Whitehall, April 17, 1827.

THE King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, constituting and appointing His Royal Highness William Henry Duke of Clarence, Admiral of His Majesty's Fleet, to be High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Dominions, Islands, and Territories thereunto belonging.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful subjects (being Members of the Orange Institution of Great Britain), most humbly approach your Majesty with declarations of the most unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to that illustrious House, of which your Majesty is the Head.

Associated as we are for the maintenance of loyalty and allegiance to a beloved Sovereign, identified (as we glory in avowing ourselves) with those principles which secured to us the invaluable blessings diffused over Great Britain by the august and ancient House of Brunswick, we could but ill deserve the appellation which we claim as loyal subjects, if we did not tender to your Majesty the expression of our most deep and heartfelt sorrow at the loss with which your Majesty and this Nation have been visited, in the death of that most beloved and illustrious Prince, your Majesty's affectionate Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

It is not possible for us, Most Gracious Sire, to do justice to the public virtues of that illustrious individual; his zeal, energy, and impartiality in the command of the army, have received from all classes that praise which they so justly deserved; nor do we reflect with less fondness or affection on those many noble, amiable traits which characterised in private life that gracious Prince.

Yielding, Sire, in loyalty, allegiance, and fidelity to your Majesty, to none of those dutiful subjects who have approached the Throne on this melancholy occasion, with all humility we venture to hope, that this our humble address of condolence may be enhanced in your Majesty's most gracious and royal estimation, when we state, that it is only within the space of one year, since we tendered an address of gratitude to that Royal Personage, now no more, which His Royal Highness graciously received and acknowledged, in full approbation of the principles by which our loyal and constitutional Institution was governed.

Participating most deeply and sincerely in your Majesty's sorrow, we can now only offer our humble prayers to the author and giver of all good things, that your Majesty may be speedily restored to your former serenity of mind; that you may live long in health, peace, and happiness, in the hearts and the affections of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects; and that when the troubles and toils of mortality are over, your Majesty may enjoy an eternal and imperishable crown of glory in the Kingdom of Heaven.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's loyal Island of Portland, most humbly request permission to approach your Royal Person, and express our feelings of deep sorrow at the heavy affliction which your Majesty, and the other Members of the Royal Family, have experienced by the death of that universally beloved Prince, His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

The loss which the British Nation has sustained, can only be alleviated by the great confidence which she has ever reposed in your Majesty, since it was a loss infinitely severe, and more severe by the particular conjuncture at which it happened; and the most pleasing, though melancholy, satisfaction which your Majesty can receive, is that, although your Royal Brother dies, he lives in every British heart.

We most sincerely tender our expressions of sympathy and condolence on this melancholy dispensation of Divine Providence, and, regarding the great love and invaluable services which your Majesty has ever conferred on your Protestant people, we offer up, in the feelings of affection and loyalty, our united prayer "God save the King."

[Transmitted by George Bankes, Esq. M. P.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the officiating Lieutenant-Governor, the Judge, the Jurats, the Minister, the Procureur, the Contrôleur and Greffier du Roi, and the Douzainiers of the Island of Alderney, in the States assembled, most humbly beg to assure your Majesty of our sincere and heartfelt sorrow for the great loss which your Majesty and the British Nation have sustained, in the lamented decease of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

This heavy calamity, which it has pleased Providence to inflict, is the more distressing to your Majesty's faithful subjects, from the consideration of the grief it must cause to their beloved Monarch.

May your Majesty deign to accept this humble assurance of our loyalty and sincere attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and deep sorrow for your Majesty's affliction, which it is our most sincere and earnest prayer, that it may please the Almighty, in His infinite goodness, soon to alleviate.

Alderney, March 23, 1827.

LIEUTENANCY—COUNTY OF SOMERSET.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the county of Somerset will be held at the Market-house, in Taunton, in the same county, on Saturday the 5th day of May next, by twelve o'clock at noon.—Dated April 16, 1827.

By order of the Vice-Lieutenant,
Thomas Edward Clarke, Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy of the county of Somerset.

WHEREAS by indenture, bearing date the 21st day of May, in the year 1750, Elizabeth Jones and the Rev. Charles Jones did grant and demise unto the Right Honourable Lord Baron Mornington, Chichester Fortescue, Samuel Bridges, and Theobald Wolfe, that plot of ground on the north side of Lazors'-hill, now Townsend-street, whereon the Westmorland Lock Hospital has since been erected, being in the county of the city of Dublin, to have and to hold unto them and the survivors and survivor of them, his heirs and assigns, for three lives therein named, with a covenant for perpetual renewal, at and under the rent and fines therein specified; and whereas by deed of renewal, made 3d January 1752, by and between the same parties, the life of the Honourable Garrett Wesely was substituted in place of that of His Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, then late deceased, one of the lives named in said lease; and whereas all the said lessees and lives in said lease and renewal are long since dead, and the representatives or heirs or assigns of said lessees have not obtained a further renewal of said lease; and whereas all the right and interest of said lessors in and to the said premises is now vested in me, the undersigned; and whereas I have demanded on the said premises all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided; I hereby require the person or persons in whom the right to have a renewal of said recited lease is now vested, within two calendar months from the date hereof, to pay to me all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, and which I now hereby demand, otherwise I will for ever hereafter resist any claim that may be set up to a renewal under said lease.—Dated this 28th day of February 1827.

Charles Bowen.

To all persons concerned.
