Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 20, 1827.

IT is the intention of His Majesty and that of the Royal Family, to continue their mourning for His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany during the space of six months; but it is not expected or desired, that other persons should appear in mourning, except at Court, after the expiration of six weeks from the day of His late Royal Highness's demise.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Right Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens, and other Office Bearers and Members of the Lodge Saint Regulus of Free and Accepted Masons, Cupar Fife, in a General Meeting assembled.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lodge Saint Regulus of Cupar Fife, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, to offer our most heartfelt and sincere tribute of condolence and sympathy on the lamented and melancholy occasion of the demise of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, &c. &c. &c.

We have learned with the most poignant grief the afflicting intelligence of this great calamity which has befallen your Majesty's illustrious House and the Nation at large, in the inscrutable dispensation of Divine Providence.

The distinguished talents of His Royal Highness, as exemplified in the zeal and impartiality with which he discharged the important duties of his exalted official station, will be long remembered, and sincerely acknowledged, and his unremitting, arduous and successful exertions to improve and perfect the discipline of the British army, it is impossible too highly to appreciate; while we recollect this, as well as the kindness and affection of His Royal Highness to all with whom he was connected in the secular matters of life, we shall have presented to us materials forming the subject of a record of ever grateful recollection, and which will transmit the memory of His Royal Highness to posterity as one of the most brave, benevolent, humane, and illustrious of Princes.

Subscribed by the Right Worshipful Master, in name and on behalf of the said Lodge Saint Regulus, place and date foresaid, the official Seal of the Lodge being attached hereto.

Andrew Hunter, R.W.M. of the St. Regulus Lodge.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Rosslyn.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, and its vicinity, beg leave deeply to sympathize in the grief felt by your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Nation at large, for the loss sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, Commander-in-Chief, whose just impartiality upheld the honour of the service, and whose conduct as a Prince was in the highest degree illustrative of his manly and sincere principles, and his uncompromising attachment to the Protestant Religion, and to the British Constitution.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty their dutiful and respectful condolence on the loss which your Majesty and this Nation have sustained by the death of your Royal Brother, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, and to sympathize in the universal feelings of unfeigned grief which now pervades all classes of your Majesty's subjects, for the loss of that most illustrious Prince, whose splendid talents displayed in the diligent and judicious dis-
