of Messrs. Briggs and Mould, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; at the Horns, Kennington; and the Pen-Cutters' Arms, James-Street, Lambeth.

PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

Valuable Mills, Steam Engine, Cottages, and Buildings.

To be sold by auction, before the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Mr. James Gleadhill, of Oldham, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, at the house of Mrs. Miriam Fletcher, the Angel Inn, in Oldham aforesaid, on Wednesday the 8th day of November 1826, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced, and in the following or such other lots as may be fixed upon at the time of sale;

Lot 1. All those two substantial and newly erected mills or factories, situate and being at bottom of Greenacres-Moor, within Oldham aforesaid, known by the name of Shore-Mills, together with a new steam engine, 50 horse power, shafts, mill-gearing, three reservoirs or lodges for water, six ware-houses, one blacksmith's shop, one cottage, one willow-room, two engine-houses, and two boiler-houses thereto belonging, now in the occupation of the said James Gleadhill, and his undertenants. One of the mills is six stories high, exclusive of the attics, fourteen yards and twenty-four inches in breadth, and comprises a front of fifty-eight yards and eleven inches; and the other of them is five stories high, twelve yards and a half in breadth, on an average, and comprises a front of forty seven yards. The land occupied by the buildings and reservoirs in this lot contains, by admeasurement, three thousand eight hundred and thirty-one and a half square yards, or thereabouts.

Lot 2. All those four messuages or dwelling-houses adjoining to the south easterly side of the said mills, with the cellars and vacant land thereto belonging, now in the several occupations of Robert Dickinson and others. This lot contains three hundred and eighty-four square yards, or thereabouts.

Lot 3. All those nine cottages or dwelling-houses adjoining to the north easterly side of the said mills, with the vacant land thereto belonging, now in the several occupations of Amos Ogden, Moses Howard, Richard Lodge, and six others. This lot contains three hundred and fifty-five square yards, or thereabouts.

Lot 4. All those two several yearly rents of £6 10s. 1d. and £7 18s. payable from two several plots of land adjoining the westerly side of the said mills, and the reversion and remainder of and in the said plots of land, which are demised for two several terms, of which eight hundred and sixty-six years, or thereabouts, are unexpired.

The above mills adjoin the Manchester and Oldham turnpike-road, and are well supplied with excellent water; the larger mill is rented by substantial tenants; and the sale of this property offers a favourable opportunity for the investment of money to advantage.

The premises (except eight perches and twenty-seven yards, which is freehold of inheritance), are held for a term of nine hundred years, which commenced on or about the 1st day of July 1803, subject to the yearly rent of £50 16s. 8d. which will be charged on the first lot.

For a view of the property, and further particulars apply at the Office of Mr. James Whitehead, Solicitor, Oldham.

To be sold by auction, by Mr. John Blomfield, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Damant, late of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, at the King's Head Inn, Diss, Norfolk, on Friday the 27th day of October instant, between the hours of Twelve and One;

Lot 1. A capital messuage and shop, in the centre of the market-place, Diss, which from its situation (commanding a frontage of 44 feet and upwards) offers a most eligible investment to any person wishing to engage in a general line of business; there is a large shop, good cellar, keeping-room, kitchen, four good sleeping-rooms, and two attics, &c.

The above property is partly freehold and partly copyhold of the manor of Diss, with its members.

Lot 2. The Bankrupt's reversionary interest (after the decease of Mary Chinery, the Widow of George Chinery, late of Beccles, in the County of Suffolk, Bricklayer, deceased), of and in a fourth part of the monies to arise from the real and personal estate of the deceased.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had of David Jones, Esq. Solicitor, Sise-Lane, Bucklersbury, London; of Messrs. Frost and Stedman, Solicitors, Sudbury; and of the Auctioneer, Billingford, Norfolk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by two several indentures of assignment, respectively bearing date the 11th day of August 1826, and made between James Graham, of Batholomew-Close, in the City of London, and New Chapel-Place, Kentish-Town, in the County of Middlesex, Bookbinder; also of the Bull and Gate Inn Yard, and at the Stables of Mr. Hoystrop, at Kentish Town aforesaid, Coach-Master, of the one part, John Marshall Critchett, of Goswell-Street, in the said County of Middlesex, Tanner and Leather-Dresser (being a Partner in the late firm of Messrs. Benjamin Critchett and Sons, and one of the Creditors of the said James Graham), of the second part, and the several persons, whose names are thereunto subscribed and affixed (being also respectively Creditors of the said James Graham), of the third part, the said James Graham has assigned to the said John Marshall Critchett all and singular his estate and effects whatsoever, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said James Graham; which said several indentures were respectively, on the day of the dates thereof, executed by the said James Graham and John Marshall Critchett, and attested by John Finch, of No. 42, Coleman-Street, in the City of London, Solicitor.

THIS is to give notice, that Peter Jessop Down, late of Tywardreath, in the County of Cornwall, Linen and Woolen Draper and Grocer, but now of Devonport, in the County of Devon, Haberdasher, by indenture of three parts, bearing date the 21st day of September now last past, and made between the said Peter Jessop Down of the first part, William Hancock, of Devonport aforesaid, and Richard Revell, of the Borough of Plymouth, in the said County of Devon, Mercers, of the second part, and the several Creditors of the said Peter Jessop Down, whose names and seals are already or shall be hereafter thereunto subscribed and affixed, of the third part, assigned and transferred, in manner therein mentioned, unto the said William Hancock and Richard Revell, all his estate and effects in trust for the benefit of all his, the said Peter Jessop Down's, Creditors; and that such deed was duly executed by the said Peter Jessop Down and Richard Revell respectively, on the said 21st day of September now last past, and by the said William Hancock, on the 22d day of September also now last past, the execution thereof by the said Peter Jessop Down, Richard Revell, and William Hancock, being attested by James Gilbard, of Devonport aforesaid, Attorney at Law.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Heale, of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, Sail-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 1st day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Commercial Inn, in Plymouth aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, both real and personal, either by private contract or otherwise, and either for ready money or upon credit as to the said Assignees shall appear most advantageous, and to authorise the said Assignees to enter into any agreement or agreements relating thereto; also to authorise the said Assignees to compound, settle and adjust any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to submit to arbitration any matter, dispute or thing whatsoever that shall or may arise on account of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said

Bankrupt, or to set aside any mortgage or mortgages, security or securities made, or alleged so to be, by the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Ann Peowite, of Middle-Row, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Straw Hat-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapwoman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the stock in trade, premises and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the servants of the said Bankrupt the wages that may be due to them; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other person to investigate the said Bankrupt's books, or to make up the same, or to collect in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees instituting proceedings at law against persons to be named at the said meeting for the recovery of certain property belonging to the said Bankrupt; or to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Walter Bentley, of High Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Woollen Draper, Dealer and Chapman are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of the stock in trade and household furniture of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, and either altogether or in separate parts, and either to the Bankrupt or to any other person or persons, and either for ready money or upon credit, and to be paid for at such times, and on such security as the Assignees may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to collect in the outstanding debts due the Bankrupt's estate, and making him an allowance for the same; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtor to the Bankrupt's estate, and taking any part of the debt which they may deem reasonable or proper in discharge of the whole; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving time or taking security for the payment of any debt due to the said Bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving their consent that the holders of any bills or notes, bearing other names besides the Bankrupt's, may give time to or compound with the other persons whose names may be on such bills or notes without prejudice to their claim against the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law, or in equity, for the recovery of or in relation to any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who shall have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Peter Williamson Dunville, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 1st day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Star Inn, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the whole or such part or parts of the said Bankrupt's real and personal estate as they shall think proper to any person or persons whomsoever, by private contract, and either for a price or prices in money, or upon giving a day or days for payment for the purchase money, with or without security; and also to enter into and execute any arrangement with the mortgagee or mortgagees of any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate which the said Assignees may think advisable for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's Creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing or prosecuting any suit or suits in equity, action or actions at law or other proceedings against Stretthill Wright, a Bankrupt, and the Assignees appointed under a Commission of Bankrupt issued and awarded against the said Stretthill Wright, or to the said Assignees of the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile, defending any suit or suits in equity, action or actions at law, or other proceedings which have been or may be commenced against the said Peter Williamson Dumvile, or the Assignees of the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile as to the Assignees of the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile, may appear beneficial to the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees of the said estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile, compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any of the matters or things aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees of the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile, commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other suit or suits, action or actions, relating to the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile; or compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the estate of the said Peter Williamson Dumvile, in such manner as to them shall appear reasonable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Airey and Nicholas Aspinall, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Soap-Boilers, Dealers, Chapmen and Partners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. Thomas Davenport, Solicitor, Lord-Street, Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing any claim or right to, or giving up all or any part of the household goods and furniture of the said Bankrupt Nicholas Aspinall, now in his dwelling house, in Liverpool aforesaid, to his brother Mr. John Aspinall, and claimed by him by virtue of a judgment entered up and execution issued thereon, or to compromise the said claim, or to prosecute or defend any action or suit that may be instituted for the recovery or protection of the same; and to the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said household goods and furniture, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, and on such terms, conditions and credits as they may deem expedient; and also as to the said Assignees selling and disposing of the interest of the said Bankrupt Nicholas Aspinall in an estate called Meal-Bank, at Kirby Kendal, in the County of Westmoreland, either by public auction or private contract on such terms and conditions as they shall think fit; and to the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting such suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, as they shall be advised to be necessary for enabling them to effect any such last mentioned sale or sales; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising or compounding certain actions now depending between them and persons to be then and there named, or to their prosecuting, defending or discontinuing the said actions, or any of them, or submitting the same to arbitration, or to take such other steps in regard thereto as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees to negotiate with any person or persons for the said Assignees' claim to certain cottons pledged by the said Bankrupts, or either of them, with the present holders of certain bills of exchange, given in consequence of such cottons being pledged, and bearing the names of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, either as drawers or indorsers, upon the said Assignees having such bills of exchange given up and cancelled, or the estate of the said Bankrupts, and of each of them, exonerated from all claim thereon, and to make any other arrangements which they may think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Mary Fidler, of Nantury, in the County of Chester, Inn-keeper, Dealer and Chapwoman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 2d day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, at the Red Lion Inn, in Bullock-Smithy, in the County of Chester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at such price or prices, and at such times and places, either for ready money or on credit, and taking such security or securities for payment thereof as they may think fit; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing the said Bankrupt to take the household goods, furniture, and stock in trade at a valuation, appraisal or otherwise, and giving such time for the payment thereof, or of any part thereof, and with or without security, as to the said Assignees may seem most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees defending a certain action threatened to be commenced by the surviving executors of the late Thomas Fidler, for the recovery of certain goods, chattels and effects, of which the said surviving executors claim to be owners, being in the use and possession of the said Bankrupt at the time of her Bankruptcy; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up to the said surviving executors such goods, chattels, and effects, or any of them to which they claim to be owners, or of accepting or refusing any offer of compromise or settlement between the said Assignees and the said surviving executors in any way concerning such goods, chattels, and effects, or the disposition thereof, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, for the recovery of or in any wise regarding any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any dispute, suit, or difference respectively, or in any wise concerning such estate and effects; and also to the said Assignees compromising with any debtor or debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate, and accepting such composition or compositions in full satisfaction and discharge of the debt or debts so to be compromised as aforesaid; and also to confirm and allow or disapprove of the acts and proceedings which may have been adopted and done regarding the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt by the said Assignees, and by the provisional Assignee under the said Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Kerrison, of Cambridge-Heath, Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, Coach-Master, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the stock in trade, premises, and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the servants of the said Bankrupt the wages that may be due to them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or other person, to investigate the said Bankrupt's affairs, or to collect in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against David Morgan, of the Town of Neath, in the County of Glamorgan, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Thursday the 2d day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Town-Hall, in the Town of Neath aforesaid, to decide upon accepting or refusing such offer of composition as was made to the Creditors assembled at a meeting held at the Ship and Castle Inn, in the Town of Neath aforesaid, on the 7th day of October instant, by the said David Morgan.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Crosthwaite, of Fenchurch-Street, in the City of London, Wine-Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 1st day of November next (and not on the 25th of October, as before advertised), at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the compromise of certain debts due to the estate of the said Bankrupt, on such terms and in such manner as will be then more particularly explained to the Creditors; and also for the purpose of confirming a certain arrangement made by the said Assignees for the settlement of a debt due to the estate, the particulars of which will be then also more particularly explained to the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Phillips, of Chepstow, in the County of Monmouth, Coal Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 1st day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the White Lion Inn, in Broad-Street, in the City of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
