The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Goodall, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gentleman, His royal licence and authority, that he, the said Thomas Goodall, and his issue may (in compliance with the will of Sampson Copestake, of Langley, in the county of Derby, Esq. deceased) take and use the surname of Copestake, in addition to and after that of Goodall, and also bear and use the arms of Copestake; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 6, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Wednesday the 27th of December last, the parish chapel of St. Luke, Chelsea, was burglariously and sacrilegiously broken into, and a variety of articles used in the communion service, together with pulpit cushions and other property stolen therefrom; and also, that in the night of Thursday the 1st of February last, the same chapel was again burglariously broken into, and two brass chandeliers and other articles were stolen therefrom;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the burglaries above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the offender or offenders in either of the offences above mentioned, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Churchwardens of the said parish of St. Luke, Chelsea.
