TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, most humbly beg to convey to your Majesty, the expression of our profoundest sorrow on the recent and most lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

If affliction can be mitigated in the royal bosom by the sympathy of the British empire, your Majesty will feel the poignancy of grief assuaged by the condolence of its people, who have for so many years contemplated, with unqualified pride and admiration, the royal and military attributes of our lamented Commander in Chief.

We repeat our expressions of sincere condolence, which, from a loyal and devoted people, we humbly trust may, in the hour of affliction, be some consolation to your Majesty.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, desire to lay before your Majesty our sentiments of deep condolence upon the afflicting dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit your Majesty, in the lamented dissolution of your Majesty's august Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

We forbear expatiating upon the many amiable qualities by which His Royal Highness was so eminently distinguished, and which justly endeared him to all classes of your Majesty's subjects, particularly to those who had the honour of serving in the British army during the long period in which His late Royal Highness so ably and impartially filled the high and important office of Commander in Chief.

If the retrospect of your Majesty's late august Brother's honourable career of public service can in any measure alleviate your Majesty's grief, for the loss of so near and beloved a relative, your Majesty may have the satisfaction of reflecting, that almost to his dying hour His Royal Highness devoted his talents and attention to the service of his country, and that he has departed amidst the lamentations of a grateful and affectionate people.

That your Majesty may be supported under your present affliction by the same almighty arm that has, in infinite wisdom, inflicted the blow, and that your Majesty's reign, hitherto distinguished by unparalleled glory and prosperity, may be long continued a blessing to the nation, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Carlisle, the 20th day of March, in the year of our Lord 1827.

Thomas Blamire, Mayor.
