Admiralty-Office, October 27, 1826.

VICE-Admiral Sir Harry Neale has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. two letters from Captain Hamilton, of His Majesty's ship Cambrian, and one from Captain Sotheby, of His Majesty's ship Seringapatam, reporting the capture or destruction of seven piratical vessels in the Archipelago, as under mentioned, viz.

A mistico burnt, and a bombard captured, at the island of Tino, on the 27th July, by the boats of the Cambrian, under the orders of Lieutenant Gregory; five of the pirates being killed and several wounded, without any loss on the part of the Cambrian's detachment.

A pirate vessel burnt and a bombard captured in the beginning of September, at the island of Andros, by a party of Royal Marines, landed from the Cambrian, under the orders of Lieutenant Parker of that corps. The pirates fled to the mountains, but the whole of their ammunition was taken.

And two vessels, a mistico, and a pirama, captured, and another pirama burnt, at Andros, in September, by the boats of the Seringapatam under Lieutenant Burnett, and a party of marines under Lieutenant Parker.

The two last mentioned services were likewise performed without any loss; and the good conduct of the officers and men employed on all the occasions is noticed with commendation by Captains Hamilton and Sotheby.

Whitehall, October 25, 1826.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend George Tod to the church and parish of Tealing, in the presbytery of Dundee and county of Forfar, vacant by the transportation of the Reverend Charles Adie to the East Church of Dundee.

Whitehall, October 19, 1826.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Hetherington, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, October 20, 1826

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, between seven and eight o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 10th instant, John Cann, a seaman belonging to His Majesty's ship Ramillies, being stationed as a centinel on the beach in St. Margaret's-bay, situate between Deal and Dover, on the coast of Kent, was wounded in the thigh by a ball from a musket or gun, feloniously discharged at the said John Cann by some malicious person amongst a party from the cliff above;

His Majesty, for the discovering and bringing to justice the persons guilty of this outrage and felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any person concerned therein (except the man who actually fired at and wounded the said John Cann) who shall make known his or their accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a farther encouragement, a reward of
