TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boston, in Common Hall assembled, most humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty has sustained, by the lamented death of His Royal Highness the late Duke of York.

It is impossible we should experience the poignancy of that private grief which now rends your Majesty's heart, but there are other feelings which have been found to link in one common bond of indissoluble union the hearts of all ranks of men.

By such feelings we were ourselves proudly united to his lamented Royal Highness, and it is therefore with deep and unfeigned sorrow we now condole with your Majesty, upon an event which has deprived the nation of the services of one who, by his unremitting endeavours to promote those objects of benevolence and public utility, which are the pride and glory of England, has merited and secured the praise of his country, and especially that the army has lost a Commander in Chief, who, by his constant attention to the discipline of the service, and the comforts of the soldier, has, in an unparalleled degree, raised the character of the British arms ; we, therefore, presume to range ourselves as fellow mourners with your Majesty round the tomb of a Prince, whose unshaken attachment to our excellent Constitution, as now established in Church and State, has obtained our deepest veneration and regard.

That the Almighty may extend to your Majesty the blessings of a long, happy, and prosperous reign, and that He may guard with his ever watchful providence that Throne which your Majesty's illustrious House has filled with so much advantage to this great nation is the constant and sincere prayer of your Majesty's firmly and faithfully attached subjects.

Given under our common seal at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 25th day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1827.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Brownlow, Recorder of the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley, approach your Majesty's Sacred Person with sentiments of the profoundest sorrow, yet with an earnest and humble desire, at this season of national sympathy, to pour into your Majesty's royal breast the balm of consolation : an homage, alike due to your Majesty, and to the late beloved Prince, whose lamented death is the mournful cause of this cordial Address. In that august personage, you, Sire, possessed an affectionate Brother, and the United Kingdom an able martial defender, a humane patron of its various charitable institutions, and a liberal promoter of its useful and elegant arts.

In common, then, with your Majesty, and with all our faithful fellow-subjects, as we sincerely join in deploring our loss, we presume on being permitted thus to express our grief.

Accustomed, aforesaid, when glory awaited your Majesty's arms, to rejoice with our patriotic Sovereign, who then rejoiced with his people ; we cannot now refrain from weeping with all the Members of your Majesty's Royal House, who weep, as most affectionate, and the most afflicted mourners, under this severe dispensation.

Still, with our deep condolence, we at the same time renew our warm assurances of firm attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and fervently supplicate from above, that consolation for your Majesty, which is alone adequate to sustain, under such trying visitations.

Signed in behalf of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley.
John Roberts, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Southampton and its Neighbourhood, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our sincere condolence for the loss your Majesty has sustained by the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

We are deeply sensible that your Majesty has been deprived of an attached Brother; that the Nation has lost a Prince who, at all times, in promoting every object of benevolence and public utility, and by his urbanity of manners, gained the affections of all ranks of your people; that the army has lost a Commander-in-Chief who, while he attended to the discipline of the service, increased the comforts of the soldier, and maintained the high character of the British army in every part of the world.

We beg to assure your Majesty of the unalterable attachment of this your loyal and ancient town to your Majesty and your august House.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Magistrates of Towns of the County of Ayr, assembled at Ayr on Saturday the 27th day of January 1827.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Magistrates of Towns of the County of Ayr, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, and with feelings of the deepest sensibility, to offer our most heartfelt condolence on the melancholy event of the death of His late Royal Highness the illustrious and revered Duke of York.

We deeply feel that in him your Majesty has lost a beloved brother, an affectionate friend, and a faithful subject; the nation a most upright patriot, and the army its brightest ornament, its best friend and protector, who gave to it, as it were, a new existence, by studying the comfort, improving the condition, and raising the character of the soldier, by giving to the officer protection and security of justice, and to the whole that moral character which has rendered it the safeguard of the Throne, and the protection of the liberties and privileges of the people.

The deep and affectionate sorrow with which this event has been felt and mourned by the whole British nation, the strong sense which is universally entertained of the Royal Duke's inestimable services, will, we are persuaded, be the most acceptable tribute to your Majesty, and that your heart will fully appreciate the unaffected attachment to yourself, and your august Family which it so feelingly demonstrates.

We devoutly pray that your Majesty may long be preserved to your people in the enjoyment of health and happiness, and every worldly blessing. Your Royal beneficence to those of your subjects, who of late have suffered privations from want of employment, has raised in them every emotion of gratitude, and united every heart, and raised every voice in praise of their august and feeling benefactor.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment at Ayr, on Saturday the 27th day of January, 1827.

Glasgow, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Glasgow.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Kincardine, in General Meeting assembled, beg to approach your Majesty to express the grief and sorrow with which our minds are impressed by the melancholy event of the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, an event which has deprived your Majesty of a beloved brother, and the nation of services, which, by raising the army to a high pitch of discipline, efficiency, and order, have led to that glorious career of victory which has acquired for this empire that high eminence among other nations, reflecting the greatest lustre on the British name.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that we lament this severe dispensation, not only as a deep affliction to your Majesty, but as an event most calamitous to the nation at large. Beloved and respected by your Majesty's subjects for his condescension, urbanity of manners and kindness of heart, and adored by the army as the patron of merit, and the soldier's friend, His Royal Highness' memory will remain embalmed in the recollection of the British Nation.

We beg to convey to your Majesty our most sincere condolence on this mournful occasion, and sincerely pray that the Almighty may support and protect your Majesty under the pressure of this great calamity.

We embrace this opportunity of conveying to your Majesty the renewed expression of our sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty and your illustrious House.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, by the Viscount of Arbutnott, the Preses of our Meeting, at Stonehaven, the 30th January 1827.

Arbutnott.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Liberties of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, in Common Hall assembled, humbly beg permission to approach your Majesty, most sincerely to offer our heartfelt condolence on the melancholy loss which we have sustained by the death of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

We pay this tribute of homage at the foot of your Majesty's Throne, in the full reliance, that, as loyal British subjects, we are presenting such sentiments as will be agreeable to your Majesty, and the august Family of our late deceased Prince, who was the soldier's friend, and the firm supporter of our civil and religious liberties, in accordance with the spirit of our excellent Constitution, and the paternal care of your Majesty's supreme authority.

These considerations lead us humbly to pray, that your Majesty may long live to cherish these blessings, which have, under Divine Providence, brought this country to so high a state of glory, and that your Majesty's Councils may direct that we should hand those blessings pure and unspotted down to posterity.

Dated and signed on behalf of this Common Hall, the 31st day of January 1827.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town, Lordship, and Manor of Roscrea, convened in the Town Hall; humbly participating in your Majesty's grief for the much lamented death of your Royal Brother, the late Duke of York, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of unfeigned sorrow, for the deplorable loss sustained by your Majesty and the Nation at large, in this afflicting dispensation of Providence; and we pray that your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Throne of these Realms, and to reign in the hearts of a loyal and devoted people,

Signed by the Provost, in name and by the appointment of the Council, and sealed with the Town's seal at Ayr, the 24th day of January 1827.

Quintin Kennedy, Provost of Ayr.

[Transmitted by T. F. Kennedy, Esq. M. P.]

To His Most Gracious Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful subjects, the Master, Assistants, and Corporation of the Trinity-House of Leith, assembled in a General Meeting, specially called this day, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, and most sincerely to lament the irreparable bereavement which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained in the death of His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany.

The high station among the Nations to which, by the blessing of Providence, Great Britain has, under your Majesty's Government, decidedly attained, may in a great measure be attributed to the perfection to which the British army has been brought under the fostering care of the late Commander-in-Chief. The loss of His Royal Highness is, therefore, the more to be deplored, and his memory will be cherished and revered by all who have the welfare and glory of their country at heart.

Permit us, Sire, humbly to offer to your Majesty our tribute of condolence, and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and illustrious Family.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, within the Trinity House, Leith, this 31st day of January 1827 years, and the seal of the Corporation affixed thereto, by, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's devoted subject, James Duncan, Master.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, in Common Council assembled, beg to offer our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty has sustained by the demise of your illustrious Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany; an event which has spread a gloom over the whole nation, to whom His Royal Highness was so justly endeared, while, by your Majesty's army, the late Commander-in-Chief was no less beloved; than he is now lamented and honoured. The advancement of their welfare, the high state of their discipline, and their unrivalled appointment, expressly proclaim that the duties of his arduous office were the unceasing and successful labours of his invaluable life.

We cannot, on this melancholy occasion, abstain from expressing to your Majesty the profound gratitude with which, in common with millions of our fellow subjects, we venerate the memory of your illustrious brother, for his steady and uncompromising advocacy of those constitutional principles which established the Princes of your august House on the Throne of these Realms.

With undissembled sympathy in the great national calamity, which has visited your Majesty with so heavy affliction, we earnestly implore the King of kings to afford you, Sire, such effectual consolation as He alone can bestow, and that by His Almighty protection, your Majesty may long continue to sway the sceptre of these kingdoms, under whose auspicious rule they have attained unexampled renown.

Given under our common seal the 27th day of January 1827.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, beg leave to approach your Majesty with expressions of our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the irreparable loss which your Majesty and the Royal Family have recently sustained by the demise of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

We cannot, Sire, but be deeply sensible of the extensive obligations which this Nation owes to His late Royal Highness, when we contemplate the valuable services he has rendered to the public, during many years of an active life, engaged in the important duty of superintending and directing the military force of the country; we have seen that His Royal Highness, by the strict justice and impartiality of his administration, by his unremitting attention to the personal comfort and moral character of the soldier, has raised the British army to that exalted state of energy and discipline, by which it is so pre-eminently distinguished in every quarter of the Globe.

Neither was he less conspicuous in his high station by a suavity of manner, which rendered him easy of access to all, and by a kindness of heart which was evinced in an especial degree by his zealous support of those charitable institutions destined to alleviate the calamities of human life; while the whole tenour of his public conduct was guided by a firm and undeviating sense of duty, displaying on all occasions a steadfast and sincere attachment to those constitutional principles, in Church and State, which placed your Majesty's Royal House on the Throne of these Realms.

Under the afflicting dispensation of Providence which has thus deprived your Majesty of a most affectionate brother and a most faithful friend, an essential source of consolation will be afforded to your Majesty's mind, in the reflection, that the name and character of a Prince, so justly endeared to your Majesty by his numerous virtues, will find an imperishable memorial in the hearts of a grateful and loyal people.

Signed in the name and on the behalf of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln. George Manners, Sheriff.

Whilst we sincerely sympathize with the deep feeling of affliction which the loss of a dutiful and affectionate Brother has inflicted on your Majesty, we humbly beg to assure your Majesty, that we, in common with all your subjects, deplore a calamity which has deprived the nation of that illustrious person, who had acquired the esteem, and commanded the gratitude of the public at large, by the able and zealous discharge of those important duties intrusted to him by your Majesty, as well as by the kind and affable manner in which, for years, he had condescended to receive all your Majesty's subjects who had occasion to communicate with him in the high official station of Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's forces.

Signed by the Preses of the meeting in their name, and by their appointment, Elcho, Preses and Vice-Lieutenant.

Given under our common seal, this 31st day of January 1827. R. R. Garmston, Mayor.
