Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1826.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st of September 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, dated nineteenth July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and by the second section of the said Order, it is, amongst other things, directed, that such of certain vessels therein more particularly described, as are or shall be bound to any port in Ireland between Missen Head and Tuskard, shall perform quarantine in the Bay of Baltimore; such of them as are or shall be bound to any port between Tuskard and Rathlin, shall perform quarantine in Lough Larne and the Bay of Carlingford, near Killowen Point, opposite the Town of Carlingford; such of them as are or shall be bound to any port between Rathlin and Tory Island, shall perform quarantine in Ballymastoker Bay or Red Castle Road, near Londonderry; such of them as are bound for any port between Tory Island and Blacksod Bay, shall perform quarantine in the Harbour of Killybegs; such of them as shall be bound for any port between Blacksod Bay and Loop Head, shall perform quarantine in Clew Bay, otherwise called the Bay of Burrishowle; and lastly, such of them as shall be bound for any port between Loop Head and Missen Head, shall perform quarantine in Scatterry Bay, in the River of Limerick; it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

And His Majesty is pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all such ships or vessels liable to quarantine, as are or shall be bound to any port in Ireland, with clean bills of health, and not having on board any of the articles enumerated in the thirty-first section of the said Order in Council, dated the nineteenth July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, shall perform quarantine at one of the following stations, that is to say,

Poolbeg, in the Harbour of Dublin;

College of Physicians, October 2, 1826.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourteenth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating mad-houses," notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners appointed for licensing houses for the reception of lunatics within the cities of London and Westminster, and within seven miles of the same, and within the county of Middlesex, will meet at the College of Physicians, Pall Mall East, on Thursday the 19th day of October instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in order to grant such licences to all persons who shall desire the same, pursuant to the directions of the said Act.

By order of the Commissioners,

J. Bright, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to repeal or to alter, amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for providing a maintenance for the Minister of the New Church of Horslydown, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for making the district assigned to the same a distinct parish, and for other purposes therein mentioned," so far as relates to the providing a maintenance for the Minister of the said church; and that it is intended to obtain power for making further provision for the maintenance and support of the Minister of the said church, by an increase or alteration of the rates, duties, assessments, funds, rents, or other payments by the said Act granted and appropriated for the purposes of such provision, or by new and additional rates or assessments within the said parish, or by both those means, or by some other means to be provided by such intended Act.

Chas. Batsford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, and the commons, wastes, and commonable lands and grounds, in the parish of Mitcham, in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 9th day of September 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing several Acts, made in the eighth, tenth, thirteenth, and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the nightly watch and beatles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, made in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for watching, paving, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to build a new parish church and two or more chapels, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two several Acts, of the thirty-fifth and forty-sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving and improving the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to effectuate the building of four district churches in the said parish, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of three several Acts, made in the thirty-fifth, forty-sixth, and fifty-third years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the nightly watch and beatles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making the four districts in the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, district rectories, for certain purposes," or for consolidating all or any or either of the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament; and that it is intended to take power by such Act or Acts, for the raising of money for the several purposes of such Act or Acts, by an increase or alteration of the existing rates or assessments, or by new and additional rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits hereinbefore mentioned, or by both those means, or by some other means to be provided by such Act or Acts.

Greenwell and Lloyd. Solicitors for the Vestrymen of the said parish of St. Mary-le-bone.

THE Commissioners for paving, lighting, and watching that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James, hereby give notice, that they intend to apply to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to explain, alter, and amend two several Acts of Parliament, the first whereof was made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, and is intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets, and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" and the second of which said two several Acts of Parliament was made and passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, and is intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty (thereby meaning His said late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets, and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish; for repairing the highways in the said parish, and cleansing the said part of the said parish; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman's-street, and from Rosoman's-street to St. John's-street; and for building a chapel in the said parish." And the said Commissioners also hereby give notice, that the object of their said intended application is to obtain permission to enlarge and add to the several clauses, powers, and provisions, or any of them, in the said two several Statutes, or either of them, contained; or to repeal, alter, or amend the said several powers and provisions, or any of them, or to substitute others in the place and stead thereof, in such manner as may be deemed necessary or expedient in the wisdom of Parliament.

Wm. Cook, Solicitor to the said Commissioners, Woodbridge-house, Clerkenwell.
September 28, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal the several Acts hereinafter mentioned (that is to say), an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, squares, lanes, and other passages within the parish of St. John, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called Saint James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" and an Act, passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called Saint James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish,' for repairing the highways in the said parish, and cleansing the said part of the said parish, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman's-street, and from Rosoman's-street to Saint John-street, and for building a chapel in the said parish;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers and provisions for paving, widening, repairing, cleansing, lighting, watching, regulating, and otherwise improving the several streets, squares, lanes, highways, and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for the removal and prevention of nuisances, obstructions, and annoyances therein; in which bill provision is intended to be made to alter the present rates now collected within the said parish.—Dated this 3d day of October 1826.

Geo. Selby, Solicitor for the Bill.
