

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1827.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 16, 1827.

ORDERS for the Courts change of mourning, on Thursday next the 22d instant, for His late Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany, His Majesty's next Brother, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, black or white shoes, fans and tippets, white necklaces and ear-rings.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning further on Thursday the 15th of March next, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets.

The Gentlemen to continue in black, full trimmed, and to wear coloured swords and buckles.

And on Thursday the 5th of April next, the Court to go out of mourning.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks, humbly approach the Throne, to tender most respectfully to your Majesty the unfeigned expression of our condolence on the decease of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, an event which has plunged your Majesty's Royal Family and the Nation at large into the deepest distress and mourning.

May the Arm of Omnipotence support your Magesty under this great and trying calamity, and may the Almighty Disposer of Events long continue to the British Empire the mild and paternal reign of your Majesty, and long grant to your Majesty the happiness of ruling over a prosperous, a grateful, and an affectionate people.

Given under our comon seal, at a Court of Common Council, the 31st day of January, in the eighth year of your Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in, Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Town of Beverley, at this time of general affliction, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne, to condole and sympathize with your Majesty and the Royal Family on the visitation of Providence, which has taken from your Majesty, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, a Brother to whom your Majesty was attached by the strongest ties of affection.

We would convey to your Majesty our deepfelt sorrow, and mingle our poignant grief with the country at large, for the loss the Nation has sustained in the death of the Heir Presumptive to your Majesty's Crown and Dominions.

We deplore the loss that has befallen the British army, in the demise of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, as Commander-in-Chief, whose well digested, progressive, and salutary regulations, have not only improved the moral condition of the soldier, so as to render him at all times a good citizen, but also ameliorated the hardships inseparable from a soldier's life.

Given under our common seal, at Beverley aforesaid, the 24th day of January, in the seventh year of your Majesty's reign.

T. Arden, Mayor.

[Transmitted by John Stewart, Esq., M.P., and Charles Harrison Batley, Esq., M.P. for the Borough.]