TUESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1826.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of November 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Tuesday the 12th instant, the preserves of the Right Honourable William Edwardes,

Lord Kensington, situate near Aylsham, in the county of Norfolk, were entered upon by a band of armed men, to the supposed number of fourteen; and that in an attempt which was made by his Lordship's keepers and others to seize these men, two of the said keepers, and also his Lordship's son, the Honourable George Edwardes, were shot and otherwise much maltreated;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired at the said keepers and others) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Lord Kensington to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

RADNORSHIRE LIEUTENANCY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy of the county of Radnor will be holden at the Shire-Hall, in the town of Presteign, in and for the said county, on Friday the 12th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to proceed in the execution of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the militia.

By order of the Lord Lieutenant,
John James, Clerk of the General Meetings.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE MILITIA.

Gloucester, December 22, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an adjourned General Meeting of Lieutenancy for the county of Gloucester, and for the city and county of the city of Gloucester, and for the city and county of the city of Bristol, will be held at the King's Head Inn, in the city of Gloucester, on Tuesday the 9th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-second year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending the laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia," in order to issue precepts to the High Constables, and for the general purposes of the Act.

By order of his Grace the Duke of Beaufort,

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequebo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third times, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of the said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivations, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

Firstly.—In the month of September next, the undivided fourth part of the sugar and coffee plantations La Julousie, Le Bienfait, and the Fellowship, situate on the west coast of this Colony, the property of the estate of Mrs. Ann Waterton, deceased.

Secondly.—In the same month, the west half of the cotton plantation Somerset and Berks, situate on the Arabian coast, Essequebo, the property of William Head.

The judicium of pra and concurrentia on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said parts of above-named plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of the aforesaid United Colony of Demerary and Essequebo, at their Ordinary Session, in the month of December 1827, under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London, and at the Counting-House of P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.—Demerary and Essequebo, this 2d October 1826.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold by auction, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the Court of Chancery for the County Palatine of Lancaster, pursuant to an Order of the said Court, made in a Cause Taylor v. Parker, at the House of Mrs. Wilding, the Eagle and Child Inn, within Bury, in the said County, on Wednesday the 10th day of January 1827, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

Lot 1. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that cotton factory, situate at Lower Chesham, at the end of the Town of Bury aforesaid, together with an extensive lodge or reservoir of water occupied therewith, reserving, nevertheless, to the several purchasers of the three following lots, the privilege of conveying water from such reservoir into lodges or wells by subterraneous passages, for the purpose of supplying steam engines with condensing water, which is afterwards to be returned into the said reservoir, which factory and premises were lately occupied by Richard Kay, but are at present untenanted.

Lot 2. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that plot, piece, or parcel of land, situate on the East side of the said factory, containing in front opposite to the said factory forty-seven yards, and in depth backwards about one hundred and thirty-six yards, with the triangular plot of land, situate on the West end of the said plot of land, which plots contain together seven thousand four hundred and thirty square yards of land, or thereabouts.

Lot 3. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that other plot, piece, or parcel of land, situate on the North side of the last described premises and adjoining thereto, containing in breadth from North to South at the West or front end forty-seven yards, and in depth at the South side one hundred and forty yards, containing in the whole five thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight superficial square yards of land or thereabouts.

Lot 4. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that other plot, piece, or parcel of land, situate on the North side of the last described plot and adjoining thereto, containing in breadth from North to South at the West or front end forty-seven yards, and in depth backwards at the North end one hundred and fifty-two yards, containing in the whole six thousand eight hundred and sixty-six superficial square yards of land or thereabouts.

The above plots of land are very desirably and advantageously situated for the erection of cotton or woollen-manufactories owing to their contiguity to the Town of Bury, and there being a constant supply of excellent condensing water.

Lot 5. All that messuage or dwelling-house with the appurtenances, situate in Stanley-Street, within Bury aforesaid, now in the occupation of Mr. Charles Openshaw, as tenant from year to year, and held by lease, granted by the Rector of Bury aforesaid, for a term of ninety-nine years, of which are unexpired, and are subject to the payment of the yearly rent of £
