FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1827.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Town of Lancaster, in your Majesty's Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, in Council assembled, beg most respectfully to offer to your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence and heartfelt sympathy, on the lamented death of your late beloved brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

The loss of so affectionate and illustrious a brother, so eminently distinguished by those social and amiable virtues, which add lustre to greatness, must be an occurrence truly distressing and afflicting to your Majesty, and to every Member of the Royal Family.

The very efficient manner in which His Royal Highness fulfilled his high and important duties as Commander-in-Chief, his judicious arrangements, his beneficent exercise of power, and the many excellent qualities which graced his character, render this event a heavy calamity to the whole of the British Empire.

As a Legislator of the Realm, His Royal Highness had secured to himself the confidence of the British people by his consistency, and by his firm and steady attachment to our matchless Constitution.

We are well assured that this severe visitation will press heavily on your Majesty, yet we hope to be permitted, with dutiful submission, to express our most earnest wish, that the Great Disposer of Events may infuse into your Majesty's heart that consolation which is so needful in the hour of affliction.

Our fervent prayer is, that your Majesty may long enjoy a prosperous reign; and that a life, so essential to the interests of the Empire, and to the happi-
