TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1827.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
Ever Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very loyal and dutiful subjects, the Seven Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumfries, humbly beg leave to tender our cordial and respectful sympathy and condolence on the late severe trial, the lamented demise of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, who was endeared to your Majesty by a uniform congeniality of fraternal affection, which happily subsisted between your Majesty and His Royal Highness from the earliest years; and deservedly endeared to us, in common with the Nation at large, as much by his kind condescension and impartiality in discharging the arduous duties of Commander-in-Chief, as even by the proud and cheering recollection of the unprecedented glorious achievements of the British army, justly attributed to the high state of discipline and unexampled organization, produced by the wise and equitable regulations of His Royal Highness, and rendered effective by the powerful and unremitting energy of his management.

We sincerely wish your Majesty may meet every consolation and relief under your present suffering; and pray, you may live long, and continue to reign in the hearts of a free and a loyal people.

With the strongest attachment to your Majesty's Person, Royal House, and Government, we are, devotedly, your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal subjects.

Alex. Howat, Convener; Wm. Gordon, Clerk.

[Transmitted by W. R. K. Douglas, Esq., M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County Palatine of Durham, assembled at a general meeting, convened by the High Sheriff, on the 1st day of March 1827, pursuant to public notice, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, with a dutiful Address, expressive of our condolence and sympathy in the irreparable loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany. Your Majesty, in the unbounded affection
