Whitehall, November 13, 1826.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that between eleven and twelve o'clock in the night of Sunday the 5th instant, James Forster, a seaman of His Majesty's ship Hyperion, which is stationed on the coast of Sussex for the prevention of smuggling, being on his duty as a sentinel at the Blackhorse-lane, near East Elmer, in the said county, was attacked by a party of men concealed behind a wall, who pelted him with stones, one of which having struck him on the face and brought him to the ground, three of the said party advanced upon him, seized him, dragged him into the lane, and there with a knife cut off part of his right ear, broke two of his fingers, made several stabs at him through his clothes, and attempted to cut his throat, which was prevented by his getting his hand to his pistol and firing an alarm, on which they made off and escaped;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the offenders concerned in this atrocious felony, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious pardon to any one of the said offenders (except those who actually wounded the said James Forster) who shall make known his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended.

ROBERT PEEL.

And as a further encouragement the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and bringing to justice of the said offenders, such reward to be paid on the conviction of any of them by Mr.
Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, No. 3, Spring-garden-terrace, London. J. W. Croker.

Whitehall, November 14, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that on the night of Tuesday the 31st day of October last, the out-houses belonging to Kelland Farm, in the parish of Lapford, in the county of Devon, the property of Mr. Edmund Moon, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set said out-houses on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Edmund Moon to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Marshal's-Office.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I the undersigned, by virtue of two writs of execution, granted by His Honour William Musgrave, Esq. then Acting President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice of the Colony of Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. respectively dated the 30th of May and 22d of June 1826, as also by virtue of a subsequent appointment from the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, bearing date the 2d of August 1826, have, in the suit intitled C. A. Knegt, plaintiff, versus L. F. Gallez, defendant, caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the defendant's, L. F. Gallez's, wood cutting establishment, called Catharinasburg and Fransenburg, situate in Upper Canje, cum annexis, and slaves, together with its cultivation and further appurtenances thereto belonging, an inventory of which is laying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those concerned.

Be it therefore known, that I the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale, and in the usual way and form, after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 15th day of August 1826, the beforenamed wood-cutting establishment, called Catharinasburg and Fransenburg, situate in Upper Canje, cum annexis, and slaves, together with its cultivation and further appurtenances thereto belonging, in order to recover, by execution sale of said property, such sums of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, dated the 20th of December 1817, respecting the sales of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 27th August 1826.

(Signed) K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Thomas Hannam and others are plaintiffs, and George Maddison is defendant, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, who was or were the next of kin of Sarah Oliver, the testatrix in the pleadings named, living at the time of her death, and in case any of them had since died, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, the next of kin of the said Sarah Oliver, late of the Town and County of Newcas-le-upon-Tyne, Widow, deceased (who died some time in or about the year 1779), living at the time of her death, or in case any of them have since died, the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, are by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of December 1826, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, bearing date the 19th day of June 1826, made in the matter of the Rev. Edward Frank, of unsound mind, late of Winthorpe-Hall, in the County of Nottingham, Clerk, whereby it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to inquire and certify whether there were any and what charges and incumbrances affecting the estate of the said Edward Frank and the nature thereof.—All persons claiming to have any charge or incumbrance upon the estate of the said Edward Frank, are by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of December 1826, to come in and prove their said charges and incumbrances before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, bearing date the 19th day of June 1826, made in the matter of the Rev. Edward Frank, of unsound mind, late of Winthorpe-Hall, in the County of Nottingham, Clerk, whereby it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to enquire and certify whether there were any and what debts due and owing by the said Edward Frank, and to whom, both before and since the finding the inquisition in this matter (which inquisition was holden on the 1st day of August 1825, until the 9th day of the same month Sunday excepted), the Creditors of the said Edward Frank are by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of December 1826, to come in and prove their debts before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.
