AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
Ever Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very loyal and dutiful subjects, the Seven Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumfries, humbly beg leave to tender our cordial and respectful sympathy and condolence on the late severe trial, the lamented demise of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, who was endeared to your Majesty by a uniform congeniality of fraternal affection, which happily subsisted between your Majesty and His Royal Highness from the earliest years; and deservedly endeared to us, in common with the Nation at large, as much by his kind condescension and impartiality in discharging the arduous duties of Commander-in-Chief, as even by the proud and cheering recollection of the unprecedented glorious achievements of the British army, justly attributed to the high state of discipline and unexampled organization, produced by the wise and equitable regulations of His Royal Highness, and rendered effective by the powerful and unremitting energy of his management.

We sincerely wish your Majesty may meet every consolation and relief under your present suffering; and pray, you may live long, and continue to reign in the hearts of a free and a loyal people.

With the strongest attachment to your Majesty's Person, Royal House, and Government, we are, devotedly, your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal subjects.

Alex. Howat, Convener; Wm. Gordon, Clerk.

[Transmitted by W. R. K. Douglas, Esq., M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County Palatine of Durham, assembled at a general meeting, convened by the High Sheriff, on the 1st day of March 1827, pursuant to public notice, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, with a dutiful Address, expressive of our condolence and sympathy in the irreparable loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany. Your Majesty, in the unbounded affection and devotion of a beloved brother; and the Nation, in a Royal Prince and Commander, eminently gifted to fulfil the duties of that high station, to which your Majesty's wisdom had called him.

It would be beyond the limits of this dutiful Address, to attempt to eulogise, as they deserve, the rare qualities and merits of the illustrious personage we deplore, which are not only the theme of universal panegyric, but which are deeply recorded in the hearts of your Majesty's subjects; but it is mainly our object, emphatically, to assure your Majesty, that we yield to no portion of your Empire in our deep participation in the sorrow in which your Royal mind has been plunged. And we are solicitous that these our feelings should be conveyed to your Majesty, with the expressions of that loyal and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's sacred person, for which we ever wish to be pre-eminently conspicuous.

The unanimous voice of the Nation in Parliament assembled, proves incontestibly the rare attributes and endowments of our late illustrious and much beloved Commander-in-Chief. These recorded testimonials of a grateful Nation, leave nothing to add, but to every eulogium that has been pronounced in the great Council of the Empire, we beg leave to assure your Majesty, we most cordially and sincerely subscribe; and could our humble voices add more forcibly to the soothing gratification such opinions must convey, we should venture to raise them in a similar strain. But at the present moment we have only to add to this our most dutiful and humble Address, our earnest and unceasing prayer to the Almighty, that your Majesty's life and prosperous reign may be long accorded to a grateful people; and that Providence, in His great mercy, may spare your Majesty's affectionate feelings and mind, during the remainder of your most valuable life, from afflictions so deep, and from sorrows so universally shared by all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

[Transmitted by Cuthbert Ellison, Esq. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, most humbly beg permission to approach the Throne with our just and loyal tribute of sincere and heartfelt sorrow and condolence, on the severe loss which your Majesty and the whole United Empire have sustained, by that afflictive dispensation of Divine Providence which has recently called your Majesty's late Royal Brother, Frederick Duke of York and Albany, from his high station in this life, to an eternal and happier world. Your Majesty has been bereaved of an affectionate brother, a faithful and loyal subject, and a zealous and conscientious supporter of the Throne, and that Constitution of which your Majesty is the head; and your faithful people have to lament the loss of a Prince, standing next to your Majesty, not only in succession to the Throne, which we humbly pray it may please the Almighty your Majesty may long fill, but in their hearts and affections. Under the severe affliction of this event, the poignancy of our grief is somewhat alleviated by the recollection, how justly His late Royal Highness was entitled to the place which he held in our esteem and regard, not only for his high rank in the State, and his princely and noble conduct, but his truly patriotic and constitutional principles, and his manly, zealous, and strenuous support of those principles upon all occasions; when his duty, as a Peer of the Realm and your Majesty's subject, required him, either in or out of Parliament, for the justice and impartiality which he executed the high and important office of Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces; and for those principles of integrity which guided him through life, long will his memory be cherished in affectionate remembrance by all your Majesty's subjects.

Permit us, Most Gracious Sovereign, to tender our assurance of affection, fidelity, and duty, to your Majesty; and our most sincere wishes, that your Majesty may, under the protection of Divine Providence, long sway the sceptre of these Realms.

Given at the Tolzey, in the Borough of Tewkesbury, under our common seal, the 2d day of March, in the eighth year of your Majesty's Reign.

Edmund W. Jones, and Chas. White, Bailiffs.

BOROUGH OF EAST LOOE.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Lord Porchester and Robert Campbell Scarlett, Esq. complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of East Looe, have this day reported to the House of Commons, that it appeared to the Committee, that the merits of the petition did depend in part upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the said Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners and the Counsel for the sitting Members, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election is in the inhabitants, householders, residents;"—That the Counsel for the sitting Members delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of East Looe, in the county of Cornwall, is in the Mayor and Burgesses of the said borough, being Members of the Corporation;"—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough.
