FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1826.

Whitehall, November 3, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that early on the morning of Monday the 17th day of July last, a legal distillery at Corgall-castle, in the parish of Strathdon, in the highlands of Aberdeenshire, was wilfully set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Excise.

Whitehall, November 3, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that in the night of Monday the 30th of October last, or early on the following morning, some person or persons did burglariously and feloniously enter St. George's Chapel, situate in the borough of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester, and did break open and plunder the drawers in the vestry-room adjoining the same, and did sacrilegiously commit sundry depredations in the said chapel;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens of the said borough to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, October 30, 1826.
