Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1826.

Admiralty-Office, September 26, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Tuesday the 24th of October next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-garden-terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for paying, gravelling, cleansing, watering, maintaining, draining, and repairing certain roads, streets, ways, or places called Gloucester-place and Upper Gloucester-place, Kentish-town, in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex; and for opening, forming, extending, continuing, paying, gravelling, cleansing, watering, maintaining, draining, and repairing a certain intended street, road, way, or place, from the east end of Upper Gloucester-place aforesaid to a certain road or place in the same parish called Maiden-lane, and all roads, streets, lanes, ways, courts, passages, and places adjoining to the said streets, roads, ways, or places, or leading into or out of the same; and for the removal and prevention of nuisances, encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances within the said limits, and for the general regulation of the same; and for obtaining powers for the raising of money for the same, by rates or assessments upon houses and premises already erected and to be hereafter erected within the limits aforesaid, or by some other means to be provided by such Act.

W. Crowe, Solicitor for the Bill, 32, Gloucester-place, and 35, King-street, Cheapside.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to authorise and empower the owners, proprietors, lessees, occupiers, and other persons interested of and in the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, heretofore parcel of the possessions belonging to the late Monastery or Abbey of Stratford Langthorne, in the county of Essex, to raise, by rates or otherwise, the requisite sums for and towards defraying the expence of repairing and maintaining the roads, causeways, bridges, and other works liable to be repaired and maintained by such owners, proprietors, lessees, occupiers, and other persons; and to authorise and empower them to take such proceedings, and to do such acts as are requisite for the other purposes relating to such Abbey lands.—Dated this 14th October 1826.

George Dacre, Secretary and Solicitor to the said Abbey land owners and proprietors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to repeal or to alter, amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for providing a maintenance for the Minister of the New Church of Horslydown, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for making the district assigned to the same a distinct parish, and for other purposes therein mentioned," so far as relates to the providing a maintenance for the Minister of the said church; and that it is intended to obtain power for making further provision for the maintenance and support of the Minister of the said church, by an increase or alteration of the rates, duties, assessments, funds, rents, or other payments by the said Act granted and appropriated for the purposes of such provision, or by new and additional rates or assessments within the said parish, or by both those means, or by some other means to be provided by such intended Act.

Chas. Batsford.
