TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1826.

St. James's, November 27, 1826.

THIS day the following Address of the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, was presented to His Majesty by His Grace the Lord Archbishop, attended by the Right Reverend the Bishops of London, Exeter, and Landaff; Mr. Archdeacon Potts, Dr. Goodenough, the Reverend Dr. D'Oyley, and several other Members; being introduced to the King by Mr. Secretary Canning, in the absence of Mr. Secretary Peel:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Archbishop and Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, humbly offer to your Majesty the assurances of our attachment and inviolable fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The protection which your Majesty has at all times extended to the United Church of England and Ireland, demands our sincerest and warmest acknowledgements.

Grateful for the past, we humbly implore a continuance of the same protecting power; for assuredly, Sir, there never was a period in the history of our Reformed Church, that more urgently required it: whether we direct our attention to the avowed enemies of Christianity, or to those who, professing the faith of Christ, sedulously labour to disparage and degrade the Church, of which your Majesty, under God, is the Head, and which, we confidently maintain, is formed upon the model of the earliest and purest ages of Christianity.

It is our duty, Sir, to vindicate the Establishment in the spirit by which it professes to be governed, with temper, moderation, and firmness, seeking to conciliate those who may be opposed to us, not to exasperate them; to convince, not boastfully to triumph over them. But, Sir, with this understanding of our duty, we cannot dissemble to your Majesty the just apprehensions we entertain of the efforts that are making to arrive at authority and power in the State, dangerous to the existence of the Protestant Constitution of the Country, and leading directly to religious disturbance, animosity, and contention.

But, Sir, whatever be the danger to which the Established Church may be exposed, we have full confidence in your Majesty's protection, and in the wisdom, discretion, and firmness of your Parliament.

We pray God to bless and protect your Majesty.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

" My Lords, and the rest of the Clergy,

" I RECEIVE with great satisfaction this loyal and dutiful Address.

" The renewed assurances of your affectionate attachment to my Person and Government, are most acceptable to me.

" I rely with the utmost confidence upon your zealous exertions to promote true piety and virtue, to reclaim those who are in error by the force of divine truth, and to uphold and extend among my people the preference which is so justly due to the pure Doctrine and service of our Established Church.

" That Church has every claim to my constant support and protection.

" I will watch over its interests with unwearied solicitude, and confidently trust that I shall be enabled, by the blessing of Divine Providence, to maintain it in the full possession of every legitimate privilege."

WHEREAS at a meeting of the Creditors, who had proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Starling Day, Henry Framingham Day, and William Day, late of the City of Norwich, and of Swaffham, in the County of Norfolk, Bankers and Partners, held at the Norfolk Hotel, in the said City of Norwich, on the 22d day of November instant, to authorize and empower the Assignees under the said Commission to adjust and settle with the Trustees of the settlement made on the marriage of the said Henry Framingham Day with Mary his wife the claims made by them on her behalf upon an estate at East and West Bradenham, in the County of Norfolk, comprised in such settlement, and to make a compensation for those claims, and to sell and dispose of the interest of the said Henry Framingham Day (if any) in the same estate to him or to his friends, on his behalf, should he or they be desirous of purchasing the same, or otherwise to any other person or persons. It was the unanimous opinion of the Creditors then and there present, in person or by Attorney, to a very considerable amount, that neither the said Assignees or the said Creditors were entitled in equity to any interest in the said estate at East and West Bradenham in right of the said Henry Framingham Day, or of the said Mary his wife, under the settlement made on their marriage, it appearing to the said meeting to have been the evident intention of the settler of the said estate, that the same should be held and enjoyed by the said Mary, the wife of the said Henry Framingham Day, exclusively for her own sole benefit, independent of the engagements of her husband, and that therefore the said Assignees ought to release the said estate from any claim they might have at law therein or thereto. Notice is therefore hereby given, that another meeting of the said Creditors will be held at the Norfolk Hotel aforesaid, on Wednesday the 20th day of December next, precisely at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to authorize and empower the said Assignees to release to the Trustees under the said settlement any presumed claim on interest which they or the said Creditors might have in the said estate at East and West Bradenham in right of the said Henry Framingham Day on the said Mary his wife, or otherwise, and in the event of the Creditors present dissenting from such proposition then to settle with the said Trustees the claims made by them on the behalf of the said Mary Day upon the said estate, and to make a compensation for those claims, and to release and dispose of the interest of the said Henry Framingham Day (if any) in the same estate to him or to any person in his behalf, and to convey and assure such claims and interest accordingly.
