IT is the intention of His Majesty and that of the Royal Family, to continue their mourning for His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany during the space of six months; but it is not expected or desired, that other persons should appear in mourning, except at Court, after the expiration of six weeks from the day of His late Royal Highness's demise.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Right Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens, and other Office Bearers and Members of the Lodge Saint Regulus of Free and Accepted Masons, Cupar Fife, in a General Meeting assembled.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lodge Saint Regulus of Cupar Fife, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, to offer our most heartfelt and sincere tribute of condolence and sympathy on the lamented and melancholy occasion of the demise of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, &c. &c. &c.

We have learned with the most poignant grief the afflicting intelligence of this great calamity which has befallen your Majesty's illustrious House and the Nation at large, in the inscrutable dispensation of Divine Providence.

The distinguished talents of His Royal Highness, as exemplified in the zeal and impartiality with which he discharged the important duties of his exalted official station, will be long remembered, and sincerely acknowledged, and his unremitting, arduous and successful exertions to improve and perfect the discipline of the British army, it is impossible too highly to appreciate; while we recollect this, as well as the kindness and affection of His Royal Highness to all with whom he was connected in the secular matters of life, we shall have presented to us materials forming the subject of a record of ever grateful recollection, and which will transmit the memory of His Royal Highness to posterity as one of the most brave, benevolent, humane, and illustrious of Princes.

Subscribed by the Right Worshipful Master, in name and on behalf of the said Lodge Saint Regulus, place and date foresaid, the official Seal of the Lodge being attached hereto.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, and its vicinity, beg leave deeply to sympathize in the grief felt by your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Nation at large, for the loss sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, Commander-in-Chief, whose just impartiality upheld the honour of the service, and whose conduct as a Prince was in the highest degree illustrative of his manly and sincere principles, and his uncompromising attachment to the Protestant Religion, and to the British Constitution.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

THE Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty their dutiful and respectful condolence on the loss which your Majesty and this Nation have sustained by the death of your Royal Brother, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, and to sympathize in the universal feelings of unfeigned grief which now pervades all classes of your Majesty's subjects, for the loss of that most illustrious Prince, whose splendid talents displayed in the diligent and judicious discharge of the duties of the high and important office of Commander-in Chief, during a long period raised the national army to its present envied state, and for which His Royal Highness obtained the just esteem of the public in general; and by his firm support of the Constitution in Church and State, proved himself to be a true friend to both.

And they humbly pray that the Great Dispenser of all Mercies will vouchsafe to enable your Majesty to sustain the loss of an affectionate brother, and continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty long to reign over a loyal and affectionate people.

The dutiful and loyal Address (the Chancellor being abroad), of the Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Rector, Principal and Professors of your Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave, with all humility and reverence, to offer to your Majesty our affectionate and heartfelt condolence on the late severe dispensation with which it has pleased the Almighty to afflict your Majesty, and all the Royal Family, by the decease of that much lamented Prince, your Majesty's Royal Brother, the Duke of York and Albany.

While we join with the whole British people in deploring the loss sustained by this melancholy event, in that most important branch of your Majesty's service, over which your Royal Brother presided with such extensive benefit to your Majesty's army, and to the whole community, and with such distinguished honour to himself, we desire to submit with resignation to the Divine Will, and implore the Father of Mercies, and God of all comfort to console and support your Majesty, and all the other Members of your Royal House, under this affliction, and to enable you and them to derive from our Holy Religion all that consolation and all those sources of resigned acquiescence which it so abundantly supplies.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that, as we ourselves shall ever entertain, so we shall studiously inculcate on the youth committed to our care, unshaken loyalty, pure patriotism, and those public principles which the British Constitution inspires and enjoins.

That the Supreme Ruler of the Universe may direct your Majesty's Councils, crown them with success, and long continue your auspicious reign over a free, a loyal, a piously moral and happy people, are the sincere and fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Rector, Principal, and Professors of your Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Signed in the name, and by the appointment of said College and University, this 1st day of February 1827, by

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Roxburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

IT is with feelings of the deepest grief and heartfelt sorrow, that we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Roxburgh, approach the Throne, to lay at the feet of your Majesty this tribute of our sincere sympathy and condolence on the demise of your late Royal Brother, the ever-to-be-lamented Duke of York.

While in the death of that illustrious Prince, your Majesty has to mourn the loss of an affectionate and warmly attached brother, the Nation has, at the same time, to deplore one of its brightest ornaments, a most benevolent and generous benefactor, a firm and undaunted promoter of its best interests; and we can assure your Majesty with the utmost sincerity, that we deeply lament, in common with the universal British Empire, an event which has plunged your Majesty and your Royal House into such great affliction.

We pray that your Majesty may long be spared to promote, by your fostering care, the welfare and prosperity of the Nation, and that your grateful people may long be permitted to glory in a beloved Monarch, in whose present grief they deeply sympathise, and towards whose Person and Government they feel the warmest affection and most devoted loyalty.

To His Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, King of Hanover, &c. &c.

Sire, may it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Down, convened at Saintfield, in the said County, by the High Sheriff, pursuant to public notice, offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamented death of your Majesty's august Brother, the late Duke of York and Albany.

By this melancholy event your Majesty has been deprived of a beloved and most devoted friend, and the Empire of a Prince, under whose auspices your Majesty's army has attained an unprecedented degree of discipline and military glory; and whose constitutional principles must ever endear his memory to all your Majesty's loyal subjects: humbly deploring so great a national calamity, we bow with submission to the will of Almighty God, and pray that your Majesty may be enabled to support with Christian resignation this visitation of Divine Providence.

That your Majesty may live to exercise your paternal care over the British Empire, is the ardent wish and prayer of us, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, beg leave most respectfully to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamented decease of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, the late Duke of York.

The exemplary discharge by His late Royal Highness of the important duties of the office of Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's land forces, and the frankness, kindness and urbanity of His Royal Highness had long endeared him to every individual of your Majesty's army; and remembering that decided spirit evinced by His Royal Highness, in the maintenance of the fundamental principles of our invaluable Constitution, in Church and State, and his standing so near the Throne, we cannot but consider the lamented death of His Royal Highness to be a great public loss, both to your Majesty and the Nation at large.

We most cordially unite in our sincere and fervent prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty may be duly strengthened and supported under this most severe dispensation of Providence, and that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a free, happy and united people.

We humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty of our firm attachment to your Royal Person, and to the Government under the mild auspices of your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton, in a General County Meeting assembled, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne, for the purpose of presenting the tribute of our sincere condolence on occasion of the calamity so recently sustained by your Majesty and by the whole Kingdom, in the much lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

The many amiable qualities which His Royal Highness so eminently displayed in private life, and the transcendent zeal, talent, industry, and integrity with which he discharged the duties of a highly important department of the public service, have endeared him to the hearts of the British people, and will render his memory grateful to posterity.

That it may please the Almighty Disposer of all Events to soothe and console your Majesty's fraternal feelings under this most afflicting dispensation of His Providence, and that your Majesty may long be permitted to reign over a free, a loyal, and an affectionate people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects and servants.

To the KING's Most Gracious Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithfully devoted subjects, the Vicar, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the Parish of Grinton, are very respectfully anxious to offer to your Majesty our humble and sympathising Address.

Bound by those ties which most firmly unite a people to their Sovereign, our hearts, filled with warm and grateful loyalty, are with your Majesty and with your illustrious Family; as the inscrutable dispensations of Providence admit or demand of us, we are prepared, Sire, to rejoice or to condole with your Majesty.

With the deepest and most sympathising regard of your Majesty's present sorrow, excited by the loss of that inestimable Member of your Family, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, permit us, Sire, to offer this expression of our grief. The event thus tenderly affecting to your Majesty is deeply felt by us. In the person of His late Royal Highness, your Majesty's faithful army had an able and beloved Commander-in-Chief; his watchful attentions gained the respect of the highest in rank, and by them the condition of the private soldier was raised to comfort: and that illustrious Prince, not confining his patriotic mind, even to the great concerns of the military establishments, had great regard to the Church of England as the pillar of the Protestant Faith; in his value for it, he was its friend, always the same, seasonable, unchanging, and unawed. We sincerely mourn, while we gratefully remember the Prince who did so love and cherish the institutions of his country. With these feelings and convictions, we have desired to assure your Majesty of the true and lively sympathy of our hearts, at this period of heavy deprivation and affliction, and of its being our prayer that the Almighty, who ruleth over all, may bless your Majesty with a reign of many years in honour, prosperity and peace.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Convener, Deacons, and Remanent Members of the Nine Incorporated Trades of the Burgh of Dundee, in Common Hall assembled, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty with unfeigned expressions of condolence for the loss which your Majesty, your Majesty's Government, and the United Kingdom have sustained by the death of your illustrious Brother, the Duke of York. The death of any of your Majesty's relations must always affect the people; but the lamented late Duke was, in addition, a most efficient Member of your Majesty's Government, and the person, who, by his exertions and example, brought the army to its present flourishing state: the loss, therefore, to your Majesty and to the Nation is the more; and we sincerely join in your sorrow.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled.

*May it please your Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,*

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, most humbly beg to offer our condolence on the demise of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, who graciously condescended to become one of our body by the acceptance of its freedom,

We deplore, in common with the best feelings of the country, the loss we have sustained, whereby your Majesty is deprived of an attached brother, the Constitution of a firm supporter, the Army of a beloved Commander. His late Royal Highness, brave, generous and humane, ever proved himself the veteran's protector, the orphan's father, the widow's friend; was most justly honoured in life and sincerely mourned in death.

We most deeply feel the loss of such a distinguished Prince, and most respectfully offer the humble tribute of our unfeigned and heartfelt condolence, and with it our sincere hope that your Majesty's feelings may be soothed by the sympathy of your faithful people; we further trust you will be graciously pleased to accept the assurance of our firm continued loyalty and allegiance.

Given under our common seal, the 30th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1827.

To the KING's Most Sacred Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the ancient Royal Burgh of Linnlithgow, beg leave to approach the Throne, deeply impressed with a sense of the blessings which this country has enjoyed under the mild and paternal sway of the Princes of the House of Brunswick, we feel ourselves called on humbly to offer to your Majesty the tribute of our heartfelt condolence on the heavy calamity with which it has pleased Almighty God, in his inscrutable wisdom, recently to afflict your Majesty, and your faithful and loving people, by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

When we reflect on the benefits derived to your Majesty and the Country from the long services of that illustrious person, that to the indefatigable exertions of the late Commander-in-Chief it is mainly to be attributed that the British army has attained an eminence, which renders it alike the admiration and the envy of Europe, we find it utterly impossible to appreciate the extent of the loss sustained by his death; and we can only venture to express to your Majesty those feelings of respectful gratitude which must ever induce the people of this Realm to cherish the memory of His Royal Highness with affectionate veneration. That it may please Almighty God to bestow upon your Majesty that consolation under this severe affliction, which even the sympathies of a loyal and affectionate people are unable to yield, is the constant prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects and servants, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Linnlithgow.

Signed in name and by authority of the Magistrates and Council, in Common Council assembled, and the seal of the Burgh affixed, at Linnlithgow, the 3d day of February 1827.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of your Majesty's Royal and Ancient Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg permission to address your Majesty, deeply and sincerely expressing our condolence on the painful affliction your Majesty and your August Family must experience by the death of that ever-to-be-lamented Prince, His Royal Highness the Duke of York; truly may we say, our nation's hope—the father of the army.

While we deplore, in common with the whole of your Majesty's faithful subjects, the heavy calamity and irreparable loss which the nation has sustained, we in sincerity pray, that the mercies of Divine Providence may alleviate the anguish of your Majesty's feelings, and grant consolation under so severe a visitation, and may they continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty's health, so as you may be enabled long to maintain the glory of the Crown, the security and stability of the Protestant Religion, and the happiness and welfare of your Majesty's people.

Signed in our name, at Dunbar, the 30th day of January 1827. Charles Middlemass, Provost.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgesses, and Common Council of the County of the Town of Drogheda, in Special General Assembly convened, beg sincerely to condole with your Majesty for the loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, who, by his zeal and talent in the discharge of his high and important official duties as Commander-in-Chief, brought the British army to that state of discipline which raised it to its present height in the estimation of Europe, and was the means, under Providence, of restoring to this country the blessings of a secure and honourable peace.

The sentiments expressed by His Royal Highness on a late occasion, which proved him the firm and uncompromising champion of the Protestant Constitution, must endear his memory to your Majesty's loyal subjects; and though his loss is rendered more severe by the recollection, yet we sorrow not as men without hope, for we feel assured, that in your Majesty, and the other Members of the Royal Family, we may confidently look for the same steady support of the present glorious and happy Constitution.

Your Majesty will find some consolation for the loss of a beloved brother, in the sincere regret of all classes of your Majesty's loyal subjects; and we beg leave to assure you, that we yield to none in sincerely deploring this great national loss.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto caused our common seal to be affixed this 19th day of January 1827.

Unto His Most Gracious and Most Excellent Majesty the KING.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Burgesses of the Royal Burgh of Inveraray, in the Shire of Argyll.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal, faithful, and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Councillors and Burgesses of the Royal Burgh of Inveraray, beg most humbly to offer our sincere condolence on the severe dispensation with which it has pleased God to afflict your Majesty and the Nation, in the death of your late Royal Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

We sincerely deplore the calamitous event, as depriving the Crown of a highly distinguished and meritorious servant; your Majesty of a brother, who was justly endeared to you by the tenderest feelings of love and affection; and the army of a Commander-in-Chief, by whose zeal and energy, guided by prudence and wisdom, it had attained that high efficiency, to which its glorious victories, unequalled in history, may be ascribed.

That it may please God to bless your Majesty with Christian fortitude and resignation under the afflicting dispensation, and with a long and prosperous reign over a free and a happy people, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful, and most devoted subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Councillors, and Burgesses of the Royal Burgh of Inveraray.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Forfar, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of the feelings of sorrow and regret deeply impressed on our minds by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

This mournful event, the source of severe affliction to your Majesty, has deprived us and the Nation at large of a Prince esteemed and beloved by all.

His Royal Highness was eminently distinguished for his condescension, urbanity of manners, and kindness of heart, which endeared him to every class of your Majesty's subjects, while his firmness of mind, sound judgment, and the strictest justice, tempered by moderation, and the unremitting zeal with which he discharged the great and important duties entrusted to his care, have led to the victorious career of your Majesty's arms, and to the glorious eminence this country has gained among other nations.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that we lament most unfeignedly a Prince so beloved, whose memory will remain embalmed in the recollection of a grateful nation, and, in conveying to your Majesty our sincere feelings of condolence on this most melancholy occasion we pray that the Almighty Disposer of Events may support and protect your Majesty under the pressure of this calamity.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Airlie, our Preses, at Forfar, this 5th day of February 1827. Airlie, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common Council assembled, in unison with the feelings of every loyal subject in your Majesty's dominions, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned condolence on the late mournful event, which has deprived your Majesty in particular, and the Nation in general, of an illustrious individual, in the highest degree entitled to the respect and veneration of his countrymen.

At a time when your Majesty must be absorbed in the deepest affliction at the loss of a beloved brother, we would not presume to intrude upon the sacred privacies of domestic sorrow, with unavailing expressions of grief, or unmeaning efforts of consolation, but the public and private worth of the deceased, his warm-hearted and active benevolence, his eminent military services, above all, his well-founded and zealous attachment to our Protestant Church and Constitution, imperiously call for the grateful acknowledgment of every man who is attached to those principles, which placed your Majesty's Ancestors on the Throne of these Realms, and the only human consolation your Majesty can at this time receive, must be, the firm assurance of that sincere esteem with which His Royal Highness was regarded while living, the heartfelt sorrow with which his death is regretted, and the affectionate remembrance with which his memory will ever be cherished.

That your Majesty may speedily recover from this great affliction, and long continue to reign in the hearts and affections of a loyal people, is the ardent wish of your Majesty's most dutiful and most devoted servants.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Recorder, Commonalty, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, with feelings of the deepest regret and condolence on the melancholy loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained in the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York; long may his memory be revered and cherished with the utmost respect by all your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects.

We seek, however, for consolation on this melancholy occasion, in the reflection that there yet remain many illustrious branches of your Majesty's family in whom we anxiously hope that the inheritance of the British Crown may be continued to the latest posterity; and we beg leave to take this opportunity of renewing our assurances of the most faithful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the States of His Majesty's Island of Jersey, beg leave humbly to present our unfeigned condolence on the severe loss which the British Empire has experienced, by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

On this melancholy event, which must have powerfully affected the best feelings of your Majesty's heart, we hasten to lay before your Majesty our correspondent sentiments of deep concern and regret. We hope, at the same time, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to permit us thankfully to acknowledge the many essential services of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, whose undeviating line of rectitude throughout the long period of his public life, has the strongest claims on the gratitude of his native country: the high state of discipline to which the British army has been brought by his ability, zeal, and strenuous exertions, is a proper theme of proud and grateful exultation, and his warm attachment, so conspicuously evinced on a recent occasion, to the King and Constitution, as established in Church and State, is a bright example of loyalty and adherence to the principles of our ecclesiastical polity.

We, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, who have received so many signal proofs of your Majesty's parental care and protecting hand, shall always be found ready to yield obedience to your Majesty's supreme authority, not less from a motive of love than from a principle of duty.

That Divine Providence may long preserve your Majesty's life, is the fervent prayer of these your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Court of Assistants of the Merchant Taylors' Company, take the earliest opportunity, since the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's forces, to express our sincere and unaffected condolence at a loss so great and irreparable to your Majesty.

We have witnessed with much pride and satisfaction, during the many years in which His late Royal Highness permitted his name to be enrolled among the Members of our Company, the high fame which the British army attained at home and throughout the world, under the able administration of His Royal Highness, whose wise and provident regulations had not only attached the heart of every soldier to the service, but had organized the means of victory.

We can never forget the condescending affability, the personal kindness, and the great urbanity which always characterized the conduct of His late Royal Highness upon the many occasions when he honoured us with his presence, and we feel the most perfect confidence, that, to the latest period of time, the name of His Royal Highness will be marked in the page of history as a warm and invariable supporter of those principles in Church and State, which the illustrious House of Brunswick were called upon to maintain and defend when first seated upon the British Throne; principles which have been upheld by each succeeding Monarch, and which have been ever found entirely compatible with the fullest enjoyment of civil and religious liberty.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, the seal of the Company being hereto affixed, at Merchant Taylors' Hall, London, the 8th day of February 1827.

And we further beg to add our most fervent prayers to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty may long continue to reign prosperous and happy in the affections of a loyal and faithful people.

WE, the Bishop of the Diocese, and the Dean and Canons of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, humbly approach the Throne of your Majesty with sentiments of sincere condolence on the melancholy event, which has plunged your Majesty and the Nation in such deep distress.

Having, in common with every rank and order in the State, regarded with love and admiration the shining public merits of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany; we join with them in sincerely lamenting His Royal Highness' decease; and this our sincere regret is deepened by the consideration, that the Protestant Church, of which we are Ministers, has by this calamity lost one of her best friends and firmest supporters: that the Almighty may uphold your Majesty under this afflicting dispensation, and long preserve your Majesty in prosperity, to rule over a loyal and affectionate people, is the heartfelt prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and most devoted subjects.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Constables and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, with the deepest concern approach the Throne, under circumstances which must be distressing to the feelings of your Majesty, as well as an occasion of much grief to ourselves: tenderly alive to the personal welfare of your Majesty, we derive no small consolation in observing the Christian fortitude with which it has pleased the Almighty to enable you to sustain the afflictive bereavement of an excellent brother, and to bear up under a providence so severe as to separate, at one stroke, those tender ties of fraternal affection, which so happily existed between your Majesty and His Royal Highness the late Duke of York.

While we reflect, with the highest satisfaction, on the conduct of the late Commander-in-Chief, in the zealous discharge of those duties which devolved upon him in that exalted station, and in the performance of which he realized the entire approbation of your Majesty, the Nation at large, and of those more immediately under his care, we feel it our duty humbly to submit to the All-wise Disposer of Events, fervently praying that your Majesty may long be continued to us, the Father of your People, and the firm Defender of the Faith.

Truly sensible of the estimable qualities which adorned the character of His Royal Highness, and justly appreciating his eminent services, in the high executive department which he so long and honourably filled; and by which he not only raised the character and efficiency of your Majesty's army to the present unparalleled height, but provided for the future safety and glory of the Empire; whilst his benevolence, humanity and love of justice, were on every occasion so exemplarily displayed; and impressed with sentiments of the highest respect for his zealous, conscientious and steady regard to our invaluable Constitution, we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever retain a due and grateful remembrance of His Royal Highness' distinguished merits, and the important benefits which he rendered to his country.

Permit us, Sire, on this occasion, to renew the assurance of our firm allegiance and cordial attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to add our fervent prayer, that your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over a free, happy and united people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt expressions of condolence on the much lamented decease of His Royal Highness the late Duke of York and Albany; by which your Majesty has sustained the loss of an affectionate Brother, and the army of its illustrious Commander-in-Chief.

We beg leave also to assure your Majesty of our firm and unaltered attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and most earnestly pray that your Majesty may long live in the hearts of a beloved, loyal, and truly devoted people.

Given under the common seal used for the said City, this 31st day of January 1827.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kirkcudbright, in our County Hall assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, and offer to your Majesty, and the other Members of your illustrious House, our sincere and respectful condolence on the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, Commander-in-Chief of the Forces ; a Prince no less endeared to your Majesty by the strongest ties of fraternal affection, than to the Nation at large by his many amiable and princely qualities.

As the steady patron of every measure that had for its object the honour and prosperity of the empire, and as the great regenerator of the British army, and the strictly impartial dispenser of its patronage, His Royal Highness stood proudly preeminent.

We acknowledge with true gratitude the many important services which he rendered to the State, during a life almost constantly devoted to the public ; and we do sincerely concur in the universal feelings of unfeigned grief and sympathy which his death has called forth from all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

We assure your Majesty of our zeal and affection for your Royal Person and Family ; and we fervently pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and glorious, and that every act of your government may be conducive to the prosperity and welfare of your people.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Kirkcudbright, the 2d day of February 1827. Kennure, Preses.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Stirling, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the deepest feelings of respect and sympathy, and to express our sincere regret for the loss your Majesty has lately sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York : but while we condole with your Majesty on this event, we cannot but hope that the grief natural to human nature, on the loss of an affectionate and beloved relative, will be in some degree alleviated by the sympathy of a whole nation, and the certainty that the virtues of the illustrious dead are enshrined in the hearts of all your Majesty's subjects ; he is lamented not only in his public, but in his private character ; as an individual none ever surpassed him in the fidelity and constancy of his friendships, in his placability of temper, or in his generous forgiveness of injuries ; as a public character, the perfect state of discipline of the British army ; the institutions for the young and the old, the more peculiar objects of his care, and the impartiality with which promotions were conferred, are by all parties unanimously acknowledged ; all these claims to public esteem and gratitude have met with their due reward ; he dies universally beloved and regretted, by the army as a father, and by the whole country as one of its most distinguished, most valuable, and most valued members : may these considerations, the truth of which is attested by a sorrowing people, tend to soothe your Majesty's affliction, and that your Majesty may soon recover your wonted health and spirits, and may long and happily reign over us, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects here assembled.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the meeting, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dun-more, their Chairman, at Stirling, the 5th day of February 1827 years. Dunmore.

The humble Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Tamworth.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Tamworth, beg most respectfully to convey to your Majesty the expressions of our heartfelt condolence on the irreparable loss which your Majesty and the Country have sustained in the death of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York.

We warmly participate in that sorrow with which your Majesty so deeply mourns the demise of a most affectionate brother.

We gratefully acknowledge the important services which His late Royal Highness the Duke of York rendered to the State, as Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's army, and we are fully aware how much His Royal Highness' exertions contributed to the glorious termination of that mighty contest in which this country was lately engaged.

We witnessed with admiration the devoted attachment which His Royal Highness on all occasions manifested to our glorious and happy Constitution in Church and State.

The many estimable virtues and amiable qualities which adorned His Royal Highness' character, will ever endear His Royal Highness' memory to the hearts of Britons.

That your Majesty may, by the aid of Divine Providence, be enabled to bear with fortitude the severe trial under which your Majesty is at present suffering, and that your Majesty may for many, many years (in the enjoyment of every earthly blessing), continue to govern these realms, with glory to your Majesty's reign, and with advantage to your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, is our anxious and unceasing prayer.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Parish of Chatham, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of sincere condolence on the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and to express how deeply we lament the loss of an illustrious Prince, so nearly allied to your Majesty by the ties of blood, fully sensible of those noble and distinguishing qualities that endeared him alike to your Majesty and to the Nation.

While we sympathize with your Majesty in your peculiar affliction on this occasion, in common with all ranks of the community, we cannot but deplore the public loss occasioned by the melancholy event of the death of His Royal Highness, whose character and services are held in the highest estimation by every class of your Majesty's subjects : we desire, most dutifully to offer our assurances of the undiminished loyalty and affection we bear to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Signed, pursuant to a resolution of a public meeting of the Inhabitants of Chatham, held by appointment, the 9th day of February 1827.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Wolverhampton, beg leave to approach your Royal Person with sentiments of deep and unfeigned sorrow at the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York; whose public and private character have so justly endeared him to all classes of people in your Majesty's dominions; cordial and sincere as our sentiments of condolence are on this melancholy occasion, yet we are conscious that we cannot fully sympathize with that genuine and private grief which must, at such a moment, rend and distract your royal breast, at the loss of a brother so justly valuable and so truly dear to your Majesty; but in all the feelings of public lamentation, so deeply felt and so universally expressed, we take leave to assure your Majesty, we yield to none in admiration of those high and lofty virtues which adorned the character of His Royal Highness the late Duke of York; we beheld him, in the tumults of an unparalleled war, directing that army over which he presided as Commander-in-Chief, to the achievements of glories unequalled in the history of the world, and in the silent calm of peace which those achievements obtained, soothing, relieving and cherishing the widow and the orphan; and by his justice, moderation and kindness, commanding the gratitude and affection of all over whom his influence extended.

To that awful dispensation of Providence, which has called His Royal Highness to another and a better world, we bow in humble submission.

Severe as this shock has proved to your Majesty and the Nation, we pray to God that your Majesty's health may remain unimpaired by this poignant and heart-rending chastisement, and that you may long continue to live and reign over a grateful and loyal people, whose welfare and happiness it has been the constant and unceasing object of your Majesty's paternal care to promote and extend.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, impressed with the deepest sorrow and regret for the severe and afflictive loss which your Majesty and the Nation at large have sustained, by the lamented death of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt condolence: whilst we bow with awful submission to this visitation of the Divine Providence, by which your Majesty has sustained the loss of an affectionate Brother, the army a most efficient and upright Commander-in-Chief, and the country at large one of its most faithful adherents to the principles of our excellent Constitution in Church and State, we devoutly trust that your Majesty, and all the branches of the Royal Family, will find comfort and support in the consolations offered by our Holy Religion, and in the general and unaffected sympathy of every class of your Majesty's subjects under this mournful bereavement: and we beg leave humbly to renew the assurances of our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and fervently implore the Supreme Disposer of all Events that your Majesty may long be preserved to receive the homage and gratitude of a loyal and affectionate people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, beg leave most humbly to approach your Throne with sentiments of our unalterable affection to your Royal Person, and to express how sincerely we sympathise, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, in the irreparable loss which your Majesty and the Nation at large have sustained by the lamented death of your illustrious Brother, the Duke of York and Albany.

Deeply impressed with a sense of his public services to the army and to the nation, and entertaining a mournful recollection of those private virtues with which he was adorned, we can never cease to grieve, that a Prince so gifted and so beloved should be called away from the sphere of his usefulness. But while we submissively bow to the unerring dispensations of Heaven, we pray the Almighty that it may please Him to continue your Majesty in the enjoyment of health and happiness, very long to reign over a united and an affectionate people, grateful for the blessings they enjoy under the paternal Government of the Princes of the House of Brunswick.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Common Council, and Town Clerk, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

MAY it please your Majesty to permit us, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Common Council, and Town Clerk, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned expressions of profound sorrow and condelence on the lamented decease of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, by which sad and melancholy event we sensibly feel that your Majesty has been deprived of an affectionate brother, and England has sustained an irreparable loss.

Whilst we sincerely unite and sympathize with your Majesty and the Nation at large, in sentiment of grief for the ever-to-be-lamented Prince, we cannot conclude without assuring your Majesty of our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our earnest supplications and prayers, that Divine Providence may continue to preserve your Majesty's valuable life, and that, with uninterrupted health, your Majesty may long reign over a happy and loyal people.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Linlithgow.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Linlithgow, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the much lamented death of your Majesty's illustrious and beloved Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, by which melancholy event your Majesty has been bereaved of an attached and affectionate relative, the nation has to deplore the loss of a condescending and patriotic Prince, the public institutions a benevolent and liberal benefactor, and the army an efficient, an honest and impartial Commander-in-Chief.

That, while we lament, in common with the rest of our fellow subjects, the severe and irreparable loss which, under the dispensation of Providence, has befallen us, we have at the same time the melancholy, though consolatory reflection, that His Royal Highness has left behind him a memory embalmed in every British heart.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to receive the proofs of the attachment of your loyal and dutiful subjects, shall always be our ardent prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians, at Edinburgh, beg leave to approach the Throne with sentiments of deep sympathy, on account of the mournful event with which it has pleased God to afflict your Majesty.

The distress so deeply affecting your Majesty in the loss of a beloved Brother, has been much and sincerely felt by all your Majesty's subjects, and the Nation has been equally unanimous in the feeling, that his eminent services in the high rank which he held as Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's forces, have produced results that identify the army as a profession, with the glory and prosperity of this great country, and which will cause his virtues to be in the grateful remembrance of the latest posterity.

We trust that these proofs of attachment to your Family may in some degree assuage your Majesty's sorrow, but sure and permanent consolation can in such circumstances be produced only by considerations of a higher order: that the Almighty Disposer of Events may grant this consolation to your Majesty, and to the whole of the Royal Family, is our most fervent prayer.

Signed and sealed in the name and by appointment of the Royal College, at Edinburgh, this 6th day of February 1827.
