FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1827.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Town of Lancaster, in your Majesty's Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, in Council assembled, beg most respectfully to offer to your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence and heartfelt sympathy, on the lamented death of your late beloved brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

The loss of so affectionate and illustrious a brother, so eminently distinguished by those social and amiable virtues, which add lustre to greatness, must be an occurrence truly distressing and afflicting to your Majesty, and to every Member of the Royal Family.

The very efficient manner in which His Royal Highness fulfilled his high and important duties as Commander-in-Chief, his judicious arrangements, his beneficent exercise of power, and the many excellent qualities which graced his character, render this event a heavy calamity to the whole of the British Empire.

As a Legislator of the Realm, His Royal Highness had secured to himself the confidence of the British people by his consistency, and by his firm and steady attachment to our matchless Constitution.

We are well assured that this severe visitation will press heavily on your Majesty, yet we hope to be permitted, with dutiful submission, to express our most earnest wish, that the Great Disposer of Events may infuse into your Majesty's heart that consolation which is so needful in the hour of affliction.

Our fervent prayer is, that your Majesty may long enjoy a prosperous reign; and that a life, so essential to the interests of the Empire, and to the happiness of a free and loyal people, may long be preserved.

Given under the common seal of the said Town, this 16th day of February, in the year 1827, and in the eighth year of your Majesty's reign.

By Order of Council,

Jno. Taylor Wilson, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Thomas Greene, Esq.]

To His Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Deacons of Incorporations of Lanark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Deacons of the Incorporated Trades of the Royal Burgh of Lanark, beg to approach your Royal Throne, and to lay at your Majesty's feet the expression of those feelings of deep sorrow which we entertain, in common with every one of your Majesty's subjects, and which have been called forth by the death of your Royal brother, the ever-to-be-lamented Duke of York and Albany.

In lamenting the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, it is not alone the death of a Prince of the illustrious House of Hanover that we deplore, it is the death of an individual who, independently of illustrious birth, has endeared his memory to every subject in the British Realm.

It is not for us to enumerate the merits and the virtues of His Royal Highness, or the service he has rendered to the country. They are commemorated in a more imperishable record. We can only lament his loss, and entreat that we may be permitted to condole with your Majesty on the loss which you have sustained by the death of a brother who, while he was the idol of the people, was one of the brightest ornaments of the Throne.

That the King of kings, who is the only comforter, may comfort your Majesty, and may prolong your days, to reign over a people, attached to your sacred Person by every tie of loyalty and duty, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and most dutiful subjects.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, and the seal of the Burgh is hereto affixed, at Lanark, the 21st day of February, 1827 years.

Robert Thos. Anson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sir,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, resident Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Ludlow, most humbly desire to offer to your Majesty their sincere condolence on the lamented death of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

In him your Majesty has to mourn the decease of the most illustrious of your subjects, and the most affectionate of brothers; the British Army has been deprived of a Commander-in-Chief, whose consummate talents had raised its character to the highest point of glory; and the Nation has lost the firmest supporter of its Constitution, both in Church and State.

That it may please Divine Providence to preserve your Majesty in health and happiness; and that you may long continue to reign in the hearts of a grateful people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and devoted subjects.

Thomas Hill Lowe, Bailiff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the City of Chichester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants, of the City of Chichester, deeply affected by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, beg leave most respectfully to offer our sincere condolence for the melancholy loss of an illustrious Prince, your Majesty's dutiful and affectionate brother, who acquired the esteem and gratitude of the public, by the steadfast and firm support which His Royal Highness afforded to the Constitution established in Church and State.

As Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Army, the services of His Royal Highness were most eminently conspicuous, by his superintending care, judicious appointments, and impartial conduct, in improving the discipline and exalting the character of the whole British Army. The importance of the services thus rendered to his country, have been universally acknowledged.

The country has sustained a loss which has spread a deep and unfeigned gloom throughout the United Kingdom, and the voice of sorrow and lamentation will be heard in whatever clime a Briton may be stationed.

We again tender to your Majesty our sincere and earnest assurance of attachment to your Royal Person, and may Divine Providence grant consolation to your Majesty under this severe visitation, and alleviate the anguish of your Royal breast; and we fervently hope that your Majesty may be long preserved to promote the glory of the Crown, the happiness of your people, and to direct the affairs of the British Empire.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Councilmen, and other Inhabitants of the King's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, in Common Hall assembled, humbly solicit permission to present this, our imperfect tribute of affectionate regard, to your Majesty's Royal Person.

Influenced by feelings of deep and unfeigned sorrow, we sincerely condole with your Majesty on the late mournful occasion of the death of your illustrious brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, one of the most distinguished of your Royal Family.

We cannot but reflect on this lamentable event as a great interruption to your Majesty's domestic happiness, and as a calamity which has deprived the Nation of a most loyal subject, and valuable public officer.

We therefore most humbly beg to sympathise with your Majesty on the serious loss we have sustained, and to assure your Majesty of our firm attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and that your Majesty may long be spared to rule over a loyal and free people, is the sincere prayer of, Sir, your most faithful and devoted subjects.

To His Majesty KING George the Fourth, &c. &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Masters, Wardens, and Brethren, of the Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and Accepted Masons, of the County of Armagh, assembled at the Market-Hill, in the said County, on the 20th day of February 1827, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, with the sincerest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person.

While the general voice of the Nation is raised to lament over the grave of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, we, who during his life, were united to him by the firmest bonds of faithful attachment, cannot but sympathise with your Majesty, in the sorrow which we in common must feel for the loss of an affectionate brother, and our tried, truest, and best friend.

The more we look into the retrospect of the life of the lamented Prince, who is now no more, distinguished as it was by so many eminent services to his country; the greater cause do we find deeply to regret the departure from this world of that illustrious personage; possessing, as he did, those great and valuable qualities, so well adapted to render him the glory of a great people.

As the first military personage in the Nation, every true lover of his country must long regret his irreparable loss; for to his distinguished talents, and to his love of justice, is owing, in a great measure, the pitch of unrivalled excellence which the British Army has attained. His conduct was, throughout his military career, marked by those principles and virtues, calculated to adorn the most exalted station in the Kingdom.

The death of His Royal Highness is, in those respects, a great national affliction; but your Majesty must feel besides a private and personal sorrow, for in him you have to mourn the loss of a warm friend, and a beloved brother; and herein do we most heartily condole with your Majesty; for, from one who was early attached to your Royal Person by the dearest ties and most sincere affection, your Majesty could not separate without the recollection of past endearments, increasing the sorrow under which your Majesty naturally suffers; yet, if it can be any alleviation of that grief, which we deeply lament, your Royal mind must experience, that the memory of one so dear shall long live in the hearts of your faithful subjects. We beg to assure your Majesty, that the recollection of your illustrious brother shall draw us more closely, in faithful adherence, round the Throne which your Majesty so gloriously fills; and that you may long continue to reign over this Nation, and in the hearts of an attached people, is the humble, but sincere, wish of your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Masters, Wardens, and Brethren, of the Ancient and Honourable Society of the Free and Accepted Masons of the County of Armagh, Ireland.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common Hall assembled, deeply participating in the sympathy of a sorrowing Nation, offer to your Majesty the homage of our sincere condolence on the loss sustained by your Majesty, and the people of these Realms, in the lamented decease of the illustrious Prince, Frederick Duke of York and Albany.

In describing this national calamity as an event which has at once deprived your Majesty of an affectionate brother and upright councillor—our established religion of an undaunted and zealous supporter—the army of a firm indefatigable friend, and most able Commander—and the British Nation of a bright example of public and private excellence—we feel assured that we speak the sentiments of all your Majesty's loyal subjects.

We embrace this opportunity of renewing to your Majesty the assurance of our unalterable and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and of our most ardent wish and hope that your Majesty may, by the blessing of Divine Providence, long live and reign over a loyal and united people.

Given under our common seal, the 24th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1827, and in the eighth year of your Majesty's reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Stourbridge and Parish of Oldswinford, in the County and Diocese of Worcester, most humbly approach your Throne, to express our cordial sympathy in the heavy affliction with which, by a severe dispensation of Providence, your Majesty has been recently visited, in the decease of your lamented and illustrious brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Private sorrow for the loss of a relative so affectionate and deservedly beloved, must necessarily be experienced in your benevolent and Royal breast, in the most pungent and distressing degree; but we hope your Majesty's feelings upon this melancholy and trying occasion, will be greatly soothed by the universal regret which the Nation manifests for the departure of transcendent excellence; and the deprivation of services so long tried, and so highly and justly appreciated in an elevated and most important station.

In the field, during the horrors of a defensive and revolutionary war, His Royal Highness, as Commander-in-Chief, displayed invincible courage, the general characteristic of his august family. As the reformer and regenerator of the army, his military discipline and well-considered regulations had such a gradual and meliorating influence, that the British Forces now stand unrivalled by any troops in Europe; and his kind, courteous, and condescending attention to the welfare and comforts of the privates, with his humane and unceasing efforts to mitigate the sufferings of wives widowed, and children rendered orphans, have not only called forth public testimonials of respect, and the thankful acknowledgments of his country, but given his name and memory a place in the best of all mausoleums, the bosom of the grateful and the good.

May Almighty God grant to your Majesty bodily health and internal consolation, and long preserve to us a reign, distinguished by unparalleled blessings, by the administration of justice, and the exercise of mercy, and an anxious paternal regard for the happiness and prosperity of the kingdom.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Officers of the Masonic Lodges, Nos. 143, 275, 421, Dungannon, beg leave to approach your Majesty, under the deepest sense of sorrow and affliction for the loss which we, in common with all other your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, have sustained, in that brightest star—that effulgence—that luminary of our Order—which has set below our mortal horizon, to rise no more.

We also beg leave to offer condolence and sympathy to your Majesty, together with the other Members of your illustrious House, on this melancholy occasion, for the irreparable deprivation your Majesty and the United Kingdom have suffered at this critical and alarming period, in the decease of your Majesty's most august brother, the dearly beloved and the ever-will-be-lamented Frederick of York.

We have now only to pray, that many years may be added to your Majesty's most useful life; and that the time may be far distant when your Majesty's illustrious House may again have to lament so deep a wound.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumfries, in Common Council assembled.

Deeply sensible, in common with every British subject, of the magnitude of the loss which your Majesty and the Country have sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, beg leave to tender our humble but sincere expression of sorrow and condolence.

Well aware that the nation only appreciates the distinguished services of the valiant Commander-in-Chief, which were performed on a theatre too splendid to be overlooked, we deem it unnecessary to re-echo the praises which his country has deservedly lavished upon him. But your Majesty will permit us to assure you, that we sincerely sympathise with your Majesty under this heavy dispensation, which has not only bereaved our Monarch of a most generous and warm-hearted Brother, but deprived our Army of a most gallant and estimable Commander.

Allow us, in conclusion, to add our fervent prayer, that Heaven may grant your Majesty consolation and support under the present severe affliction, and that you may long live to sway the sceptre over a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

Signed in our name and presence, and by our appointment, at Dumfries, the 24th day of February in the year 1827; and the seal of the Burgh is hereto affixed.

The dutiful Address of the Reverend the Presbytery of Forfar.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Members of the Presbytery of Forfar, at this our first meeting since the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, beg leave to express our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our sincere condolence on account of the loss which your Majesty has sustained in the death of your much loved and loving brother.

Whilst we lament the afflicting event, and sympathise with your Majesty and the other Branches of your Royal House, we take pleasure in reflecting on the many amiable and princely qualities for which His Royal Highness was distinguished. We are not insensible to the kindness which His Royal Highness displayed to all classes of the community, and his readiness to promote objects of benevolence throughout the land. We admire, in common with the whole Nation, the exemplary manner in which His Royal Highness discharged the duties of his office, as Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces, which, under the blessing of Providence, he improved the discipline, and raised the moral character of the British Army. Above all, we cherish the memory of our late Prince, for the uniform attachment which he discovered to the Protestant cause, a feature in his public character, which happily for the Nation, was not peculiar to His Royal Highness, but which distinguishes the Princes of the House of Brunswick.

That the King of kings and Lord of lords may administer consolation to your Majesty, that your Majesty and your Majesty's counsels may be blessed, that your Reign may be long and prosperous, and that you may late exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown, is the prayer which is constantly offered up at the Throne of Grace, by, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Forfar.

May it please your Majesty,

AT a Meeting of the Medico-Botanical Society of London, holden on Friday, the 12th of January, 1827.

On the Motion of John Frost, Esq., F.L.S., and Director, Seconded by Henry Brandreth, Esq.

It was resolved unanimously,—That this Meeting of the Members of the Medico-Botanical Society of London, of which His late Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany was the illustrious Patron, an Institution, the objects of which are not only calculated to render essential benefits to the medical Officers of the army, which attracted the particular attention of the late Most Excellent Duke of York, but also tending to the advantage of mankind generally, by discovering the medicinal properties of plants, a branch of science never before solely cultivated by any Institution in this country, beg to be permitted most respectfully to approach the Throne, to lay at your Majesty's feet a dutiful and respectful condolence in the great loss which your Majesty has sustained in the death of your Royal and August brother, and to sympathise in that universal feeling of unfeigned grief, which now pervades all classes of your Majesty's loyal subjects, and they trust your Majesty will be graciously pleased to consider this as an humble testimony of the heartfelt sorrow which prevails amongst the members of this Society, who deeply deplore the demise of His Royal Highness; and they pray that your Majesty's life may be long spared, to be that which has so pre-eminently marked your Majesty's reign, the patron of every institution that can tend to enlighten the minds, augment the happiness, and lessen the sufferings of your Majesty's subjects.

At the Annual General Court of the Governors of the Society of Friends of Foreigners in distress, held on the 1st day of March 1827.

William Vaughan, Esq., Treasurer, in the Chair.

Resolved unanimously,

THAT it is with feelings of the deepest sorrow and regret, that this General Court has to record the decease of His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany, one of the Patrons of this Society, who, by his benevolent and personal exertions, was ever ready to promote the best interests of the Institution, and especially by that condescending goodness which induced His Royal Highness, although pressed by the various avocations of his important station as Commander-in-Chief, to preside occasionally at the Anniversaries of the Society; thereby actuating and stimulating the zeal of its members and supporters, and advancing the great cause of charity.

That, as well on this account, as from a just estimate of the many public services and private virtues of this illustrious Prince, this Meeting, in common with the whole Empire, unite in deploring the great loss which the country has sustained by his lamented death.

That His Grace the Duke of Wellington, President, be requested to lay these Resolutions before His Most Gracious Majesty, as Protector of the Society, accompanied with the most dutiful and humble expressions of sympathy and condolence on the calamity with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit His Majesty and the Nation, by this melancholy event.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall, with feelings of unmitigated sorrow, presume to address to your Majesty, with our humble but most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the deeply lamented event of the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, your Majesty's next and much-beloved brother.

The distinguished fame and pre-eminent reputation of his late Royal Highness as Commander-in-Chief, characterised him not more than did the sentiments of singular affection and deep-rooted devotion by which he was regarded by many a veteran, widow and orphan, to whom, even in this, one of the most remote of your Majesty's dominions, the blessed influence of His Royal Highness's virtues extended. Those virtues were so numerous, and so great, were so universally admired, and have been the theme of so many a mournful Address, that it becomes us only to allude to them; but as they signified His Royal Highness in life, so will they, while memory is left us, embalm his name in our sorrowing recollections.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing our humble but ardent affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and of praying that the Almighty may be pleased long to preserve your Majesty to your faithful people, and your Family for ever on the Throne of these Realms.

Signed in our presence, and by our appointment, the common seal of the Burgh being hereunto affixed, by Alexander Mackenzie, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the renewed assurances of our sincere and dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Yielding to none of your Majesty's subjects in loyalty and devotion to your illustrious House, and anxious as we are, at all times, to manifest towards it our unfeigned sentiments of fidelity and respect, we feel ourselves at the present moment, peculiarly called upon to address to your Majesty the expressions of our sympathy and condolence upon the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, an event equally afflicting to us, whether contemplated as the source of domestic sorrow to your Majesty, or as a subject of national regret.

With reference to the former consideration, we duly estimate, and sincerely deplore, the heavy loss which your Majesty has sustained, in the death of a brother, long endeared to you by an intimate acquaintance with his individual character, a knowledge of his private virtues, and the affectionate intercourse of domestic life.

With the Empire at large, we participate in the general sentiment of grief and concern at the loss which the service has experienced, of a valuable and most efficient public functionary, who, by his judicious, faithful, humane, and impartial discharge of the duties of a high and important official situation, had, for a series of years, continued to improve every department of our military establishments, to advance the national glory, and mainly to contribute to the success and renown of your Majesty's arms.

We entreat that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this our humble tribute to the memory of a beloved and lamented Prince, in whom we have been accustomed to recognise the hereditary virtues and constitutional principles which have distinguished his illustrious House, and by which it has so long continued to reign in the hearts and affections of a free people.

Signed by order,

Wm. Jones Westby, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Wm. Jones Westby, High Sheriff for the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Deputy Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Carnarvon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Deputy Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Carnarvon, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Person, anxious to express our sincere and heartfelt condolence under the heavy calamity with which it has pleased Almighty God to afflict your Majesty, in common with the rest of the Royal Family; and your Majesty's subjects in general, in the death of His much lamented Royal Highness the late Duke of York.

Under similar visitations, throughout all ranks of society, we are taught to look up for consolation to that Supreme Power, who, in His infinite wisdom, has deemed it fitting to inflict the painful wound; and seldom is the healing balm withheld by an allmerciful Redeemer. In the present melancholy instance, benign Providence has vouchsafed unto your Majesty an ample and permanent source of consolation, in the widely extended love and admiration of the character and talents of His late Royal Highness, whose services to his country are indelibly engraven upon the hearts of your Majesty's grateful, though sorrowing, subjects, throughout this vast and powerful Empire. The blessing of the widow, and the orphan's prayer, offered up in thankful remembrance of His Royal Highness's boundless benevolence and charity, have followed him even to the grave.

With a melancholy anxiety, we avail ourselves of this opportunity to record the esteem and gratitude with which we shall ever cherish the memory of His late Royal Highness, for his powerful and steady support of our glorious Constitution, as established by law, in Church and State, commanding, by the frank and manly course which he adopted, while upholding his opinions on this momentous subject, the respect and admiration of his most determined and zealous opponents.

Most humbly and most fervently do we implore the great Disposer of events that He will be pleased to alleviate your Majesty's sufferings, under this severe trial; and that He will further bless this already highly favoured nation, by granting to your Majesty health and long life.

Signed for ourselves, and in behalf of the Burgesses and other Inhabitants, W. Jones, Deputy Constable and Deputy Mayor; Robert Humphrys and R. M. Preece, Bailiffs.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Anglesey.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Kinross, venture to lay at your Majesty's feet our humble expressions of deep affliction and sincere condolence, on the calamitous death of your Majesty's Royal brother, the Duke of York; the purity of whose public conduct, and the benefit of whose public services silenced the voice of slander, and has engraved his name in the hearts of all your Majesty's subjects.

It would be presumption in us to hope to raise the character of this illustrious Prince in public esteem, or to add to the veneration entertained for his memory. But we cannot refuse to ourselves the melancholy satisfaction of most humbly expressing to your Majesty our admiration of the manner in which His Royal Highness discharged all the important duties of his station. When distinguished merit was to be rewarded, he was governed by the most correct estimate of that merit. When the less distinguished course of good and honourable service occurred for consideration, justice uniformly directed his acts.

The philanthropy of his nature, and the excellence of his understanding, led him to the constant contemplation of what was for the good of the soldier, and of the service; while his great experience, and his unerring judgment, enabled him to give the best direction to the attainment of his humane and useful plans.

The unremitting and unostentatious manner with which His Royal Highness devoted himself, throughout the long period in which he acted as Commander-in-Chief, to his laborious duties, can never be effaced from our remembrance. It is to his persevering attention and judicious conduct that the Nation owes the high character and unexampled discipline of all ranks of the British army.

Having thus presumed to advert to the public conduct of this exalted personage, we humbly hope your Majesty will pardon our expressing the opinion we have formed of the private character of the Prince, whose loss we deplore; of his filial piety, his brotherly love, the steadiness of his private friendships, his inflexible love of truth, the benignity of his nature, his unassuming deportment. Such are the indelible impressions which we have received of the qualities of the brother, the friend, and the subject, whose departure from this life has been to your Majesty the cause of such sincere and poignant grief, from which we devoutly pray to Almighty God to relieve your Majesty; and to preserve you in life and health long to rule over a loyal people, grateful for the glorious, the wise, and the gentle sway which has distinguished your Majesty's Regency, and your Reign.

By command and direction of the meeting, this Address is signed by William Adam, Preses, His Majesty's Lieutenant for the County of Kinross.

BERWICK-UPON-TWEED.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Luna, 19^o die Martii 1827.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of the several persons whose names are thereunto subscribed, electors of the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, complaining of an undue election and return for the said town, have this day reported to the House of Commons, that the merits of the petition did depend in part upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the Committee required the Counsel for the several parties to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of voting for elections of Members of Parliament for the town and borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed is in the freemen of the said borough residing, inhabiting, and paying scot and lot therein."—That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election is in the freemen of the town and borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed."—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the town and borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed. That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said town and borough. That the Committee have determined, that the right of voting is in the Burgesses who have been regularly admitted and sworn; that a Burgess who has gone to reside without the precincts of the borough, whenever he returns within its limits has a right to exercise and enjoy all the rights and privileges of the borough, unless he has, in the mean time, for just cause and in regular form, been amoved by the Corporation, and so disfranchised:

I do hereby give notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trials of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in Parliament."

Given under my hand the 19th day of March 1827.

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, March 16, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of Sunday the 18th of February last, a barn, in the neighbourhood of Billericay, in the county of Essex, and in the occupation of Mr. James Bassom, of that place, was maliciously set on fire and entirely consumed, with a quantity of wheat and peas, in the straw, contained therein; and that in the evening of Saturday the 3d instant, a cottage, situate at the extremity of the said village of Billericay, belonging to the Right Honourable Lord Petre, and inhabited by one of his Lordship's woodmen, was burglariously entered by five men armed, who robbed the said cottage of money and other property;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices in either case, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Essex and Suffolk Equitable Insurance Company, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned in the said arson; and a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is also hereby offered to any person who shall discover the offenders concerned in the said burglary, so that, in either case, he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

WHEREAS by indenture, bearing date the 21st day of May, in the year 1750, Elizabeth Jones and the Rev. Charles Jones did grant and demise unto the Right Honourable Lord Baron Mornington, Chichester Fortescue, Samuel Bridges, and Theobald Wolfe, that plot of ground on the north side of Lazors'-hill, now Townsend-street, whereon the Westmorland Lock Hospital has since been erected, being in the county of the city of Dublin, to have and to hold unto them and the survivors and survivor of them, his heirs and assigns, for three lives therein named, with a covenant for perpetual renewal, at and under the rent and fines therein specified; and whereas by deed of renewal, made 3d January 1752, by and between the same parties, the life of the Honourable Garrett Wesely was substituted in place of that of His Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, then late deceased, one of the lives named in said lease; and whereas all the said lessees and lives in said lease and renewal are long since dead, and the representatives or heirs or assigns of said lessees have not obtained a further renewal of said lease; and whereas all the right and interest of said lessors in and to the said premises is now vested in me, the undersigned; and whereas I have demanded on the said premises all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided; I hereby require the person or persons in whom the right to have a renewal of said recited lease is now vested, within two calendar months from the date hereof, to pay to me all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, and which I now hereby demand, otherwise I will for ever hereafter resist any claim that may be set up to a renewal under said lease.—Dated this 28th day of February 1827.

Charles Bowen.

To all persons concerned.
