

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 11. to Thursday June 14. 1683.

Moscow, May 2.

ALL things continue quiet here. Next Week the Swedish Envoy parts hence for Stockholm, having finished his Negotiation in this Court to his satisfaction, and the Czars have resolved to send an Extraordinary Ambassador to the King of Sweden, to adjust the differences concerning the Frontiers, which were left undecided by the Commissioners of both Crowns.

Leghorn, May 31. The 26th instant arrived here the Genova Merchant, Captain Appleby Commander, in 18 days from Lisbonne. It is said, the Grand Duke intends to fit out several Gallies very suddenly, to be employed against the Turkish Corsairs, who do infest these Seas. Captain Pieterfon is sailed from hence for Tripoly, to negotiate a Peace between the States General and that Government. It is said, That the French Fleet under the command of Monsieur du Quesne, is gone for A'giers.

From the Imperial Camp near Comorra, June 3. The 28th past the Duke of Lorraine marched with in sight of Gran, with 8000 Horse, 4000 Foot, all the Dragoons and 8 Pieces of Cannon, and finding the Turks so advantageously Posted upon an Eminence near that place, that he could not without great hazard attack them, returned hither again, and as is said has given Orders for the Cavalry to pass the Danube to morrow, in order to invest Newbusei, two Leagues from hence; All the Army is preparing for the Siege, and it is hoped his Highness, by means of his great Ordnance and Bombs, will in a short time be Master of the place. Count Teckelej is still Encamped near Tockay, declining to joyn his Troops with those of the Turks. We have advice by a Deserter, who is fled to the Imperial Camp from Buda, That the Grand Vizier had not, as yet passed the River Drave, That his Army was extremely harassed and weakened, by reason of the long Marches they have been obliged to make; and that the Vizier of Buda was very advantageously Posted between Gran and Buda, where he had a Bridge of Boats for the passage of the Turkish Troops.

Presbourg, June 1. The Vizier of Buda has sent Orders to Count Teckely to joyn the Tatars, which are on their march to Hungary, by the way of Transylvania; wherein it is not doubted but he will be prevented by General Schutz, who is posted near Transbin and will be reinforced with the 6000 Poles, which the Prince of Lubomirsky is bringing into the Emperor's service. We are told, That he has taken possession of the County of Arwa in his Imperial Majesties name, and that the Nobility thereof are joyned with him. Our advices from the Imperial Camp say, That a Body of 15000 Turks are posted near Gran. And it is reported, That the Vizier of Buda had sent to acquaint the Duke of Lorraine, That the Grand Signior was resolved to observe the Peace until its due expiration; but that his Highness had returned answer, That the Turks had long ago broke it, as well by their open assisting of the Rebel; as by several places of importance belonging to the Empire.

Vienna, June 6. The three Princes of Newbourg have been taken very ill upon their return from Italy, and on Friday last Prince Wolfgang, who was Canon of Bresslaw, dyed at Newstadt. The first Instant the Duke of Lorraine returned to his Camp near Comorra, not having been able to remove the Turks from the advantageous Post they had taken near Gran, whither the Vizier of Buda and the Bassa of Waradin had sent a considerable number of Troops to reinforce the Garrison. The fourth Instant the Imperial Army passed the Danube. The Duke of Lorraine has sent out a considerable Party to attempt the burning of the Bridge of Gran. The Count de Serin, Governor of Zatmar, being arrived here from Hungary, is gone to attend the Emperor at Luxembourg. Yesterday arrived here an Express with Letters from the Baron de Saponara, who is employed by the Emperor to Count Teckelej.

Copenhagen, June 11. The Heer Guldenlieu is returned to his Government of Norway, to observe the motions of the Swedes on that side, who, as our Letters from Stockholm say, are bringing together a Body of 10000 men on that Frontier; and use all possible diligence in fitting out their Fleet to Sea, which, according to our advices from Calmar, will consist of 30 Men of War.

Brussels, June 12. On Sunday next his Excellency intends to go and view the Camp which is forming at Pieton. The French Cavalry which were Quartered near Markion decamped the eighth Instant, and are now Posted near Bouchain. The States of Hainault have received Orders from his Excellency to repair the Ways between the Sambre and the Meuse. The French intend to have a Camp at la Buchierre, to observe the design of that which our Governor has formed at Pieton. On Saturday last the Dutchess of Bouillon arrived here from France, and yesterday parted hence for Holland. All things are as yet very quiet in these parts. The Duke de Havre and the Count de Vervain are returned hither from Flanders, whither his Excellency sent them to renew the Magistrates of the several Towns in that Province. The Magistrates of Antwerp have not as yet consented to the continuation of the Taxes demanded by his Excellency.

Brussels, June 15. Sunday last being the Emperor's Birth-day, his Excellency entertained the Court with a most magnificent Supper and Ball. Yesterday the Lord Lansdown parted from hence towards Hungary, with a very noble Equipage, having been very well received by his Excellency, and Complimented by all the Generals and the Nobility bility here, and particularly by the Duke of Havre, who accompanied his Lordship as far as Vilvord. The Prince of Vaudemont is gone to the Camp at Pieton, where the Cavalry and Dragoons will arrive as this day. The States of Flanders have not taken any Resolution upon the Demand made unto them by his Excellency of the next years Subsidies: This Week the Duke de Havre goes to Mons, to make the like Demand to the States of Hainault, who are now assembled there. We hear nothing as yet of any motion of the French Troops.

Brussels, June 19. This day Saxedo's Regiment of Dragoons marched from hence to the Camp at Pieton: His Excellency's Guards, who were also ordered to march thither, are commanded to stay here till his Excellency's departure, which, as is said, will be on Sunday next. His Excellency intends to pass through Mons, and adjust the next Years Subsidies with the States of Hainault, and after having stay'd two or three days at the Camp, to return hither about the end of the Week. The Letters from Vienna say, That the Duke of Lorraine, after having view'd in Person the City of Gran, and observed 15000 Turks to be Intrenched upon the CounterCarps, was returned to the Camp near Comorra, from whence he had sent a great Detachment to invest Newheusel, upon the advice he received, That the Bassa of that place was abroad with a considerable part of that Garrison, which gave him great hopes of being soon Master of it. Yesterday a great Council of War was held at the Palace, at which Don Balibazar de Fuen Mayor the Spanish Minister at the Hague, assisted. The Letters from the Frontiers say, That the French Troops in Luxembourg and the County of Chimay increase daily.

Ghent, June 20. The Regiments of Perez and Vander Pict, consisting of 450 Dragoons, are marched from Aeth to the Camp at Pieton, whither the Prince de Rasche, our Majistre de Camp General, has caused a great quantity of Straw and other Provisions to be sent for the use of the Soldiers.

Hague, June 17. Yesterday the Prince of Orange returned hither from Amsterdam, whither he went to hasten the Ships that are fitting out by the Admiralty of North-holland, as well as to visit those of Amsterdam which have already passed the Pampus. The Heer Van Somersbeck having adjusted all matters with the East-India Company of these Provinces, will part the next Month for Surinam, of which place he is appointed Governor. The Pensioner Fagel is gone to his house at Leuvenborst, for the further Confirmation of his Health. The States-General have sent two of their Deputies to visit the Garrison and Fortifications of Mestricht. Yesterday Prince Cassimir of Nassau arrived here from Frizeland.

Marseilles, June 9. We have advice by a Bark arriv'd here from Alicant, That the Chevalier de Lery has lately taken a Vessel of Algiers, mounted with 18 Guns and 150 Men, amongst which were several Captives, whom he immediately caused to be set at Liberty. The Marquis d'Amfreville has sunk a Vessel belonging to those Corsairs, and retaken another Laden with Marble, which they were carrying to Argiers, where we are told the Sieur de Sestemme is arriv'd with five Men of War: The Letters add, That the Plague was again broke out there, and that there being a great want of Provisions in the place, very many of the Inhabitants were retired with their Goods and Families into the Country. We have advice from Barcelona, That Monsieur du Quefne was lately seen with the Ships under his Command in those Seas, continuing his Course for Argiers.

Paris, June 19. The 7 Infant their Most Christian Majesties arriv'd at Bellegarde from Dijon and presently after the King mounted on Horseback and went to view the Camp upon the Soane, where he found the Dauphin as General at the Head of the Troops, which consisted in 11500 Men. The eighth his Majesty went again to the Camp, as he did likewise the 9th and 10th, and took a review of each particular Company. The same day the Marquis Dogliani, Captain of the Duke of Savoy's Guards, had his Audience, being sent by that Duke to Compliment their most Christian Majesties upon their arrival in these parts. The 15th Instant the Court intended to remove from Bellegarde, to lodge that night at Dole, and to be the next day at Bezancon.

Westminster, June 12. This day the Court of Kings Bench unanimously gave Judgment for the King upon the Quo Warranto against the City of London, That the Franchises and Liberties of the said City be seized into the King's hands.

Advertisements.

These are to give Notice, That a Mineral Bath is setting up, according to an agreement made with Sir William Jennings, (who has His Majesties Letters Patents for all Bagnios and Baths) near the West end of Long-Acre, and that the same will be opened before Midsummer: There will be likewise a Spaw for Mineral Waters to Drink, concerning the Vertues of both which a Book is now Published by Dr. Haworth, and Sold by Sam Smith, at the Prince's Arms in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The Herfordshire Annual Feast will be kept at Merchant Taylors-hall on Tuesday the third of July next, and all Gentlemen may be supplied with Tickers at Mr. James Wellingtons at the three Crowns within Aldgate, at Mr. Paul Kerrys at the Feathers Tavern in Cheapside at Mr. Charles Harpers at the Flower-de-Luce over against St Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, at Mr. Duppa's at the three Cups against Turn-Steile in Holborn, and at Mr. James Proberts at the Rain-bow Coffee-house at the end of St. Martins-Lane near Charing-Cross.

The Libraries of Mr. Daniel Rogers, some time Rector of Havertham, and others, will be exposed to Sale by way of Auction the 21 of this Instant June, containing variety of Books in Divinity, History, &c. at Jonathan's Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley in Cornhill, where the Catalogues are given gratis, and at Mr. Norris in the Pall-Mall, Mr. Chr. Wilkinsons at the Black Boy in Fleet-street, at Mr. N. Ponders at the Peacock in the Poultry, Mr. Hicks in Cambridge, Book-sellers, and at Mr. Crutendens near the Theater in Oxon.

ON Wednesday the sixth Instant, one Ann Griffith, a tall Maid, long thin Visaged, black hair, swarthy Complexion, very lank, having no Hips, being said to be a Butchers Daughter of Dembeigh-hire near Rexham: she speaks much Welch, went away from Mr. Holland of Gerards-hall in Basing-Lane, and took with her a considerable Sum of Money. Whoever gives notice of her to Mr. Holland aforesaid, so as he be apprehended, shall have five Pounds Reward.

STolen or Strayed on the ninth Instant, out of Mr. Paterfons Ground, near Panckridge Church, a sorrel Gelding, 15 hands high, full of grey hairs, about nine years old, with a star in his Forehead, a snip on his Nose, and a Wren on the near side of his Belly, about the bigness of a small Wall-nut, and a Eob Tail. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Allen, Porter at the Mews-Gate, or to Mr. Paterfon at the King's Arms in Newgate-street, shall have 40 s. Reward.