FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1827.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in and by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition of the slave trade," parts of the net proceeds of ships and cargoes taken and condemned for illegal trading in slaves, as therein provided, and also certain bounties and other sums of money therein specified, are made payable to the Commanders, Officers, and crews of such of His Majesty's ships as shall seize and capture the same, subject to such distribution as His Majesty shall think fit and direct by any Order in Council to be made for that purpose:

In pursuance of the powers so given, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that all and every the proceeds, bounties, and other sums of money, which have become payable as aforesaid, and remain undistributed, or which shall become payable as aforesaid under and by virtue of the said recited Act, subject to such order of distribution so to be made as aforesaid, shall be distributed and divided amongst the captors or seizors thereof, in such manner, form, and proportion, and according to such rules and regulations as are directed and provided by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are and shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the Commanders, Officers, and crews of any of His Majesty's ships:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.
