FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1827.

At the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Owen John Augustus Fuller Meyrick, of Bodorgan, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Anglesey, in the room of Richard Bulkeley Williams Bulkeley, of Baronhill, Esq.

And His Majesty was pleased to make the following amendments upon the roll:

Hertfordshire,	Joseph Latour, of Hexton, Esq. made Joseph Andrew Lautour, of Hexton-House, Esq.
Carmarthenshire,	Joseph Gulstone, Esq. made Joseph Gulston, Esq.
Pembrokeshire,	Anthony Innys Stokes, of Scoveston, Esq. made Anthony Innys Stokes, of Saint Botolphs, Esq.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling, assembled at Stirling, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, for the purpose of expressing our cordial attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our deepest sympathy under the afflictive dispensation with which it has pleased

Almighty God to visit your Majesty and the Country, by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

It is not possible for us to express how deeply we deplore that event, which, in the person of His late Royal Highness, has deprived the British army of one, who in his high official character raised that army to a state of unprecedented excellence, discharged the duties of his office with such impartiality and kindness, watched over its moral and religious improvement, no less than its military discipline, provided for the comfort of its soldiers, not only when engaged in active service, but when unfitted for it by reason of wounds, or sickness, or old age, and for the support of the widows and children of those whose lot it was to fall in the defence of their country.

That the God of all consolation may grant to your Majesty His divine support in the season of affliction, and that He may bless your Majesty with a long and peaceful, and prosperous reign over a loyal and affectionate people, is the prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling, assembled at Stirling this 13th day of February 1827 years, and subscribed in our name and presence, and by our appointment.

John Dempster, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Rev. J. Dempster, Moderator.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, in the County of Hereford, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our sincere condolence on the ever-to-be-lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

The zeal, ability, and impartiality with which His Royal Highness discharged the arduous duties of his high and important office as Commander-in-Chief of the British army, the firmness and attachment at all times displayed by him in the support of the Constitution of his Country, and the kind and amiable qualities of his heart, so universally acknowledged, have justly endeared his memory to a grateful and sorrowing
