THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Members of Parliament for the city of Bristol, was presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Bristol, and its Vicinity, animated with sentiments of the warmest affection to your Majesty, and the most zealous attachment to those principles of civil and religious Government which seated your Illustrious Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms, are emboldened by an irresistible sense of public duty, to represent most respectfully to your Majesty, the deep and anxious interest which, in the present critical state of the country, we feel for the safety of our revered Constitution.

We cannot conceal from ourselves the magnitude of those losses which the Protestant Religion, assailed, as it has been of late years, by the constantly renewed attacks of Papal incroachment, has suffered within these Realms, by the lamented demise of your Majesty's illustrious relative, the most exalted and powerful of her champions, and by the sudden and afflicting dispensation of Providence, which has since suspended the services of that eminent Statesman placed at the head of your Majesty's Government, whose abilities and deeply rooted Constitutional principles, have so deservedly secured to him the highest rank in the esteem and confidence of his fellow subjects.

In this alarming state of public affairs, when the efforts of our Roman Catholic brethren for the attainment of political power and influence in the State, are renewed with increased activity and vehemence, the exertions of a vigorous and united Administration are obviously requisite to protect the country from the calamities, which would be the inevitable consequence of so fatal an invasion of the fundamental principles of the Constitution.

To your Majesty, the father of your people, and supreme guardian of the laws, we look with confidence to provide for that protection. Upon your Majesty's watchful and paternal care for the welfare of your subjects, we know that we may rely for the adoption of whatever measures may be requisite to avert from the country such fearful calamities ; and we beg respectfully to submit our assured conviction that, in such measures, your Majesty will receive the cordial and grateful support of all classes of your Protestant subjects.

We are not actuated by any feeling of unkindness to our Roman Catholic brethren, the spirit of toleration which marks the Religion it is our glory to profess, teaches us to rejoice in every concession which has been made to them for the full and free enjoyment of their religious worship : but it is our firm and conscientious conviction, that the concession of political power within these dominions, to Members of the Church of Rome, is incompatible with the safety of our religious and civil liberties, as established at the Revolution. Their exclusion from the National Councils, and from high Offices in the State, was the basis upon which those blessings were secured by the wisdom of our ancestors : that basis, from the unchanged and unchangeable character of the Roman Catholic Religion, cannot, we are persuaded, be withdrawn without endangering the existence of our political liberties and national prosperity.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a people, grateful for the blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's paternal and auspicious reign, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Bristol, 1st March 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Sturges Bourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Freemen of your Majesty's Town of Maidstone, commonly called the Inflexible Society, beg to approach your Majesty with the most ardent feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, and with our cordial thanks for the manifestation of your Royal firmness, in selecting to preside over your Majesty's Councils a Minister of your own free choice, in opposition to a concerted plan for coercing your Royal will in the assertion of the most valuable part of your Majesty's prerogative.

That your Majesty may always be enabled to manifest a similar firmness on every trying occasion, and may long continue to reign over a free, united, and happy people, is the most ardent wish and the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate subjects, the Inflexible Freemen of Maidstone.

Signed on behalf of the Society,
Thos. Orford, President.

[Transmitted by A. W. Robarts, Esq. M.P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Brecon, presume to approach your Throne with sentiments of sincere condolence on the severe infliction of Divine Providence, which has deprived this Country of the valuable services of the Right Honourable the Earl of Liverpool, who, for several years, has presided with acknowledged integrity and ability over the affairs of your United Kingdom.

The experience we have had during the many years in which your Majesty has conducted the affairs of this great Country as Prince Regent and as King, inspire us with just confidence, that, in the exercise of your undoubted prerogative in the appointment of the new Ministers, your Majesty has endeavoured to place the reins of power in the hands of eminent persons, whose distinguished talents have evinced their fitness for holding them; and we sincerely pray, that, with the assistance of your Council, and the support of a loyal and dutiful People, your Majesty may long continue in health and strength to promote and uphold the stability, prosperity, and integrity of the British Empire.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The affectionate and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of Chichester and its Environs.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the City of Chichester, and the Environs thereof, with a feeling of due respect for your Majesty's august Person and Office, humbly beg to express to your Majesty our satisfaction at the change that has taken place in your Majesty's Councils.

With the frankness which is congenial to the English character, and destitute of which, we are persuaded your subjects would, by a person of your Majesty's patriotism and discernment, be regarded with sentiments very different from esteem, we would not approach your Majesty with that flattery which too often pollutes the royal ear, but with all proper humility we beg to declare it as our opinion, that, in consequence of the long and expensive contest, in which your late revered Royal Father, as well as your Majesty found it needful to engage, our Country is arrived at that crisis in which the greatest talent, integrity, and liberal feeling are required safely to conduct the vessel of the State.

Without therefore professing to coincide with some of the opinions, which have in former times been expressed by the eminent individual whom it has pleased your Majesty to honour with your Majesty's special confidence, by placing him, at the head of your Majesty's Government, we rejoice at the appointment which your Majesty has been pleased to make, from the conviction we entertain, that at this juncture, when from a variety of clashing interests, distracting our Country, and from a struggle existing not merely in our land, but throughout the civilized world, between antiquated and contracted measures of policy and more liberal views no person could be more acceptable to the majority not merely of your Majesty's subjects, but also to the liberal minded in other countries than is the Right Honourable George Canning, for the important Office of First Lord of the Treasury.

In stating this our feeling we would also express our conviction and earnest hope, that should any attempt be made by an odious oligarchy, a body of persons unacknowledged by the British Constitution, to fetter your Majesty in the exercise of your wholesome and constitutional prerogative, and to thwart your Majesty in devising and in executing liberal schemes, your Majesty will find in your faithful and loyal people that support, which, in circumstances so novel, and on an occasion so trying, your Majesty may unfortunately require.

That it may please Divine Providence to continue for many happy years your Majesty's reign; and that your Majesty may have the pleasure of seeing the distress and difficulty, under which your subjects are labouring, ameliorated and dispersed by the paternal spirit and wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, is the ardent wish of your Majesty's undersigned faithful and loyal subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-on-Tweed, in Guild assembled, venture to approach your Throne at this almost unprecedented crisis of public affairs, with our decided expression, not of concurrence in only, but of ardent admiration of that magnanimity which your Majesty evinced on a late occasion, in the choice of your Prime Minister, and in the just exertion of your Royal Prerogative.

In this exertion and that magnanimity, we perceive alike your Majesty's paternal solicitude for the welfare of the Nation, and an uncompromising adherence to the principles of the Constitution. It is not for servants or subjects (however greatly distinguished by royal favour) to presume to dictate to, much less to controul your Majesty in the deliberate exercise of an acknowledged privilege; but it is their duty to feel, to cherish, and to declare their sense of gratitude to a Monarch who fearlessly defends their rights, and vindicates his own independence against every system of intimidation or desertion, whether arising from contumacy or disappointment.

The wisdom of your Majesty's determination, in elevating the Right Honourable George Canning to the head of the National Councils, stands confirmed by the universal recognition of his talents as a Statesman; who, while he has called the fairest portion of the New World, by a train of magnanimous policy, into an independent existence, has, by a prompt and masterly stroke in aid of a British Ally, in all probability, saved Europe from the desolating scourge of war.

Accept, therefore, Beloved Sovereign, the assurance of our loyalty and confidence in your Majesty's paternal Government, and that it may please Divine Providence to preserve you in health and happiness, long to reign over this great and loyal Nation, is our most sincere and fervent prayer.

Given under our Common Seal of the said Borough, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 25th day of April, in the eighth year of your Majesty's reign.

Thomas J. Steel, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Tankerville.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Councilmen of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, impressed with the justest and the deepest sense of the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious reign, embrace with eagerness every opportunity of offering to your Majesty our assurances of zeal and attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We should think ourselves unworthy of that tender care and concern which your Majesty has invariably shewn for the welfare of this Kingdom, and the prosperity and happiness of your People, if we were insensible of the important measures which your Majesty has thought proper lately to adopt in support of the just prerogatives of the Crown, and whilst we contemplate with admiration the magnanimity and firmness with which your Majesty has upheld its true honour and dignity, we humbly entreat your Majesty's acceptance of our heartiest concurrence in those measures.

And we most fervently pray that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy.

Given under our common seal, this 24th day of April 1827.

[Transmitted by S. R. Lushington, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign and Patron of our Order.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Officers, and Brethren of the United Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of England, in Grand Lodge assembled, fully participating in every cause of grief to your Majesty and your august Family, most dutifully crave permission, in the double relation of Subjects and Masons, to offer to you, Sire, our most sincere and most heartfelt condolence on the decease of your Majesty's illustrious Brother His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, a Past Deputy Grand Master of our ancient and venerable Order.

His merits and departed worth will live in the mournful recollection of the Nation at large; History will transmit to future ages the integrity, zeal, and excellence of His late Royal Highness in that department of your Majesty's Government which, for many years, was confided to his able, faithful, and impartial administration: whilst it is the peculiar study of our Fraternity to record with gratitude, to notice with pleasure, and to dwell with delight on those amiable qualities and affections of the mind and heart which endeared this distinguished Prince and Brother to every individual, and by which he was enabled practically to illustrate the three grand principles of Masonry.

But we must abstain from renewing, by our expressions of regret, the grief of your Majesty on this mournful occasion, which it is our most anxious wish to alleviate.

Deign, therefore, Sire, to accept this short but sincere tribute of our devotion to your sacred person, and of our deep and unfeigned sorrow for the loss which your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Nation have sustained.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and united people, and that you, Sire, may be graciously pleased to continue that protection towards our Order which we have for so many years, and under so many storms, enjoyed through the gracious intercession of your Majesty when Prince of Wales, and now more immediately at your sovereign hands since your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Royal Father, of blessed memory, are amongst the first wishes and the prevailing sentiments of our hearts: and we fervently implore the Great Architect of the Universe to shower down every earthly blessing on your Royal Person, and on every Member of your august House.

BY virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Bervice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 27th of February 1827;

I the undersigned, at the instance of William Campbell, James McDonald, and James Rich, in quality as deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of Francis Brittlebank, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors and Claimants, as well against the estate of aforementioned Francis Brittlebank, deceased, as against plantation Bloomfield, his the deceased's property, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be holden in the month of July 1827, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time, as well against the estate of Francis Brittlebank, deceased, as against his plantation Bloomfield; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearers according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, the 28th February 1827.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein George Gilbanke is the plaintiff, and Joseph Cox and others are the defendants, by Mr. Thomas Marrs, who is appointed to sell the same by James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to whom this cause stands referred, at the Howard-Arms Inn, in Brampton, in the County of Cumberland, on Tuesday the 29th day of May instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

A freehold messuage, tenement, or farmhold, called Holme-foot and Island, situate in the Township of Burtbolme, in the Parish of Lanercost, in the County of Cumberland, consisting of a farm-house and out-buildings, and 50 acres of land, and one acre of wood land; and also a public-house, stable, and two gardens, situate at the said Island, with an allotment of common, containing 1A. 1R. 24P. situate at Banks, in the said Township.

The tenants will shew the premises in their respective occupations; and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Bell and Brodrick, Solicitors, 9, Bow-Church-Yard, London; of Messrs. Mounsey and Gray, Solicitors, 9, Staple-Inn, London; of Mr. Carriek, Solicitor, Brampton; and of Messrs. Law and Beadle, Solicitors, in Carlisle.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, intituled Mortlock against Waddilove and Barton against Mortlock, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

Certain leasehold estates, situate in Bryanstone-Mews and Little Durweston-Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary-la-Bonne, in the County of Middlesex, consisting of three leasehold stables, with coach-houses adjoining, situate on the north side of Bryanstone-Mews, in the occupation of William Brown; a spacious vault, extending under two of the coach-houses; a leasehold dwelling-house, situate on the north side of Bryanstone-Mews, in the occupation of Mrs. Morrow and ——— Ingrams; a leasehold dwelling-house, situate on the south side of Bryanstone-Mews, in the occupation of Mr. Henvies or his undertenants; and a leasehold dwelling-house, situate in Little Durweston-Street, Crawford-Street, in the occupation of ——— Arthur.

Particulars whereof, stating the time and place of sale, may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Berkeley, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn; of Mr. Charles Reeves, Solicitor, Ely-Place, Holborn; of Mr. Fielder, Duke-Street, Grosvenor-Square (where the original leases may be inspected); and of Messrs. Dendy and Morphet, Solicitors, Bream's-Buildings, Chancery-Lane.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in causes Burnett v. Draper and Hanley v. Burnett, with the approbation of James Stephen, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at Worthing, in the County of Sussex, early in the month of June next;

A freehold dwelling-house, situate in Bedford-Row, Worthing, and called Bedford-House, containing a noble drawing-room, dining-room, several parlours, and twenty-two bedrooms, and is commodious in other respects. Some time since used by Mr. Bloss, as a boarding-house, for which it is peculiarly adapted; immediate possession may be had.

N. B. This property will give votes for the County of Sussex, and for the rape of Bramber.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Hillier and Lewis, Solicitors, No. 2, Middle Temple-Lane; Mr. Burn, Solicitor, Great Knight-Rider-Street, Doctors' Commons; Messrs. Brooksbank and Farn, Solicitors, Grays Inn-Square, London; Messrs. Holmes, Solicitors, Arundel; of Mr. Tribe and Mr. Edmunds, Solicitors, Worthing; and at the principal Inns at Worthing and the Neighbourhood.

WHEREAS, by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 10th day of May 1826, made in a cause wherein Philip Hayes, Clerk, and others, are plaintiffs, and William Hayes, Clerk, and others, are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, who were the next of kin of Ann Thomas Hayes, the testatrix in the pleadings named, living at her death; and that he should also inquire who were the grandchildren of the said testatrix, which were living at the time of her death, or which have been born since. The said testatrix, Ann Thomas Hayes, was the widow of the Reverend William Hayes, late a Minor Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, and who afterwards lived and resided in St. Paul's Church-Yard, London, afterwards in Scott's-Place, Islington, in the County of Middlesex; but at the time of her death, which happened on or about the 29th day of October 1804, she was living and residing at Kensington Gravel-Pits, in the same County. Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be the next of kin of the said Ann Thomas Hayes, living at her death, or to be the grandchild or grandchildren of the said testatrix, living at her death, or to have been born since, are, on or before the 16th day of June 1827, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their claim, or claims, to be such next of kin, or grandchild, or grandchildren, or, in default thereof, he, she, or they, will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Relations of Thomas Thompson, of Greta-Bridge, in Yorkshire

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Brown against Bland, the Next of Kin of Thomas Thompson, formerly of Greta-Bridge, in the Parish of Rokeby, but late of Mount-Pleasant, in the Parish of Startforth, in the North-Riding of the County of York, Gentleman, deceased (who died in the month of February 1819), and also the personal representatives of such of the next of kin of the said Thomas Thompson as were living at the time of his death, but who have since died, are forthwith to come in and make out their claims as such next of kin and personal representatives, before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—The said Thomas Thompson was the only surviving son of Henry Thompson, formerly of Greta-Bridge aforesaid (who died in the month of November 1793), and of Jane his wife, formerly Jane Kellett, Spinster (which said Jane died in the month of June 1811), and was the daughter of Edward Kellett and Jane his wife, formerly of Startforth aforesaid, both long since deceased, and which said Henry Thompson and Jane Kellett were married at Startforth aforesaid in the month of May 1751.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Viney, at the Commercial-Rooms, Bristol, on Thursday the 7th day of June next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, by virtue of an order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and also of an order of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor, in the matter of Bankruptcy;
