The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Owen John Augustus Fuller Meyrick, of Bodorgan, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Anglesey, in the room of Richard Bulkeley Williams Bulkeley, of Baronhill, Esq.

And His Majesty was pleased to make the following amendments upon the roll:

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling, assembled at Stirling, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, for the purpose of expressing our cordial attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our deepest sympathy under the afflictive dispensation with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Majesty and the Country, by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

It is not possible for us to express how deeply we deplore that event, which, in the person of His late Royal Highness, has deprived the British army of one, who in his high official character raised that army to a state of unprecedented excellence, discharged the duties of his office with such impartiality and kindness, watched over its moral and religious improvement, no less than its military discipline, provided for the comfort of its soldiers, not only when engaged in active service, but when unfitted for it by reason of wounds, or sickness, or old age, and for the support of the widows and children of those whose lot it was to fall in the defence of their country.

That the God of all consolation may grant to your Majesty His divine support in the season of affliction, and that He may bless your Majesty with a long and peaceful, and prosperous reign over a loyal and affectionate people, is the prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling, assembled at Stirling this 13th day of February 1827 years, and subscribed in our name and presence, and by our appointment.

John Dempster, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, in the County of Hereford, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our sincere condolence on the ever-to-be-lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

The zeal, ability, and impartiality with which His Royal Highness discharged the arduous duties of his high and important office as Commander-in-Chief of the British army, the firmness and attachment at all times displayed by him in the support of the Constitution of his Country, and the kind and amiable qualities of his heart, so universally acknowledged, have justly endeared his memory to a grateful and sorrowing

Nation, which, in his death, has to deplore the loss of its brightest ornament and fondest hope.

That your Majesty may find support and comfort under your present severe affliction, through the influence of our Holy Religion, and by Divine Permission be long spared to your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, is our most earnest and fervent prayer.

Signed in behalf of the Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants.
William Vale, Bailiff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Vicar, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Parishes of Llandingad and Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, in the County of Carmarthen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Parishes of Llandingad and Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the dutiful and loyal expression of our sincere and heartfelt condolence and sympathy in the deep affliction with which Almighty God in his wisdom has been pleased to visit your Majesty, by the decease of your illustrious Brother, the Duke of York. To us, as members of the Church of England, his memory will ever remain endeared for that firm and inflexible steadfastness with which, at all times, and more especially on a late occasion, he advocated and defended those Protestant principles on which our Church is founded, and with which her safety, nay, her very existence is identified.

Most sincerely do we mourn the loss of a Prince so truly patriotic, so firmly attached to our glorious Constitution, so justly endeared to us as the patron of almost every benevolent institution which enriches and adorns our land, and especially as the zealous and unwearied promoter of the discipline, honour, and welfare of the British army.

But while as men we lament the great loss we have sustained, we feel that, as Christians, it is our duty humbly and devoutly to submit to the Divine Will, on this as well as every other dispensation of Providence, and with our regret for departed excellence, to mingle our united and fervent prayers that Almighty God may pour down upon your Majesty an abundant portion of the spirit of meek resignation, and that you may long sit on the Throne of your august Ancestors, to sway the British sceptre over a dutiful and prosperous Nation, and continue to receive the unshaken allegiance of a loyal, united, and affectionate people.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster, beg to approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence on the death of His Royal Highness the late Duke of York.

While your Majesty laments a personal loss peculiarly your own; while one of the chief departments of our public strength is deprived of the presiding mind by which it had been so long and so successfully directed; and while all classes of your Majesty's subjects regret the departure of that benevolent spirit, whose kind offices had been felt wherever the wants of society required them; we also have to acknowledge our special grief at so afflicting an event.

As members of a church to which our lives are dedicated, we deeply lament the loss of him by whom its welfare was so well understood and so strenuously defended; a church, which, in the enjoyment of its own establishment, allows a lawful toleration to all others, yet, prudent in its indulgence, withholds from them only the means of endangering its safety, or disturbing its peace. We pray that he may still live in the principles which, from paternal ample he has maintained; that his public fortitude may be continued in all who shall be called to the succession of the Throne, and that every generation may cherish and defend a reformed church allied to a State essentially free. John Ireland, Dean.

[Delivered by the Very Rev. the Dean.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the High Bailiff and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, most humbly approach your Majesty with sentiments of the deepest sorrow and condolence upon the late afflictive dispensation of Providence, which has deprived your Majesty of an affectionate and justly beloved brother, and the Nation of a Prince whose pre-eminent public services will long live in the grateful recollection of his country, and whose loss can only be duly appreciated by a reference to the glorious results and substantial benefits which we, in common with the rest of our fellow subjects, are at this moment experiencing from his able and patriotic administration of the high and important functions of Commander-in-Chief, by which the character of the British army has been raised to a pitch of military renown, unexampled in the annals of our National History, and the blessings of peace restored to Europe.

To these expressions of unaffected sympathy upon the death of your Majesty's royal and lamented relative, we beg most humbly to add assurances, equally sincere, of our loyalty and affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, and our most fervent wishes and prayers that Providence may long continue the blessings of your Majesty's reign over a free and united people.

Given under our common seal, at Kidderminster aforesaid, the 5th day of February 1827.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty our unfeigned grief at the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, your Majesty's late beloved Brother, and the Commander-in-Chief of the forces of these United Kingdoms, an event carrying the most poignant affliction to your royal bosom and the people, and depriving your Majesty and the Nation of a continuance of services the most efficient and meritorious, by which the military character of this country has been raised to the highest pitch of glory and renown.

We trust that the lamentations and condolence of your Majesty's loyal subjects, offered in sincerity and truth, will alleviate the sorrowing feeling for the irreparable loss of him we are now mourning, and that it will give place to the contemplation, that his many and transcendent qualities are duly estimated by the present generation, and that with his illustrious name, will be transmitted a record to posterity, of a Prince worthy his high descent, the firm supporter of the Throne and the Constitution of the Country.

In offering to your Majesty these expressions of our sentiments on the melancholy occasion, we humbly implore the Great Disposer of all Events, the God of all Mercies, to preserve your Majesty, and to bless your Majesty's Councils for the public good; so shall this happy country, in the continuance of your Majesty's parental, beneficent, and wise exercise of kingly power, be fostered into a greatness not yet attained by any nation, and your Majesty's subjects, in willing obedience to your authority shall hail, in the long life of your Majesty, the surest pledge of their own prosperity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Right Reverend the Bishop, the Venerable the Archdeacons, and the Reverend the Clergy of the Diocese of Durham.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, humbly beg leave to present to your Majesty the tribute of our heartfelt condolence on the recent loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the recent loss of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, your Majesty's illustrious Brother, and Heir Presumptive to the Throne of these Realms.

It is with no ordinary emotion that we contemplate an event so personally afflicting to your Majesty, and so universally lamented by every faithful member of the community: in that event we recognise, not only the loss of those high qualities and attainments, which had obtained for His Royal Highness a pre-eminence of character and conduct never to be forgotten, in the administration of his high office as Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's military forces, but also the loss of that firm and uncompromising spirit in the maintenance of the fundamental principles of our invaluable Constitution in

Church and State, which ensured the affection and admiration of all ranks of people capable of duty appreciating its manifold benefits: to this the general voice of the public has already borne a testimony, than which none, we are persuaded, can be more accordant to your Majesty's feelings.

It would ill become us to intrude further upon your Majesty's private sorrows on this afflicting occasion; we feel it incumbent upon us only to add, that while we thus deeply deplore an occurrence that has filled the Nation with grief, we cannot but confidently hope that the influence of such an example as was exhibited in His Royal Highness, of ardent attachment, both to the general interests of the community, and to those of our Protestant Establishment in particular, will long survive his decease, and lead others, of whatever rank or station, to pursue the same undeviating course for the public good.

Most fervently do we supplicate the Great Author and Giver of all Good, to afford to your Majesty the best and purest consolations under this dispensation of His providence: long may your Majesty be preserved in health and prosperity, to reign in the hearts of your grateful and affectionate subjects, and may it please the Almighty to bless, as hitherto, your Majesty's counsels and endeavours for the welfare of the people committed to your charge.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Town and County of Poole, in full Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Majesty and the Royal Family, by the demise of your Majesty's august and most affectionate Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

While we are aware your Majesty acutely feels, and deeply deplores his loss, on the ground of natural affection, we cannot but be sensible how greatly that feeling must be heightened, by the consideration that your Majesty will thereby be deprived of the many highly important services of the Royal Duke, and especially those which attach to the exalted station so long held by him as Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's army.

We feel that it would be unjust to the memory of the illustrious Duke, not to express our fullest concurrence in the general acknowledgment by the Nation, of the noble and independent principles by which the Royal Duke was actuated in the discharge of his high official duties, as also of the great advancement in discipline and effectiveness of the army under his very able and judicious management.

May the Supreme Governor of the Universe, who is able to repair every loss, pour down his blessing on your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and may that peace and unanimity, which so happily exist among all classes of your Majesty's subjects, long be maintained and preserved, that Great Britain, so eminently distinguished for her power and great ness, may also be pre-eminent for the tranquillity, prosperity, and happiness of her inhabitants

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, this 7th day of February 1827.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sincere sentiments of sorrow and condolence on the loss your Majesty and the Country have sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Attached by every principle of loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family, we deeply participate in the affliction of your Majesty on this melancholy event.

We acknowledge with gratitude the obligations this country owes to His Royal Highness, who, by his watchful attention to that great department of the State entrusted to his care, and by a kind and anxious solicitude extended not only to the comforts of the soldier and the veteran, but the solace of the widow and orphan, while it raised the British army to a degree of excellence, leading to deeds of glory which will be a bright feature in the annals of your Majesty's reign, and while it has endeared his memory to all, will be the last and surest monument of his fame.

We beg to add our earnest prayers that the Almighty may bless your Majesty with a continuance of health, and that your Majesty's reign may be prolonged in peace and happiness for many years.

Signed in the name, and by appointment of a General Meeting of the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Dumfries, assembled at Dumfries, this 14th day of February 1827 years. Robert Laurie, Preses.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and Magistrates of Towns of the County of Renfrew, beg humbly, but earnestly, to lay before your Majesty the assurance of our deep participation in the national grief.

Impelled by our devoted attachment, we most respectfully presume to offer our heartfelt condolence to your Majesty on the deplored death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and in the devout hope of assuaging the intensity of your Majesty's affliction, we venture anxiously to dwell on the proud and soothing contemplation of the eminent public life, and beneficent private character of your Majesty's late illustrious and beloved Brother; and while in fervent sympathy with your Majesty, we tenderly recall the many endearing qualities and noble virtues which graced and exalted the Prince whom we so truly lament: we shall ever remember, with profound admiration and unceasing gratitude, the vast services rendered to his country by the late illustrious Commander-in-Chief, in the formation of her renowned army, and in the devotion of his life to the public good.

That your Majesty's health may not suffer from the severity of sorrow, and that your Majesty may very long be spared to live in the affections and to reign in the hearts of your people, is the earnest prayer of your most grateful and devoted subjects of the Barony of Renfrew.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by William Mure, of Caldwell, Vice Lieutenant of the said County, at Renfrew, the 30th day of February 1827.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, to express our unfeigned and heartfelt condolence with your Majesty on the affliction with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your Majesty and the whole Nation, by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

Knowing the warm affection which always subsisted between your Majesty and your illustrious Brother, we sympathise deeply with your Majesty on this sorrowful occasion: it will, we hope, be no small consolation to your Majesty to know, that the pre-eminent merits of His late Royal Highness are universally felt and acknowledged, not only by the army, which, under his long and admirable administration, attained to such a pitch of unrivalled glory, but also by all classes of your Majesty's subjects, who entertain the deepest sense of the invaluable services of the late Commander-in-Chief: but on the merits of His Royal Highness we presume not to dwell; they will long live, we are confident, in the grateful recollection of the army over which His Royal Highness presided with such wisdom, impartiality and kindness, and they will be celebrated by the future historians of the age and nation in which His Royal Highness acted so conspicuous a part, and of which he was so distinguished an ornament.

That the God of all consolation may comfort your Majesty on this sorrowful occasion, and that your reign may be long and prosperous, are the earnest prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick.

In no part of your Majesty's dominions have the inestimable qualities of that illustrious individual been more highly venerated; nor will those invaluable blessings which, during the long and arduous administration of his high office, he has bequeathed to his country, be more lastingly remembered, or more gratefully felt, than in the bosoms of every member of the community to which we belong.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Close and City of Peterborough.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects,

the Inhabitants of the Close and City of Peterborough, humbly beg leave to approach your Throne with the expressions of our sincere and deep felt sorrow at the great loss which your Majesty and this whole Nation have sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Our attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our sense of the many blessings which we have enjoyed under the dominion of the House of Brunswick, must make us feel regret at any event which causes sorrow to your illustrious Family; but on the present occasion we are peculiarly sensible of the heavy affliction which your Majesty experiences at the loss of a beloved brother, to whom you have been through life affectionately attached; while we offer our humble expressions of condolence at the heavy loss experienced by your Majesty, we cannot refrain from declaring our full sense of the great benefits conferred upon this whole Empire by His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, during the long period that he filled the office of Commander-in-Chief; it is universally acknowledged that His Royal Highness's extraordinary and un-emitting attention to improve the discipline and state of the British army, was the principal means of elevating it to a superiority over all the armies of the Continent; this army, formed under his fostering care, has been enabled to achieve a series of victories scarcely paralleled in history, and has been the main instrument of overthrowing a despotism which threatened the safety and independence of all the Nations of Europe.

A recollection of this fact will ever endear the memory of his Royal Highness to the hearts of all Englishmen, and will be considered as one among the many obligations which the people of this country owe to the House of Brunswick.
