TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder and Town Clerk of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder and Town Clerk of the ancient Borough of New Windsor, most respectfully beg to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt expressions of condolence on the universally lamented decease of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

The severe loss which your Majesty and the Members of your Royal Family so deeply deplore, and which the people of your Majesty's dominions justly regard as a great national calamity, is felt by us with peculiar force. His Royal Highness, as High Steward of this ancient corporation, condescended to take an especial interest in the prosperity, and rendered his support to the charitable institutions of the borough of Windsor, and we, therefore, grieve, not only with your Majesty's subjects in general, for the decease of a Prince so beloved for his public and private virtues, but we feel that we in particular have lost a zealous patron and benefactor, who partaking your Majesty's solicitude for the universal prosperity of these realms, united also with your Majesty in bestowing a fostering regard upon the residence of your Royal Ancestors, and upon the individuals who have the happiness to dwell around this favoured seat of your Majesty and your illustrious Family.

We beg to assure your Majesty that we sympathize most deeply in the great calamity which has befallen your Majesty and the Nation; but we look for consolation to that Divine Power who gives and who takes away. Amongst the feelings which filled our hearts on the late mournful occasion, when your Majesty permitted us to pay the last sad tribute of respect to the memory of your illustrious Brother, our humble prayers were offered to the Great Bestower of good, for the continued prosperity of your Majesty's reign, and that your Majesty may be long preserved, to receive the homage and gratitude of your admiring and affectionate people.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, at the Guildhall, in the said Borough, this 22d day of January, in the year of our Lord 1827.

John Voules, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Vicar, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, presume to offer to your Majesty the humble and sincere expression of our sorrow on the occasion of the domestic and public loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained.

Under the heavy and afflicting dispensation of Providence, which has severed the most unreserved and exemplary fraternal affection, it is our prayer that your Majesty may receive heavenly consolation. We ourselves by the same event, suffering a national calamity, mourn deeply the loss of an illustrious Prince, near to the Throne and dear to the people, whose unceasing energy and impartial administration have so long happily directed the military force of the empire, and contributed so eminently to its glory and its power. We feelingly lament the loss of a Prince who was ever the patron of the deserving, the advocate of the distressed, the friend of the friendless, and whose general and active benevolence was adorned and endeared by universal gentleness and condescension.

Your Majesty, seeking for support under this affliction in the principles and hopes of religion, will not fail to derive from other sources reflections of a peaceful and consoling nature, and even from that unaffected sympathy of every class of your subjects with the sorrow of their Sovereign, which springs from a devoted regard to your Majesty's Person, as well as from feelings of admiration and regret. And now, when we venture to offer the humble expression of our heartfelt sorrow and faithful attachment, we feel assured that your Majesty will receive with gracious kindness and mournful satisfaction, the willing tribute of our affectionate grief and respect.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Brighthelmston, beg leave to lay at your Majesty's feet, the dutiful expression of our condolence on the lamented decease of His Royal Highness the late Duke of York, by which your Majesty has sustained the loss of a most affectionate brother, the country of one of its brightest ornaments and most faithful adherents to the principles of the British Constitution in Church and State.

On the behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town of Brighthelmston,

Thomas West, High Constable.

[Transmitted by the High Constable.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Alderman and Burgesses of the Town or Borough of Grantham, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majesty, and to all the branches of the Royal Family, our most deep regret and sincere condolence on the lamented death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, His Royal Highness Prince Frederick Duke of York and Albany, Field Marshal, and Commander in Chief of all your Majesty's land forces.

The unremitting attention of his late Royal Highness to the duties of that important station, and his impartiality in performing them, will long be held in remembrance, and will cause his death to be deplored by the country in general, and especially by the army, as a great public calamity.

We humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty of our unabated attachment to your Royal Person, and to the Government under the mild auspices of your Majesty.

Dated in open Court, the 11th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1827.

By the Court, Ostler, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Rutland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and principal Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough and Town of Weymouth, and Melcombe Regis, most humbly beg to address your Majesty, and to express how deeply and sincerely we feel the great and painful affliction which your Majesty and your august Family must experience by the death of that most excellent and ever-to-be-lamented Prince, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, your Majesty's truly affectionate and beloved Brother.

That whilst we lament and mourn, in common with the whole of your Majesty's faithful subjects, the severe and irreparable loss that has, by Providential decree, befallen us, we have the melancholy, but consolatory, recollection that His Royal Highness has left behind him a memory embalmed in every British heart.

If we trace his brilliant career through every situation of life, we cannot but deeply feel that your Majesty and the Royal Family have to deplore the loss of a kind and affectionate relative; the nation a beneficent and condescending Prince; the public institutions a kind and fostering friend; the soldier a father and protector; the widow and orphan their principal support; the army a most efficient, honest, and upright Commander in Chief; and Protestant England a firm defender of her faith.

We most sincerely sympathize and condole with your Majesty and your illustrious House, together with the whole British Nation, in their affliction under this most melancholy bereavement.

Given under our common seal, at the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis aforesaid, this 16th day of January 1827.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 5th, 6th, and 7th of February, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 8th, 9th, 12th, 13th, and 14th of February, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said

Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards, where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st December last, will commence paying on the 5th February next; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 7th February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of more than nine Proprietors, agreeably to the following letter, received this day, viz.

"To the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

"We, the undersigned Proprietors of India Stock, duly qualified, request that a Court of Proprietors may soon be called, to which it is our intention to submit the following Propositions:

"1st. To deliberate on the present state of the Oriental education, connected with the absolute necessity for the whole of the Company's servants in Hindoostan to acquire at least some colloquial knowledge of its popular tongue.

"2d. To determine whether the elementary acquisition of Hindoostanee in this country be not indispensable to candidates for official appointments previous to their nomination by the Court of Directors, in order so far to secure the future good government of British India, and the durable prosperity of that vast empire.

"3d. To decide also on the propriety of the proposed preliminary qualification for free merchants, mariners, and others, before granting them a licence to reside among a hundred millions of native subjects, in daily contact with those European inhabitants, who in general know nothing of the Hindoostanee, and consequently may injuriously impede, through the multifarious transactions of public or private life, not only the local Authorities, but the common weal of the People and State.

"4th. For a copy of the regulations issued by the Court of Directors relative to the public examinations at home or abroad of persons intended for the Company's service in India, on their respective acquirements as Oriental scholars with the view of securing efficient servants for the effectual management of numerous important affairs in our extensive and extending domains in the East.

"5th. To compare the real expence of the two systems of Oriental tuition existing here since 1818, with the notorious disproportionate results of each, the total charge of one mode of Oriental instruction alone having amounted to £64,000 for 560 students, while that of the other was only £4,000, for communicating similar information to 1,600 pupils, at the Hindoostanee and Persian Lecture-rooms in London, many of whom are now not only very useful Interpreters; &c., but a capable and ready to execute other responsible functions in the East Indian service.

"6th. To recommend the adoption of some plan here for the immediate encouragement of appropriate military education and Oriental literature, with colloquial proficiency among the King's Officers, the Company's Cavalry, and Infantry Cadets, &c., to the serious attention of the Executive Court, which has done nothing yet to enable those youths to proceed hence as Officers or Linguists to India, well qualified to command numerous bodies of brave men, by speaking the most current local dialect, and being at the same time as well instructed as the engineer and artillery students have long been at Addescombe, in those arts of war and tactical exercises inseparable from the due performance of their respective duties in the Indian army."
