

ceiving and getting in the debts and effects due or belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, and otherwise to assist the said Assignee in the investigation, managing, and winding up of the same estate, and to authorise the payment by the said Assignee of such wages and remuneration to the said person so employed as shall be thought reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting or compromising any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings at law or in equity, for the recovery of the debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, or any of them, or any part thereof, or to submit to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any dispute, suit or difference that may exist or arise with any person or persons with reference thereto; and also to the said Assignee compromising with, taking security from, or giving time to any debtor or debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate, and accepting such composition or compositions in full satisfaction and discharge of the debt or debts so to be compromised; and to the said Assignee paying and allowing certain wages claimed and due to the servants or workmen of the said Bankrupts in full, in part or otherwise, as the said Assignee shall think fit and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee making such arrangements and compromises with any person or persons having or claiming to have any mortgage, lien, or other security, upon the real or personal estate of the said Bankrupts, or any part thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into effect and completing any contract or contracts for the sale of any part of the said Bankrupts' freehold estate; and also to take into consideration the charges contained in a certain petition, or certain petitions, to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain preferred by certain persons to be named at such meeting against the said Assignee and others; and to the allowing the costs, charges, and expences of answering or defending such petition, to be paid out of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and otherwise to authorize and sanction the said Assignee in such other proceeding, as to him the said Assignee may seem expedient, necessary, and proper to be adopted; and also to confirm and allow all or any of the acts and proceedings which may have already been adopted or done concerning the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Emerson and Samuel Simpson Emerson, late of the Whitechapel-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Corn-Factors, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 18th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the freehold, copyhold, and leasehold estates and interests of the said Bankrupts respectively, and also their several respective household-furniture, plate, linen, and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, to such person or persons, and for such price or prices as they the Assignees shall think proper; also to assent to and confirm or dissent from the appointment and employment by the Assignees of the accountant in making up the books, and in the collecting and management of the debts, estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, upon such terms, and with such allowance and compensation for his services as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, carrying on, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, of or concerning any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, or taking part of any debt in discharge for the whole, or giving time or taking security for payment of the same, and submitting to arbitration, compounding, compromising, or settling any accounts, debts, demands, causes, differences, and disputes, or other matters relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any part thereof, or otherwise agreeing any matter, cause, or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Hill, late of Stapleford Abbots, in the County of Essex, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing a suit in equity against certain persons, accountable to the Bankrupt's estate and to the Assignees for monies due to the Bankrupt in right of his wife, under a settlement made on the marriage of the mother of the Bankrupt's wife; and also against an Assignee of the same interest, under an assignment made shortly prior to the issuing of the said Commission; also to the said Assignees commencing one or more action or actions against a judgment Creditor, to recover such monies levied under a writ of execution against the Bankrupt's goods, or against the Sheriff or his officer, or other persons, in respect of the seizure and sale of the same goods; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangement or composition or settlement with the afore-mentioned parties, in respect of the matters aforesaid as they shall see fit; also to the said Assignees disposing of, either by private contract or public sale, the Bankrupt's interest in and to a certain agreement for lease under which he held the farm lately occupied by him at Stapleford Abbots; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the wages due to the servants of the said Bankrupt; also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery, protection, or defending any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; also to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Parry and John Underwood, of Change-Alley, Cornhill, London, Bill-Brokers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 18th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to direct where the monies arising by, and to be received from time to time out of the said Bankrupts' estate, should be paid into and remain until the same shall be divided, in consequence of the suspension of payment by the Bankers to whom the same monies were, at the meeting of Creditors for choice of Assignees, directed to be paid and remain until divided; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting from the said Bankers payment of the balance of such monies so paid in and belonging to the said estate, and now remaining in their hands, at such times, and by such instalments, and under such terms and conditions as proposed by the said Bankers; also to the said Assignees executing the deed of trust already prepared and executed by other of the Creditors of the said Bankers, and giving such receipts for the dividends and instalments which may accrue or become payable under such deed as may be required, or to the said Assignees compounding with the said Bankers in respect of such balance; also to assent to and confirm the sale by the Assignees of the respective household furniture, wines, pictures, plate, linen, and books of and belonging to each of the Bankrupts, and of the policies effected on the lives of the Bankrupts, or either of them; also to assent to and confirm the appointing and employment by the Assignees of the accountant in making up the books, and in the collecting and management of the debts, estate, and affairs of the said Bankrupts, prior and subsequent to the choice of Assignees, upon such terms, allowance, and compensation for his services as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of a freehold tenement of the said Bankrupts, in Spitalfields, and at such price or prices as they think fit, or can get for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, or any part thereof; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adjusting, settling, or entering into any composition or compromise with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupts' estate; or allowing time for payment of the debts, with or without security; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Marshall, late of College-Hill, Upper Thames-Street, in the City of London, Iron and Cooper-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman (but now a prisoner for debt in His Majesty's Prison