FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1826.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of November 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

THOMAS WILLIS, Esq. formerly of Duke-Street, Southwark, who died in October 1790.

December 27, 1826.

ALL legatees, or their representatives, claiming any interests under the will of the aforesaid Thomas Willis, are requested, within three months, from the date hereof, to forward a statement of their respective claims and their rights unto Mr. Palmer, 5, Union-Street, Southwark.

Great Westminster Dairy Company.

THE Committee appointed by the last General Meeting of Proprietors for winding up the affairs of the above Company, hereby declare a dividend of 6s. a share upon the shares on which all three instalments or calls required by the late Directors have been or may be paid. The dividend will be payable on any day after the 1st of January next, between the hours of Eleven and Three, at the Company's Office, 9, Finch-Lane, Cornhill; but Proprietors must leave their certificates of shares at the above Office two days prior to their being enabled to receive their dividends, and such Proprietors as have not executed will then be required to execute the deed of settlement.—Dated the 20th December 1826.

By order of the Committee,
W. WILLIAMS, Accountant, 9, Finch-Lane, Cornhill.

DEMERY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demery and Essequebo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third times, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of the said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivations, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

Firstly.—In the month of September next, the undivided fourth part of the sugar and coffee plantations La Jalousie, Le Bienfait, and the Fellowship, situate on the west coast of this Colony, the property of the estate of Mrs. Ann Waterton, deceased.

Secondly.—In the same month, the west half of the cotton plantation Somerset and Berks, situate on the Arabian coast, Essequebo, the property of William Head.

The judicium of præ and concurrentia on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said parts of above-named plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of the aforesaid United Colony of Demery and Essequebo, at their Ordinary Session, in the month of December 1827, under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London, and at the Counting-House of P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.—Demery and Essequebo, this 2d October 1826.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several causes Ovenden v. Ovenden, and Ovenden v. Ovenden, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on Saturday the 3d day of February 1827, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in three lots;

Valuable leasehold premises, consisting of a dwelling-house, comprising a counting-house, parlour, three rooms over kitchen, wash-house and yard adjoining, several coach-houses and stables, with lofts and dwellings over, a covered shed, and entrance from road through folding gates, on the west a covered ride of 153 feet, and on the east a stable-yard of 134 feet, situate in Fulham-Bridge-Yard, Knightsbridge, now in the occupation of Mr. Billing.

A spacious coach repository, containing a manufactory of four rooms, with a large timber shed and wash-house adjoining, also and extensive wheeler's shed, adjoining is an extensive coach-manufactory, situate in Fulham-Bridge-Yard aforesaid, now in the occupation of Mr. Angus.

Also the premises called the Black Horse-Yard, Chapel-Street, Westminster, comprising a dwelling-house, consisting of a parlour, kitchen, and eight rooms, at the upper end of the yard is a work shed, with two single coach-houses, three stables, with lofts over, and covered ride, now in the occupation of Mr. Hattersley.

The above premises may be viewed by permission of the tenants, and particulars had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Hyde, Solicitor, No. 6, Great Winchester-Street, City; of Messrs. Jones and Son, Solicitors, Millman-Place, Bedford-Row; and of Mr. Roberts, Solicitor, Macclesfield-Street, Soho.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Atkin versus Gilson, the Creditors of Rimington Atkin, late of Wrangle, in the County of Lincoln, Gentleman (who died in the month of May 1825), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by a certain indenture of assignment and release, bearing date the 27th day of November 1826, William George, of Pontnewydd, in the Parish of Trevelin, and County of Monmouth, Victualler, hath assigned, released, and conveyed all and singular his real and personal estate and effects unto Robert Farquhar, of the Town of Pontypool, in the County of Monmouth aforesaid, Esq. John Bellamy, of the Town of Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth aforesaid, Wine-Merchant, and James George, of the said Town of Pontypool, Glazier, in trust, for the benefit of such of his Creditors who shall execute the same; and that the said indenture was executed by the said William George on the day of the date thereof; by the said James George on the 29th day of November last; by the said John Bellamy on the 30th day of November last; and by the said Robert Farquhar on the 1st day of December instant, in the presence of, and attested by, Charles Herbert Croft, of the Town of Pontypool aforesaid, Attorney at Law, at whose Office the same indenture now lies for the signatures of the Creditors.—Dated this 5th day of December 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that John Garn, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Tailor, did by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 23d day of December instant, assign all his estate and effects unto John Milsom and Charles Williams, both of Cheltenham aforesaid, Builders, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said John Garn, who shall sign the same on or before the 1st of March next, which said deed of assignment was duly executed by the said John Garn, and also by the said John Milsom and Charles Williams, in the presence of and attested by Thomas Billings, of Cheltenham aforesaid, Solicitor; notice is also hereby given, that the said assignment is lodged at the Office of Messrs. Walker and Billings, at Cheltenham aforesaid, for the perusal and signature of the said Creditors, and such of them as shall neglect or refuse to execute the same on or before the said 1st day of March next, will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.

NOTICE is hereby given, that George Till, of Snow-Hill, in the City of London, Chemist and Druggist, hath by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 21st day of November 1826, assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever, (save and except any beneficial interest which in right of his wife he might be entitled to under the will of Margaret Pugh, deceased), unto William Minshull the younger, of Snow-Hill aforesaid, and Richard Till, of Castle-Court, Cornhill, in the City of London, Insurance-Broker, their executors, administrators, and assigns upon trust for the benefit of the Creditors of the said George Till, who should become parties to and execute the said indenture as therein mentioned; and that the said indenture was executed by the said George Till on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of and attested by Strafford Spurr, of Lothbury, in the City of London, Solicitor, and by the said William Minshull the younger and Richard Till on the 4th day of December 1826, in the presence of and attested by Thomas Haddan, of Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street, in the said City of London, Solicitor; and further that the said indenture now lies at the Office of Messrs. Gatty, Haddan, Gatty and Haddan, Solicitors, Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street aforesaid, for the signature of the Creditors of the said George Till.—Dated this 28th day of December 1826.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Beckley, of Old Fish-Street, in the City of London, Wine-Merchant (late Partner of James Beckley), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 20th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees at their discretion allowing and discharging all liens upon, or otherwise relinquishing the possession of, the wines and other effects claimed by certain persons, to be named at the meeting, and paying all such duties, dock dues and charges on bonded wines as they the said Assignees may think proper; as also to the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, furniture and other personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, in London, or elsewhere, and through the Agency of the Bankrupt or otherwise, upon such terms and conditions, for credit or ready money as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the rent or rents and taxes in respect of the Bankrupt's late dwelling-house, cellars, and premises; as also to their relinquishing or continuing possession of the said Bankrupt's late premises as they shall think fit; and in the mean time, until such sale or relinquishment, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the said Bankrupt's business by and at the costs of the estate, or discontinuing the same, and to confirm all previous proceedings of the said Assignees in respect to the said business from the date of the Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full out of the said Bankrupt's estate the wages due to the servants or workmen; and also to assent to, confirm, and allow, the several matters and things done by the provisional Assignee and petitioning Creditor under the said Commission; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing unto the petitioning Creditor or his Solicitor the costs and charges of and attending the prosecution of certain meetings and enquiries relating to the said Bankrupt's estate previous to the choice of Assignees; and to confirm, assent to, or dissent from, the appointment by the said Assignees of an accountant or other fit person to investigate and arrange the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt's estate, and collecting the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to their making and paying such accountant, or other person, such allowance for his time, trouble and service as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees incurring the expence of applications, by their attorney, for payment of debts, and enquiring and examining into the nature and particulars of the said Bankrupt's estate and the claims and demands made or to be made thereon, by counsel, before the said Commissioners, or otherwise, in all such cases as the said Assignees shall think fitting and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at their discretion, commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, and presenting any petition or petitions to the Lord Chancellor for his authority, for recovering, getting in, or protecting any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, or the estate and effects of his late partnership; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto respectively; and also upon other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Moyes, of Bouverie-Street, Fleet-Street, in the City of London, Printer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 22d day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such allowance to the said Bankrupt, out of his estate, as the said Assignees may think just and fit, for his attendance and services from the time he passed his last examination up to the present, or such further time as the said Assignees may require the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the costs and expences of the trust deed made between the said Bankrupt and the major part of his Creditors prior to the issuing of the said Commission of Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up and relinquishing to the said Bankrupt his household effects and furniture in and about his dwelling-house, in Doughty-Street, in the County of Middlesex; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relative to his estate and effects; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees acting for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Patrick Kelly, late of Finsbury-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 20th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying a Solicitor's bill of costs, of endeavouring to effect an arrangement of the said Bankrupt's affairs, by taking an assignment of his estate and effects to Trustees for the benefit of his Creditors, and defending a suit in equity, commenced for the foreclosure of part of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the respective tradesmen, whose names will be mentioned at the meeting, who have supplied the School of the said Bankrupt, in Finsbury-Square, with various articles of provisions or other necessaries for the carrying on the said school from Midsummer day last up to Christmas, their bills in fall, the estate of the said Bankrupt having the benefit of the bills becoming due and payable to the said Bankrupt at that time from the parents of the respective scholars; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, either by public sale or private contract, or valuation, or in any such ways and means as they shall think fit, the stock in trade, furniture, and fixtures and other effects on the premises occupied by the said Bankrupt and belonging to him; and generally to authorise and empower the Assignees to act in the said Bankrupt's estate, in such manner, as they shall think most advisable for the general interests of the said Bankrupt's Creditors; and on other special affairs.
