

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1827.

At the Court at St. James's, the 20th of November 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, January 12, 1827.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Cooke, of the city of Bristol, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 8, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Saturday the 30th ultimo, a lone barn, at Avon, in the parish of Bremhill, in the county of Wilts, the property of the Marquess of Lansdowne, in the occupation of Mr. John Morris, was wilfully set on fire, and the same, together with a stable and cart-house, was totally consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Nat. Atherton, Esq. of Calne, in the said county, Agent for the Marquess of Lansdowne.

Whitehall, January 10, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of the 16th ultimo, a firing having been heard to proceed from a game cover, belonging to Joseph Legh, Esq. of High Legh, in the county of Chester, Thomas Sothern, gamekeeper of R. E. E. Warburton, Esq. to whom the adjoining manor of Appleton belongs, and his assistants were proceeding towards the said cover, and while in a field in the said manor of Appleton, and endeavouring to apprehend several poachers whom they there saw, the said Thomas Sothern was severely beaten, and Daniel Brooks, one of his assistants, received a gun-shot wound, of which he died;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Joseph Legh and R. E. E. Warburton to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

CONTRACT FOR REMANUFACTURING THE KING'S OLD IRON.

Navy-Office, January 3, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 25th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for taking Old Iron from His Majesty's several Dock-yards, and remanufacturing the same into all or any of the following articles, as demanded, viz.

Boltstaves.

Squares.

Flats.

Short Broads.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office. No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, January 4, 1827.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County,

Northumberland (including the Town of Berwick-on-Tweed);

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties and Island,

Cornwall,	Northumberland (including the Town of Berwick-on-Tweed),
Hants,
Isle of Wight,
Lancaster,
North Britain,	Somerset;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks, and Oats in Cantonments and Quarters, in the undermentioned County,

Warwick;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of February next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before the 31st day of January; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county, except for the counties in North Britain, all of which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of ten and four.

N. B. Samples of the bread and meal may be seen at this Office, between the hours of twelve and two.
