

Commission in the 1st Royal Regiment of Tower Hamlets Militia, signed by the Deputy Lieutenants, in the Absence of the Lord Lieutenant.

James Alderson Bailey, Esq. to be Captain, vice Collard, deceased. Dated 3d October 1826.

Whitehall, October 20, 1826.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, between seven and eight o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 10th instant, John Cann, a seaman belonging to His Majesty's ship Ramillies, being stationed as a centinel on the beach in St. Margaret's-bay, situate between Deal and Dover, on the coast of Kent, was wounded in the thigh by a ball from a musket or gun, feloniously discharged at the said John Cann by some malicious person amongst a party from the cliff above;

His Majesty, for the discovering and bringing to justice the persons guilty of this outrage and felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any person concerned therein (except the man who actually fired at and wounded the said John Cann) who shall make known his or their accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.—Such reward to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of them by Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, of Spring-garden-terrace, London. J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to authorise and empower the owners, proprietors, lessees, occupiers, and other persons interested of and in the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, heretofore parcel of the possessions belonging to the late Monastery or Abbey of Stratford Langthorne, in the county of Essex, to raise, by rates or otherwise, the requisite sums for and towards defraying the expence of repairing and maintaining the roads, causeways, bridges, and other works liable to be repaired and maintained by such owners, proprietors, lessees, occupiers, and other persons; and to authorise and empower them to take such proceedings, and to do such acts as are requisite for the other purposes relating to such Abbey lands.—Dated this 14th October 1826.

George Daere, Secretary and Solicitor to the said Abbey land owners and proprietors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for paving, gravelling, cleansing, watering, maintaining, draining, and repairing certain roads, streets, ways, or places called Gloucester-place and Upper Gloucester-place, Kentish-town, in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex; and for opening, forming, extending, continuing, paving, gravelling, cleansing, watering, maintaining, draining, and repairing a certain intended street, road, way, or place, from the east end of Upper Gloucester-place aforesaid to a certain road or place in the same parish called Maiden-lane, and all roads, streets, lanes, ways, courts, passages, and places adjoining to the said streets, roads, ways, or places, or leading into or out of the same; and for the removal and prevention of nuisances, encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances within the said limits, and for the general regulation of the same; and for obtaining powers for the raising of money for the same, by rates or assessments upon houses and premises already erected and to be hereafter erected within the limits aforesaid, or by some other means to be provided by such Act.

W. Crowe, Solicitor for the Bill, 32, Gloucester-place, and 35, King-street, Cheapside.
