

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder and Town Clerk of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder and Town Clerk of the ancient Borough of New Windsor, most respectfully beg to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt expressions of condolence on the universally lamented decease of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

The severe loss which your Majesty and the Members of your Royal Family so deeply deplore, and which the people of your Majesty's dominions justly regard as a great national calamity, is felt by us with peculiar force. His Royal Highness, as High Steward of this ancient corporation, condescended to take an especial interest in the prosperity, and rendered his support to the charitable institutions of the borough of Windsor, and we, therefore, grieve, not only with your Majesty's subjects in general, for the decease of a Prince so beloved for his public and private virtues, but we feel that we in particular have lost a zealous patron and benefactor, who partaking your Majesty's solicitude for the universal prosperity of these realms, united also with your Majesty in bestowing a fostering regard upon the residence of your Royal Ancestors, and upon the individuals who have the happiness to dwell around this favoured seat of your Majesty and your illustrious Family.

We beg to assure your Majesty that we sympathize most deeply in the great calamity which has befallen your Majesty and the Nation; but we look for consolation to that Divine Power who gives and who takes away. Amongst the feelings which filled our hearts on the late mournful occasion, when your Majesty permitted us to pay the last sad tribute of respect to the memory of your illustrious Brother, our humble prayers were offered to the Great Bestower of good, for the continued prosperity of your Majesty's reign, and that your Majesty may be long preserved, to receive the homage and gratitude of your admiring and affectionate people.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, at the Guildhall, in the said Borough, this 22d day of January, in the year of our Lord 1827.

John Voules, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Vicar, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, presume to offer to your Majesty the humble and sincere expression of our sorrow on the occasion of the domestic and public loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained.

Under the heavy and afflicting dispensation of Providence, which has severed the most unreserved and exemplary fraternal affection, it is our prayer that your Majesty may receive heavenly consolation. We ourselves by the same event, suffering a national calamity, mourn deeply the loss of an illustrious Prince, near to the Throne and dear to the people, whose unceasing energy and impartial administration have so long happily directed the military force of the empire, and contributed so eminently to its glory and its power. We feelingly lament the loss of a Prince who was ever the patron of the deserving, the advocate of the distressed, the friend of the friendless, and whose general and active benevolence was adorned and endeared by universal gentleness and condescension.

Your Majesty, seeking for support under this affliction in the principles and hopes of religion, will not fail to derive from other sources reflections of a peaceful and consoling nature, and even from that unaffected sympathy of every class of your subjects with the sorrow of their Sovereign, which springs