TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1826.

India-Board, October 31, 1826.

A DISPATCH has been received at the East India-House from the Governor-General in Council at Fort William, in Bengal, of which and of its inclosure the following are an extract and a copy:

Extract from a Letter from the Governor-General in Council to the Court of Directors, dated Fort William, April 12, 1826.

WE have the honour to submit a copy of the General Orders issued by the Government, on the occasion of the return of His Excellency the Commander in Chief from the Western Provinces to the Presidency.

Copy of the General Orders referred to in the foregoing Extract.

THE official dispatch from His Excellency the Commander in Chief, dated Bhurtpore, 19th January 1826*, has been already published in the general order issued from the Political Department, on the 29th January last, in that report the Right Honourable Lord Combermere, expressed in appropriate terms the applause due to the Officers and troops who have conquered under His Lordship's command, and that authentic and honourable testimony derives a value from his high authority and personal cognizance, which it could have obtained from no other quarter. The Governor-General in Council will not, however, deny himself the gratification of seizing the opportunity now presented, whilst publicly offering his thanks and congratulations to the Commander in Chief, on the successful close of the campaign in Upper India, of, at the same time, repeating in the name of the Supreme Government, the well merited encomiums and acknowledgments bestowed by His Excellency on those individuals who specially entitled themselves to the honour of his notice and commendation:

The eminent merits and services of Majors-General Reynell and Nicolls, during the whole course of the operations against Bhurtpore, the excellence of the dispositions made by them for the assault, and the firm undaunted manner in which those dispositions were carried into execution, justly form the theme of the Commander in Chief's applause and admiration; and the Governor-General in Council has already communicated to those distinguished Officers through His Excellency the sentiments of approbation and gratitude with which the Government contemplates their bravery, skill and judgment.

The judicious arrangements, and gallant exertions of Brigadiers-General Adams, C.B., M'Combe, and Edwards, at the head of their brigades; and of Brigadier-General Sleigh commanding the cavalry; as also the zeal, science, courage, and patient endurance of fatigue displayed by Brigadier M'Leod, C.B., Brigadier Anbury, C.B., Captain Irvine, Major of brigade of engineers; with every Officer and private of the artillery, sappers, miners, and pioneer corps, on whom necessarily devolved so large a portion of the most laborious and important duties connected with the siege, have been specially adverted to, and warmly acknowledged by the Right Honourable Lord Combermere. His Excellency has also expressed his cordial thanks to Brigadiers Whitehead, Patton, C.B., and Fagan, of the infantry; Brigadiers Childers and Murray, C.B., of the cavalry; and Brigadiers Sletzer and Brown, of the artillery service; and to Lieutenant-Colonel Delamain, 58th N. I.; Lieutenant-Colonel Wilson, commanding a detachment; Majors Hunter, 41st N. I.; Everard, H. M's. 14th; Fuller, H. M's. 59th; and Bisschopp, H. M's. 14th; they are stated to have performed the duties allotted to them in the ablest manner, and to have taken ample advantage of every opportunity which occurred for signaling their zeal and devotion. The Right

* See London Gazette of 7th October, p. 2407.

Honourable the Governor-General in Council has now to record his full concurrence in the well merited eulogium pronounced by the Commander in Chief, on the services and good conduct of the whole of the above Officers and departments, and to offer to them the expression of his warmest approbation and thanks.

To His Majesty's 14th regiment, commanded by Major Everard, and 59th, commanded by Major Fuller, belongs the proud distinction of having led the column of assault on the memorable 18th of January! the gallantry, order, and steadiness evinced by those corps, was equalled by the conduct of a detachment of the European regiment, leading a small column under Lieutenant-Colonel Wilson. Among the native corps, who emulated the example of their European comrades in arms, and proved themselves worthy of the distinguished places which they held, His Excellency the Commander in Chief has enumerated the following, viz: the 6th regiment N. I. commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Pepper; one wing of the 41st, by Major Hunter; the 23d, by Lieutenant-Colonel Nation; the 31st, by Lieutenant-Colonel Baddely; the 60th, by Lieutenant-Colonel Bowyer; the grenadier company of the 35th, the light company of the 37th, and the Simrore battalion.

The services of Lieutenant-Colonel Skinner, and the two regiments of native irregular cavalry under his command, have been prominently noticed by His Excellency the Commander in Chief; and His Lordship in Council has much satisfaction in adding, that the efficient manner in which that brave and meritorious Officer is stated to have performed every duty entrusted to him during the operations against Bhurt-pore, augments his claim to the favourable consideration and high estimation of the Supreme Government.

The Governor-General in Council has great pleasure in knowing, that the Officers of His Excellency's General and Personal Staff; Major-General Sir S. Whittingham, Quartermaster-General; and Lieutenant-Colonel McGregor, Acting Adjutant-General of the King's troops; Lieutenant-Colonel Watson, and Lieutenant-Colonel Stevenson, Adjutant-General and Quartermaster-General of the Army; Lieutenant-Colonel Cunliffe, Commissary-General; and Lieutenant-Colonel the Honourable J. Finch, Military Secretary, have entitled themselves to the honour of His Excellency's public thanks and acknowledgments. The value of such commendation will be duly appreciated by those several Officers, and will constitute the most grateful reward of their zealous, honourable, and meritorious exertions in the service of their country and of the East India Company.

In testimony of the peculiar honour acquired by the army under the personal command of His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Combermere, during the late campaign to the westward of the Jumna, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to resolve, that all the corps in the service of the Honourable East India Company, whether infantry or cavalry, who were employed at the siege of that celebrated fortress, shall bear on their regimental colours, the word "Bhurt-pore;" and His Lordship in Council will take measures for submitting, through the proper channel, to His Majesty's gracious consideration, that a similar distinction may be granted to His Majesty's regiments.

By command of the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council,

GEO. SWINTON, Secretary to the Government.
