near Herfebfeldt, and that he will himfalf b prefent at it; and from Francfors we have an account, That the Baron of Werdenaw was on the 3 t paft Elefted Bifhop of Wirtsburg, and the Baron, of Staufemberg Bilhop of Bamberg. The Commonalty here continue in Arms, and their Leaders have taken upon them to examine the Sieur-Judendoneke and the Sieur Heffelman, who are their Ptifoners, and to give Orders for the framing a Process againft Collonel Cirpricht, who commanded the Miditia, and what thefe fumults and Diforders will end in nobody can fuy.

end in nobody can fuy. Hamburg Fune 15. The Letters from Copenbagen fay, 1 hat the King of Denmark intends to begin his Journ of towards Halfein on the 21 Inflant, and that the King of Studden was fending 18 Regiments to reinforce his Garifons in Schmen. The new Fortifications that are making here are continued with all imaginable diligence and application. We are told. That the El. cor of Saxony, the Dukes of Brunfwick and Lunenburg, and the Landgrave of Heffe, have entred into an Alliance for the Security and Defence of the upper and lower Saxony. It is faid, That the Electors of Saxony and Bavaria are to have an Interview at Drefden.

Brussels, June 22. Our Letters from the Imperial Camp before Newhenfel of the eighth Inflant fay, That it was invested the second Instant; That the fourth the Duke of Lorrain arrived with his whole Army and Cannon before the place, and that the Turks finding he was refolved to attack it, burnt the Suburbs, and retired into the Cittadel; That the Imperialists, in taking a small Out-work, had loft 16 or 17 Voluntiers, persons of Quality, among whom was Count Ambony de Tass, younger Brother to the Prince de la Tour, and that about 20 more were wounded. The Letters add, That the Befiegers had three Batteries playing, and were advanced fo near as to be lodged under the Counterfcarp, which they intended to attack that night, and doubted not of being Mafters of the place within few days.

Bruffels, June 23. Yefterday his Excellency went to visit the Camp at Pieton which confilts of 4000 Horfe, under the Command of the Prince de Vaudemont, as General. Befides these there are in feveral Garifons about 2000 difmounted Covalry, for whom his Excellency is providing Horfes. Next Week their Exceller cies intend to go to Englien, and from thence to Marimont. We hope our next Letters from Vienna will bring us the good News of the taking of Newbeufel, which the Turks have not Forces enough in the Field to relieve, the main Body of the Ottoman Army being not expected in Hungary till the beginning of the next Month. There are Letters which (ay, That the Dorkith Army will confift of vaft numbers, fome Tpeaking of 300000 Men, and these commanded by 77 Basfa's, but that they are raw and unexperienced, drawn together from all parts of the Empire, and that they are extreamly harraffed with their long Marches.

Hague, June 22. The Count de Carellon, natural Son to the late King of Sueden, is arrived here, and as it's faid is to be Collonel of the Walloon Regiment in the Strike of the States, in the room of Baron Span, who is lately dead at Stockbolm. Yefferday the Priace of Orange returned to Honflaerdyke from North-Holland, being very well fatisfied with the foryvardneis in which he found the Ships that are fitted out by that Admiralty. It is confidently reported, That the Prince of Naffaw, Governor of Frizeland and Groningen, is to be Marryed to the Princes of Ambalt. Yelterday-the-Sieurs Nottegen and Roy arrived here, being fent by the Duke of Newbourg to follicite the Payment of the Arrears of Subhdies which are due unto him fiom this State. Our Letters-from Cologne fay, That affairs continue flill in the fame Confusion; but that-there is great hop s that the differences depending between that Elector and the City of Liege may be fpeedily composed. Parin, June 23. The 15th Inflant their Most Chri-

Parie, June 23. The 15th Inflant their Moft Chrifijan-Majeltics parted from Bellegarde, and lay that night at Dole, and arrived the next at Befancon. Fig Troops that composed the Camp on the Soane, prefeatly after the King parted from thence, decampe 1, and marched in leveral Brigades towards the Saar. The News of the Town is, That Monficur du Quesse is arrived with the Fleet under his Command before Algiers; and that the Spaniards have refuied him the use of their Ports. We are told, That the Nuncio is parted from Orleans, having received by an Express polytive Orders from the Pope to repair without further delay to the French Court, and demand an Audience of his Majelty. The Archbilhop of Rheims, Brother to Monfieur de Louvois, is very dangeroully fick.

Deale, June 15. This day the Ann, Captain Brown Commander, arrived in the Downs, being bound for Surati.

Advert isements.

GF Ovid's Epiffles, Translated by S veral hands. The third Edition. Printed for J. T. and are to be Sold by T. Goodwin, at the Maiden-head over-against St. Dunflan's Church in Fleet-street.

Thefe are to give notice that the Brentwood Fealt for the Schollars of Brentwood-School, in the County of Eilex, is to be kept at Clothworkers-Hall in Mincing-Lane, on Tourfday being the 38th of this Iultant Jane, and thofe Gentl.men that have formerly been of that School may have Tickets at Mr. Walter Kettilby's at the Bithops-head in St. Paul's Church-yard

The Creditors of Mr. Benjamin Hinton are defired to meet their Truffees on Thurfday the 21 Inflant, by three of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Marine Coffee-house in Burchin-Lane, to receive an account of their Proceedings.

Burchin-Lane, to receive an account of their Proceedings. N Friday laft a Gentlewoman left in a Hackney-Coach a new coloured Cloth Coat, lined with Sik, two flowered Silk Waftecoats, a pair of new rowling Worlied Stockings, and half a Yard of Rowered Silk : The Coach-man was a black Man in a yellow Livery. Whoever gives notice of the fild Goods, to Mr. Rabon in Maiden-Lane in Covent-Garden, fo that they be had again, fhall have 20 thillings Reward.

Revarded. Revarded Mannering, born in Chelhire, aged about nineteen, being of aruddy Complexion, with light brown curled Hair, in a dark Cloth Suit, was feot, on Wednefday the listh Lultant, to Brooks Wharf, from the I-Jecce Tavern in Cornhil, and not fince heard of Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Anthony Gregory in Cornhil, fhall be very well Rewarded.

Dolt on the 24th of May laff, from Adflon in the County of Northampton, two Mares, the one a dark brown, with a Staff in her Forehead, a Moule colour'd Muzzel, feven Years eld, 14 hards high: The other a blood bay, four years old. with a Star, and a little white Streak down part of her Noles 14 hands and a half high. Whoever gives Notice of them to Mr. Harby of Adthen, or to Mr. Rugeley, at the Ugicorn in Exeter Exchange, thall have 40 s. Reward.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Savoy, 1683.