London, June 23.

This day was published a Proclamation, For the Apprehending Colonel John Rumsey, Richard Rumbold Maltster, Richard Nelthorpe Esq; Edward Wade Gent. Richard Goodenough Gent. Captain Walcot, William Thompson, James Burton, and William Hone Foyner.

CHARLES R.

WHereas We have received Information upon Oath, That Colonel John Rumsey, Richard Rumbold Maltster, Richard Nelthorpe Esq; Edward Wade Gent.

Richard Goodenough Gent. Captain Walcot, William Thompson, James Burton, and William Hone Foyner, have Traiterously Conspired together, and with divers other ill-affected and desperate Persons of this Our Kingdom; to compass the Death and Destruction of Our Royal Person, and of our Dearest Brother James Duke of York; And to effect the same, have held several Treasonable Consultations, and made great Provision of Arms: And being given to understand that the said Criminals are fled, and left their Habitations to avoid the Justice of Our Laws; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to Publish Our Royal Pleasure, And We do hereby strictly Charge and Command the said Colonel John Rumsey, Richard Rumbold, Richard Nelthorpe, Edward Wade, Richard Goodenough, Captain Walcot, William Thompson, James Burton, and William Hone, and every of them, forthwith to render themselves to some of Our Judges or Justices of Peace, in order to their Prosecution according to Law. And We do hereby Require and Command as well all and singular our Judges, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Constables, and Headboroughs, as also the Officers and Ministers of Our Ports, and all other our Subjects whatsoever within our Realm of England, Scotland, Ireland, or Dominion of Wales, and all other Our Dominions and Territories, to be diligent in enquiring and searching for the said Offenders in all places whatsoever, as well within Liberties as without: And if they shall happen to take any of them, or that they shall render themselves, Our further Will and Pleasure is. That they cause him or them so Apprehended, to be safely carried before the next Justice of the Peace to the place where he or they shall be Arrested, whom We strictly Charge to commit to Prison, and presently Inform Us, or Our Privy Council, of such Apprehension. And we do hereby further Declare and Publish, That if any Person or Persons, after this Our Proclamation, shall directly or indirectly conceal, harbour, keep, retain, or maintain the said Offenders, or any of them, or shall contrive or connive at any means whereby they or any of them may escape from being Taken or Arrested, or shall not use their best Endeavours for the Apprehension of them, as well by giving due Advertisement thereof to Our Officers, as by all other good means, We will (as there is just cause) proceed against them that shall so neglect this Our Commandment with all Severity. And We do also declare, That whatsoever shall discover the said Offenders, or any of them, either within our Kingdoms of England Scotland, Ireland, or Dominion of Wales, or in any other Our Dominions and Territories, or elsewhere beyond the Seas, and shall cause them or any of them to be Apprehended and brought in as aforesaid, shall have a Reward of One hundred Pounds for each of the said Persons, to be paid unto him in Recompence of such his Service.

Given at our Honour of Hampton Court, this Twenty third day of June, in the Five and Thirtieth Year of Our Reign.

We are commanded to give Notice, That the Christian Name of Wade, mentioned in this Proclamation, is NATHANIEL, not EDWARD.

Whitehall, June 21. This evening, somewhat late, was brought Colonel John Rumsey to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Jenkins's Office, in order to be Examined.

Lisbonne, May 24. The Sixteenth Instant the Duke de Cadaval, Mestre de Camp General of the Forces of this Kingdom, held a Review of the Troops which are quartered here, and in the adjacent Places, at which the Prince assisted incognito. We have advice from Madrid, that the new Generals of the Gallies of Naples, Sicily, and Sardinia, are parted from thence to take possession of their respective Commands.

Naples, June 1. The Navigation in these Seas has been of late so extremely infested by the Turkish Corsairs, that our Governor has been obliged to set forth four Gallies, who are appointed to Cruise near the Islands of Strongoli and Volcanello.

Genova, June 9. The seventh Instant arrived here the Four Brothers, Captain Breholt Commander, with Sugars, Tobacco, &c. from Lisbonne, Cadix, Alicanti, and Villa Franca. The Count de Martenitz, the Emperor's Envoy, is arrived here from Rome: the chief subject of his Negotiation here, as well as with the other Princes of Italy, is to desire an effectual supply either of Men or Money to enable his Imperial Majesty to prosecute the War against the Grand Signior. We have advice from Tripoli, That those Corsairs have six Ships at Sea; That they are setting forth two more, and have carried thither three Fresh Vessels. This Senate hath resolved to add another Half-Moon to the Fortifications which are making at Savona, (on which 1200 Men daily work) and have appointed Signior Grimaldi to be Governor of the place. The Senate have not as yet returned any Answer to the Memorial presented to them by the Sieur de St. Olonne, the French Minister, wherein he desires leave in the King his Masters name to erect a Magazine for Salt at Savona, for the use and supply of the Inhabitants of Montferrat.

Warsaw, June 4. The 28th past the Deputies of Sandomiria were admitted to an Audience of the King whom they humbly thanked in the name of the Inhabitants of that Province for the great care his Majesty had been pleased to take in the late General Dyet of the safety and preservation of the Kingdom, assuring him they will be ready on all occasions to employ their Lives and Fortunes for the Service of his Majesty and the State. The States of Lithuania have undertaken to raise and bring into the Field 12000 Men at the Charge of that Dutchy.

Dantzick, June 12. The Levies that are making in Prussia for the Service of the Elector of Brandenburg, are carried on with great Diligence, and will be in a Readiness to take the Field within 3 Months. The States of that Province have in their late Diet agreed, according to his Electoral Highness's demand, to pay 30000 Rix Dollars Monthly, towards the Entertainment of his Forces.

Vienna, June 13. We have advice from the Imperial Camp before Newbeusel, That the Besiegers having the sixth and seventh Instant erected several Batteries, and on the eighth plac'd the great Guns and Mortar-Pieces upon them, begu'd the ninth to throw their Bombs and Grenadoes into the Town, which did great Execution, and reduced a considerable part of it into Ashes: That in the mean time the Turks who were Lodged on the Counter-scarp made a Sally, in which they lost 60 Men, and we 30, besides three Officers of Note, and that the Duke of Lorraine had sent the Regiments of Halleweil, Ladron, Kbery, and Castelli, to reinforce the Body of Men which is Post'd under the Command of the Palatine of Hungary, on the other side of the River Neutra. We have advice from Grecky-Weiffembourg, That the Grand Vizier having received certain Information that the Crown of Poland had concluded a defensive League with the Emperor, and in pursuance thereof was making great preparations for War, had sent a considerable supply of Money to the Basha of Caminietz, to enable him to raise a Body of Cossacks, which are to be commanded in chief by the Cham of Tartary, to observe the motions and oppose the designs of the Poles.

P. S. By a Courier arrived from the Army we have received advice, That the Duke of Lorraine had on the 10th Instant, in pursuance of an Order which he received from the Emperor, quitted the Siege of Newbeusel, and was returned to his former Camp near Comorra.

Hamburg, June 8. The French Ministers who came lately hither to confer with the Marquis de Villars, are returned to the Courts of those Princes with whom they reside. On Monday next the Sieur Meinders parts hence for Berlin, and Monsieur Bierman, the Danish Envoy, will in a few days after leave this place, in order to meet the King his Master in Holstein, who according to our last Letters from Copenhagen, will be at Gluckstadt the 17th or 18th Instant. The Differences between the Magistrates of this place and the Burghers, are again revived, and what the Issue of them will be time must discover. Yesterday the Burghers assembled about them, and continued together until two of the Clock this Morning; at eleven they met again, and are still together, the Gates of the City being all the time kept shut.

Hague, June 26. On Thursday last Prince Cassimir of Nassau returned hither from Amsterdam, and after a short stay here intends to go to Groningen, and from thence for Germany, to consummate his Marriage with the Princess of Anhalt. The States-General have appointed the Heers Vanden Broek, Hecke, and Haerholte, to go in quality of their Deputies into Flanders, as well to visit the Fortified places which belong to them in that Province, as to alter the Magistrats in the several Towns that are under their Jurisdiction. The Ship Hollandia (in which Count Strum is to Command as Admiral of the Fleet which the States have ordered to be fitted out for this Summer) pass'd the Pampus the 22 Instant, and is Sailed towards the Texel. The Heer Lieburgens, Governor of Oranibow, is arriv'd at Amsterdam; and the Heer Van Somerdyke will part from hence the beginning of the next Month for Surinam, whither he carries with him 500 Soldiers, as well for the Defence as more speedy Plantation of that Colony.

Paris, June 30. On Friday last between seven and eight a Clock in the Evening there happened a kind of a Hurricane, at Rouen, which was so terrible that it would have endangered the whole Town, had it lasted. It did, for the short time of its continuance a great deal of harm, having very much shattered divers Houses, and beat down six Steeples, and two Turrets of the Cathedral, and several persons that were Swimming being drown'd: In the adjacent Country the Damage was not less, their Corn and Fruit-trees being for the most part spoiled. It is said that the Court will return sooner than was expected, and that their Most Christian Majesties will be at Verfailles the 18th or 20th of the next Month.

Dover, June 20. Yesterday in the afternoon pass'd by to the Eastward, a Fleet of 23 French Ships, whereof 14 were Men of War, and the rest Fireships and Tenders. We are inform'd by Passengers arriv'd from Dunkirk, that there lay three Frigats ready to join them.

Windfor, June 21. This day the Sheriffs and Common-Serjeant of London, by command of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, in pursuance of an Order of Common Council, waited on his Majesty, humbly to acquaint him that the Common Council had agreed to submit to the Regulations required by His Majesty, and had put out the Election of Sheriffs, and other Officers, which were to have been chosen on Midsummer-Day, until the 18th of July next.
