Whitehall, January 4, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that about two o'clock in the morning of the 31st ultimo, two guns, heavily loaded, were fired at the same instant into the cottage house, called Belford North Lodge, in the parish of Belford, in the county of Northumberland, occupied by Robert Briggs, Gamekeeper to William Clark, Esq. of Belford-hall, at different windows; and the contents of one of the said guns lodged in the wall near the fire-place, where Briggs and his wife had been sitting only a few minutes before;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired either of the said guns) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William Clark, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
