FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1827.

Westminster, April 2, 1827.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to enable His Majesty to make further provision for their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Clarence.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty, for one year, certain duties on personal estates, offices, and pensions in England, and also certain duties on sugar imported into the United Kingdom for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven.

An Act for more conveniently paying the pensions of widows of Officers of the royal marines.

An Act to amend an Act, of the first year of His present Majesty, for the advance of money for carrying on public works in Ireland.

An Act to repeal an Act, of the twenty-eighth year of His late Majesty, for the better regulation of the manufacture of ounce thread.

An Act to continue, until the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, an Act of the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty, for rendering the payment of creditors more equal and expeditious in Scotland.

An Act for enabling the Justices of the Peace for the county of Essex, to raise money for defraying certain expences incurred under an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for building an additional gaol for the county of Essex, and for enlarging, improving, and altering the existing prisons for the same county," and for amending the said Act, and for extending the powers thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto.

An Act to authorise the Company of Proprietors of the Canterbury and Whitstable Railway to vary the line of the railway, to raise a further sum of money for completing their works, and to alter and enlarge the powers of the Act passed for making and maintaining the said railway.

An Act for more effectually repairing several roads in and through His Majesty's Forest of Dean, and the waste lands thereto belonging, in the county of Gloucester, and in the parishes of Newland, Awre, and Lydney, in the said county; and for making and maintaining several new roads in and adjoining the said Forest.

An Act for more effectually repairing and maintaining the road from Foxley Hatch, in the parish of Croydon, into the town of Reigate, in the county of Surrey.

An Act for more effectually improving and keeping in repair the several roads leading to and from the town of Barnstaple, in the county of Devon, and for making certain new lines of road to communicate with the same.

An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the roads from the Buck's Head, at Watling-street, to Beckbury and the New Inn, and from the Birches-brook to the hand post in the parish of Kemberton; and for making a new branch of road from a place called Ball's-hill, in the parish of Dawley, adjoining or near to the said roads, to or near to a place called Lawley, in the parish of Wellington, all in the county of Salop.

An Act for more effectually repairing the roads from the city of Gloucester to the top of Birdlip-hill, and from the foot of the said hill to the top of Crickley-hill, in the county of Gloucester.

An Act for repairing the road from Alford to Boston, and from thence to Cowbridge, in the township of Frithville, in the county of Lincoln.

An Act for more effectually amending and widening the roads from Penryn to Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, and for building a bridge over Penryn-river.

An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the road from Shillingford, in the county of Oxford, through Wallingford and Pangborne to Reading, in the county of Berks; and for repairing and maintaining a bridge over the River Thames, at or near Shillingford-ferry.

And three private Acts.

The Marquess Camden, K. G. Lord Lieutenant of the county of Kent, has, with His Majesty's approbation, taken the command of the West Kent Regiment of Militia. Dated 3d April 1827.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Trinity-House, London, April 4, 1827.

A Buoy has been laid at the Outer Gabbard Shoal, in place of that recently broken adrift.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

WARWICKSHIRE MILITIA.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Warwick will be held at the Judges' house, in the borough of Warwick, on Tuesday the 24th day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for carrying into execution the laws relating to the militia in that part of Great Britain called England.—Dated the 4th day of April 1827.

Tho. Wilmot, Clerk of the General Meetings.

IN pursuance of an Act, of the 55th George the Third, cap. 152, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty the sum of £20,000, to be issued and applied towards repairing roads between London and Holyhead by Chester, and between London and Bangor by Shrewsbury;" and of an Act of the 4th George the Fourth, cap. 74, intituled "An Act for vesting in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the River Conway, and the harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the road from Dublin to Howth; and for the further improvement of the road from London to Holyhead;" the Commissioners for carrying into execution the said Acts do hereby give notice, that they have determined that a new cut or piece of road, leaving the present road from London to Holyhead at a place called Whitley-bridge, in the county of the city of Coventry, and falling into the same road again at the village of Allesby, in the county of Warwick, shall be made and completed, pursuant to the provisions of the said recited Acts.

By order of the Commissioners,

A. Milne, Secretary.

Whitehall, April 4, 1827.

WHEREAS, by indenture, bearing date the 21st day of May, in the year 1750, Elizabeth Jones and the Rev. Charles Jones did grant and demise unto the Right Honourable Lord Baron Mornington, Chichester Fortescue, Samuel Bridges, and Theobald Wolfe, that plot of ground on the north side of Lazors'-hill, now Townsend-street, whereon the Westmorland Lock Hospital has since been erected, being in the county of the city of Dublin, to have and to hold unto them and the survivors and survivor of them, his heirs and assigns, for three lives therein named; with a covenant for perpetual renewal, at and under the rent and fines therein specified; and whereas by deed of renewal, made 3d January 1752, by and between the same parties, the life of the Honourable Garrett Wesley was substituted in place of that of His Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, then late deceased, one of the lives named in said lease; and whereas all the said lessees and lives in said lease and renewal are long since dead, and the representatives or heirs or assigns of said lessees have not obtained a further renewal of said lease; and whereas all the right and interest of said lessors in and to the said premises is now vested in me, the undersigned; and whereas I have demanded on the said premises all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided; I hereby require the person or persons in whom the right to have a renewal of said recited lease is now vested, within two calendar months from the date hereof, to pay to me all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, and which I now hereby demand, otherwise I will for ever hereafter resist any claim that may be set up to a renewal under said lease.—Dated this 28th day of February 1827.

To all persons concerned.

Armoury, near Horsham, which is well adapted for a large Manufactory, Brewery, or other extensive Establishment.

Office of Ordnance, March 27, 1827.

TO be sold or let by public tender, the Ordnance Depot and premises near Horsham, consisting of a large building of two lofty stories, about 74 feet in length and 33 feet wide, formerly used as an armoury, also two buildings used as magazines, a guard-house, armourers shops, four sheds, four dwelling-houses, with a separate court-yard, &c. to each; the whole enclosed by a high brick wall; together with about 3½ acres of land, in the centre of which the depot is erected. The buildings are of a very substantial kind, and capable of being adapted for a large manufactory, brewery, or a variety of other purposes, at a moderate expence.

Any persons desirous of either renting or purchasing this establishment, are requested to send their tenders, sealed, to the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, Pall-Mall, London, on or before the 20th day of April next. Any information required on the subject, will be afforded on application to Lieutenant-Colonel Gossett, Commanding Royal Engineer, Portsmouth; and the premises will be shewn by Mr. Lowe, who resides on the spot. If the premises should be let, the occupier will be expected to keep them in repair, and they will not be let for a less term than seven years.

By order of the Board,

R. Byham, Secretary.

Bank of England, April 5, 1827.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice, That they have made an agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to circulate Exchequer Bills made, or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament for that purpose now in force, for one year, to end the 3d April 1828.

R. Best, Secretary.

Westminster Fire-Office, King-Street, Covent-Garden.

THE General Meeting appointed by the deed of settlement to be held yearly on the last Thursday in April, or within ten days thereafter, for the choice of Auditors, and on other affairs, will be holden at this Office, on Thursday the 3d of May next, at twelve o'clock.

G. H. Browne, Secretary.

NODEHILL, NEWPORT, ISLE OF WIGHT.

To Brewers, Wine and Spirit-Merchants, Corn-Dealers, Grocers, and others.—Capital situation for Business.—Licenced Freehold Premises.

TO be sold by auction, by Love and Tucker, on the premises, on Saturday the 21st day of April 1827, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, by order of the Commissioners named, in a Commission of Bankrupt against Miles Booty;

All those extensive freehold premises, known by the name of the Grapes Wine Vaults, Nodehill, Newport, Isle of Wight, late in the possession of Miles Booty, on which the wholesale and retail wine, spirit, beer, and corn trades have been carried on for many years past, and on part whereof the businesses of a grocer, tea-dealer, &c. have been lately carried on in addition.

The premises are now divided into two parts, one comprising a spacious shop and counting-house; a dwelling-house, consisting of appropriate sitting-rooms, bed-rooms, kitchen, and wash-house; good under-ground cellars, stores, yard, out-buildings, and other conveniences; together with a compact and convenient brew-house and dwelling-house at the back part thereof.—The other part comprising a shop; a dwelling-house, consisting of a good sitting-room, three bed-rooms, and kitchen; a yard, and other conveniences.

For further particulars apply (if by letter post-paid) to Mr. Sowton, Solicitor, 27, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row, London; Mr. R. G. Kirkpatrick, Solicitor, Newport, Isle of Wight; or to the Auctioneers.

In the Matter of William Pyke, late of Bristol, Bromas-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, a Bankrupt.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt will be held at the White Lion, Broad-Street, in the City of Bristol, on the 30th of April instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to consent to or dissent from the Assignee of the said Bankrupt commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any debt or debts, or other property, due and owing to the estate of the said Bankrupt; or for compounding for any such debt or debts, or other property; and for other special purposes relating to the affairs of the said Bankrupt.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Thomson, of Stockwell-Park, in the County of Surrey, and of Shadwell, in the County of Middlesex, Biscuit Baker, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 27th day of April instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to carry on the School at Stockwell-Park; and to advance such monies as may be necessary for that purpose until the estate, property, and interest of the said Bankrupt therein can be beneficially disposed of; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of the estate, property, and interest of the said Bankrupt therein, either by public sale or private contract as may appear to the said Assignees most beneficial to the interest of the said Creditors; and in case it shall be found expedient to dispose of any part of the said property or effects by private contract, and at a limited credit, to take such security for the payment thereof as the said Assignees may be advised may be fairly done, with security for the due payment thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing the present head master of the said school as such head master, at the salary at which he was engaged by the said Bankrupt, and continuing the other assistants and servants of the establishment, and paying them the salaries that may be now due, and hereafter to grow due; to them for their services in attending the said school; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to investigate the accounts and make up the books relating to the dealings and transactions of the said Bankrupt and his late Partner, as Biscuit Bakers, at Shadwell, and of paying such accountant such remuneration for his services as may appear to be just; and to sell and dispose of all the estate, property, and interest of the said Bankrupt in the said joint concern, either by public sale or private contract as the said Assignees may conceive most to the interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, and finally to adjust and settle all accounts with the late Partner of the said Bankrupt, and to receive from the said Bankrupt's said Partner such balance as may appear to be due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to give a discharge for the same, after the said partnership accounts shall have been investigated; and also to consider and assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing any action, or taking such other proceedings as may be necessary, in respect of the joint property of the said Bankrupt and his late Partner; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, by public auction or private contract, the property and effects of the said Bankrupt at Spencer-Place, Brixton, to take such security for the payment thereof as the said Assignees may think expedient; and also to consider the propriety of giving up some articles of furniture upon the said premises, which are claimed by certain persons, who will be named to the Creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act in such manner as they may think most advisable for the general interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Fisher Longley, now or late of Ramsgate, in the Isle of Thanet, in the County of Kent, Carpenter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 30th day of April instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, at the Spread Eagle, in Ramsgate aforesaid, in order to take into consideration and determine as to the best course to be pursued by the said Assignees in regard to the sale and disposition of the said Bankrupt's property and effects for the benefit of his estate; and more especially to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the freehold estates of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, in such parcels, at such times, and upon such terms and conditions as to the said Assignees shall seem most beneficial; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing to the mortgagees of the freehold estates of the said Bankrupt, in satisfaction of their respective mortgage debts, the right and equity of redemption of the said Bankrupt in such parts of the same estates as shall be found to be insufficient to discharge the principal money and interest due upon the respective mortgages thereof; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adopting such measures as they may be advised with regard to a second mortgage, alleged to be granted by the Bankrupt to Messrs. Chatfield and Co. of a certain messuage or tenement and premises, situate in Wellington-Crescent, Ramsgate; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, the amount of certain sums of money paid and other expences incurred by the petitioning Creditor under the said Commission previously to the choice of Assignees, and of certain other costs and charges to be named at the said meeting; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting one or more action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, and to prefer or appear to any petitions that may be advised to bring, prosecute, prefer, appear to or oppose, and to defend and litigate any suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, to collect the outstanding debts of the said Bankrupt, and to allow such compensation to the person or persons so employed as the said Assignees shall deem just and reasonable; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking the opinion of Counsel on any points arising out of the said Bankrupt's affairs; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, and submitting any dispute or question to arbitration to such person or persons, in such manner, and on such terms as by the said Assignees may be deemed expedient and proper; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act and take such steps, and pursue such measures in and about the said Bankrupt's affairs, as by them in their discretion may be deemed expedient and proper; and on other special matters.
